Some tobacco spurt up in the pipe while smoking, with little crackling explosions. This is caused by the addition of foreign matter to assist the combustion. When the purity of the tobacco is not tampered with, and it has been properly taken care of, this combustible foreign matter is wholly unnecessary. For in that case it burns at a lower temperature than almost anything. Nothing of this kind is seen in smoking the "Myrtle Navy." It burns with steady combustion throughout.

HYMNICAL.—The nuptials of Miss Phinney, daughter of Rev. J. S. Phinney, to Rev. Robert C. Murray, of Botsford, N. B., were celebrated at Little York yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. Murray take up their residence at Neepawa, Manitoba. We wish them every success.

THE Summerside Journal says: "The prize awarded Miss McInnis at the Convent examination, on 20th ult., was a very handsome gold medal, the gift of His Lordship, Bishop McIntyre. There were also two silver medals presented by the Mother Superiress, and awarded to Miss S. T. Strong, for application in music, and Miss Jessie Arsenault for Domestic Economy. Supt. Montgomery has presented three handsome volumes to be awarded at the Christmas examination; for which the ladies of the Convent wish to express their thanks.

AN ISLANDER AT HOME.—The Rev. Henry C. McDonald, of Pompey, New York, is at present visiting his friends in the eastern part of the Island. He preached in the South Lake Baptist Church on Sunday last. Mr. McDonald was formerly a student at the Prince of Wales College, and completed his studies at Bethany College, U. S. He is the son of the late James McDonald, Esq., of Kingsboro, Lot 47, and nephew of Rev. Edward C. Anderson, D. D., President of McPherson College, Oregon, who is also an East Point man. We are always pleased to learn of the successes of our Islanders abroad, but not any more so than when we have an opportunity of welcoming, as in this instance, a talented and worthy young man back again to his Island friends and home.

Immoral Trading in Young Girls.

The Pall Mall Gazette Defies the Courts and Continues its Revelations.

LONDON, July 9. The Pall Mall Gazette bids defiance to the authorities, who threaten to institute criminal proceedings against it, and who are attempting to suppress its sale of the past three days' issues. It claims the honor of leading in the cause of exposing vices of the rich and declares that the best men in all England enthusiastically support it in its crusade. The Gazette further challenges the courts of London to prosecute it for the work it is engaged in, and says it might subpoena half the Legislature of England to prove the accuracy of its revelations. The Gazette continues the work of adding to its revelations and great excitement prevails. The paper is selling at a premium and the circulation of the journal has increased enormously.

Rev. C. H. Spurgeon approves of the "Gazette's" action.

A strong and remarkable Letter.

LONDON, July 9. Rev. Charles H. Spurgeon publishes a letter in the Pall Mall Gazette, approving of the course that journal is taking in exposing the secret vices of the aristocracy of London. The letter of Mr. Spurgeon is remarkable in many respects, and the following are some quotations from it:—"I feel bowed down with shame and indignation."

"This is loathsome business; but even sewers must be cleaned."

"I pray that good may come from this horrible exposure which incidentally must do harm, but whose drift must result in lasting benefit."

"I don't think our charges have failed, for they have kept a pure remnant alive in the land."

"I believe that many are unaware of these dunghills veiling under their noses. All should co-operate in your warfare. Spare not the villains even though they should be wearing Stars or Garters. We need a Vigilance Committee and a moral policy to suppress the infamy. Let the light in without stint."

The Fishery Bounty.

OTTAWA, July 9. Mr. Riopel, M. P., has been working to get the regulations respecting the bounty to fishermen altered, so as to allow a bounty to all fishing boats measuring from twelve to fifteen feet in length. A petition to that effect has been signed by the Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island members, and they will receive the support of New Brunswick and Quebec members who are interested in the fisheries. The petition will be immediately presented to the Governor-General in Council.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

Farewell Addresses.

SIR,—One can scarcely take up a newspaper now-a-days, without finding in it, one or more addresses to teachers, beginning with "departure from amongst us" and winding up with all kinds of sincere wishes for "future welfare" which are, of course heartily reciprocated by the half broken-hearted individual who is about to take his "departure from our midst." Teachers and Trustees have as good a right to be affectionate and sentimental as other persons, but I don't think they have any right to make other folks feel bad by publishing in the papers, especially during the dog days, their sorrowful and heart-stirring farewells. Addresses are all very well in their place, but as a general rule they are quite out of place unless they are accompanied by something more substantial than mere words—such as a purse of money, or a souvenir which one would feel proud to show to his friends in after years. It is certainly very refreshing to find in this usually cold and cruel world, manifestations of kindly feeling and brotherly love, but then it must not be considered that the only ones who live together in harmony in school matters, are those who publish their mutual admirations in the papers. The poet tells us that "Many a flower is born to blush unseen, and waste its fragrance on the desert air," and such, to a certain extent, is the case with many a devoted teacher, who never receives an address on the eve of his (or her) departure—nor at any other time.

Yours truly, TEACHER.

Song.

TO AN UNKNOWN AIR.

(Picked up in the corridor, "Lorne" Hotel, Tracadie Beach.)

In front the golden sunset's sweep
Sheds mellow shadows o'er the Bay,
And the far-reaching, quiet deep
Is the horizon far away.

All-blending speaks of quiet time,
Beneath the classic Phoebus' beam
Of some sweet Southern lotus clime,
Where all one's life is—but to dream.

Such in this scene, The above, the sky,
The small clouds pierced by sunset's ray,
Shall e'er remind us pleasantly
Of Tracadie's dear dreamy Bay.

DEPART.

At Charlottetown, on Tuesday, 7th inst., after a long and protracted illness, which was borne with Christian Resignation to the Divine Will, Frederick Harris, in the 64th year of his age. The deceased was for many years sexton and caretaker of the Methodist Brick Church of this city, the duties of which were under every circumstance, faithfully discharged. He was cheerful and obliging in his disposition, which characteristic endeared him to all with whom he came in contact. He held in high esteem by all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance, and is much regretted by his family circle, and numerous friends. He died in the full assurance of his acceptance in the Blessed. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord."—Rev 14:13.

[The funeral will leave his late residence, Grafton Street, on Friday, at 1.45 o'clock, p. m., thence to the Methodist Brick Church, and by train to Sherwood Cemetery. Friends and acquaintances are kindly invited to attend.]
