

Women

Lena Caroline McLure, Women's Editor. Phone 8508

Page 6, The Guardian Friday, July 25, 1958

HAPPENINGS

Mrs. Larry Slaght was the guest of honor at a dinner at Keppoch Beach Inn Wednesday evening given for her by the Alpha chapter of the Beta Sigma Phi sorority. Mrs. Slaght leaves shortly with her husband and two little girls for Ottawa where they will reside.

At the conclusion of the dinner Miss Helen Cox, president of Alpha chapter, on behalf of the sorority sisters presented Mrs. Slaght with an aluminum Island scene tray.

Miss Cox well expressed the feelings of everyone in paying tribute to Mrs. Slaght who has been an indefatigable worker in the sorority. Mrs. Slaght's natural homemaker and executive ability combined with her formal training were given in unstinted service to the various projects which the club sponsors.

Mrs. Slaght sincerely thanked the sorority. At the conclusion President Helen Cox was complimented upon the delightful evening she has provided for the guest of honor and the other members of the Alpha chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority.

Mrs. N.H. DeBlolis entertained at her summer cottage Keppoch, Wednesday morning at a coffee party in honor of Mrs. G.T. Gordon of West Orange, New Jersey. Mrs. Gordon is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Edward Miller and Mr. Miller at Keppoch.

Mr. and Mrs. W.A. Simpson, Bay View, left by train July 23rd on a trip to Edmonton, Alberta. They will be visiting their two daughters, Miss Vera Simpson and Miss Helen Simpson, also Mr. Simpson's brother Mr. J.E. Simpson. Mr. and Mrs. Simpson made a similar trip several years ago.

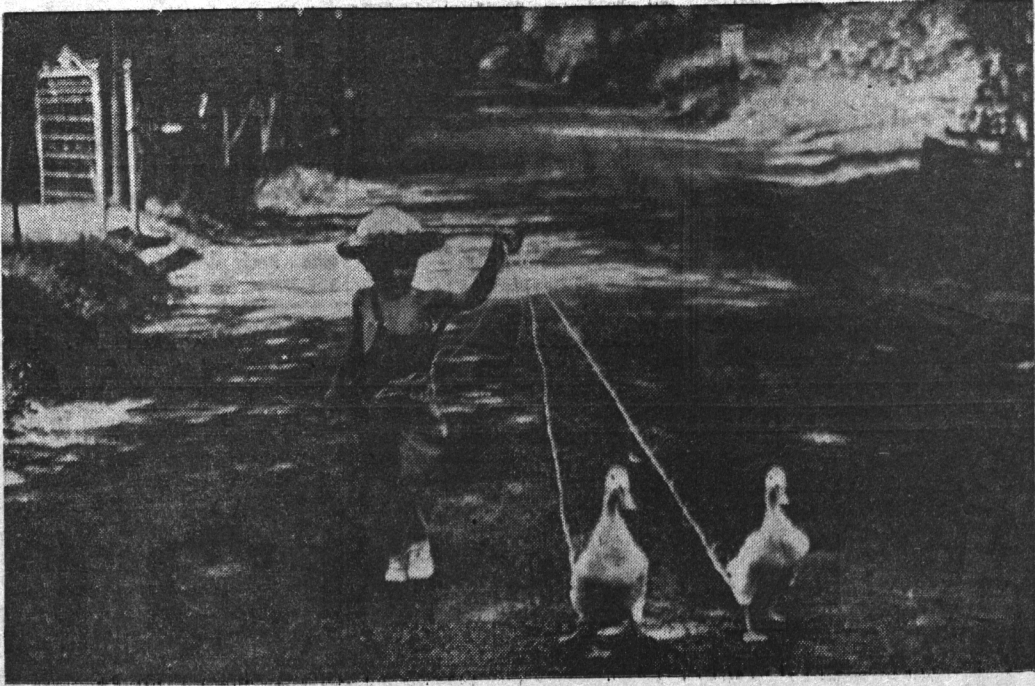

Mrs. H.V. Haslam, Newton, Mass., is summering at Keppoch with Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Seller and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin H. Bushell and son Tammie of Halifax are visiting Mrs. Bushell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. K.M. Martin.

Mrs. H.H. Simpson and Mrs. W.T. Warren entertained at tea Wednesday afternoon at the Warren cottage at Keppoch. Mrs. H.M. Simpson poured tea.

Mr. and Mrs. C.W. Peters and son Allan have returned to their home in Truro, N.S. They had been visiting Mrs. Peter's brother-in-law, and sister, Mr. and Mrs. D.B. Smith, Charlottetown.

Mrs. Archie Nicholson, formerly Katie MacDermid of Victoria Cross now residing in Bismarck, North Dakota, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Kestie Ross, Union Road, Kings County. She will also visit at other points throughout the province.

A MATCHED TEAM!

When taking picture of animals and children, compose the picture in the viewfinder, then step back an extra few feet, focusing for the actual camera-to-subject distance. This provides an extra margin in which the animal may move without leaving the picture. You may get a picture as good as this one.

MARY HAWORTH

Brother's Engagement Is A Cause Of Concern

Dear Mary Haworth: My brother Evan, 33, is marrying a girl 19. Went steady for just a month, then popped the question. Her family immediately made arrangements for the wedding—next September.

There is a difference in nationality and religion, but the wedding will take place in his church and the children, if any, will be raised in his faith.

We don't object to Ruth's religion and nationality, but it bothers us the way her family has made all the preparations without meeting our family. Evan is ashamed of the section where we live. But I am engaged to a West Point fellow and I'm not ashamed of the neighborhood—and he stays overnight, as his folks live upstairs.

Evan had been going with another girl off and on for seven years, but they never mentioned marriage, he says. Grace now is 25, the same religion and nationality as we—and has stuck to Evan through thick and thin. She is quite upset about Ruth and says she'll make Evan wish he was never born.

ALL LIKED GRACE
We all had liked Grace and can understand how upset she feels. Evan had broken away from her many times, but would weaken and go back when she called. Our family feels that he should go steady with Ruth a few months longer, to make sure what he really wants. When some of the sturdiest is out of his eyes, maybe then he can think clearly.

Ruth knows all the answers and has been engaged twice before. She has a beautiful face but is rather heavy. She and Evan met professionally in December (both are singers), but didn't date until April. In May he tells us they are engaged and she is wearing his ring. We met her last week for the first time.

I love Evan and wish him the best. My other four brothers all married different nationalities, and all but one are happy. The bad marriage was based on too little acquaintance—and I don't want Evan to make the same mistake. But he says he's sure.

What is your opinion?—W.R.
DEAR W.R.: As I get the picture, the family probably always has had too much of a finger in the pie of Evan's romances, until he met Ruth.

And because the family got no opportunity to mix into this latest attraction, in the early rounds, it has surprisingly outdistanced their belated grab for control.

Unconsciously you are fighting Mom's battle for possession of her baby son. I think you echo her sentiments of concern, without understanding her deep motivation, or recognizing the "why" of your ditto.

Evan has met his fate, it seems—the girl who can change him from an apron string bachelor son into an eager bridegroom; and this without even trying.

Ruth had been engaged twice before, you say—which probably explains why Evan is letting no grass grow under his feet. He doesn't procrastinate about tying the knot, lest she think again, and look further, and jilt him too.

STORIES MIXED UP
In one breath you blame Ruth's folks for going ahead with wedding plans, before consulting your family. In the next breath, you mention that Evan is ashamed of your home address. This indirect association of ideas suggests that he has been stalling off a two-family meeting. And I surmise that he's been manoeuvring for time, to keep you all from sabotaging his break-freeedom from apron strings, while his purpose was formulating.

Actually, according to traditions of good form, the man's parents are supposed to take the lead, in paying a courtesy call upon the girl's family, once an engagement is in-the-works. So if your folks have sat back and waited on this score, that was your error.

It is too bad about Grace's disappointed hopes and embittered spirit. But she probably is paying the price of having tried to court Evan under his parents' nose. Much as you may have liked her, in a patronizing way, for looking after him—still, you chewed her to pieces, appraisingly, in his hearing, no doubt, thus neutralizing his feeling for her.

For advice—let your brother do his own marrying, for better or for worse—M.H.

Mary Haworth counsels through her column, not by mail or personal interview. Write her in care of this newspaper.

SIMPSONS - SEARS MAILS FALL CATALOGUES

TORONTO, July 10, 1958 — An indication of what consumers may expect to pay for living necessities (except food) during the fall and winter season 1958-1959 was given when Simpson-Sears began distribution of its fall and winter catalogue last week.

While prices generally throughout the catalogue have remained the same as last fall, there are many items which are actually lower, according to a Simpson-Sears spokesman.

Simpsons-Sears shipping policy remains the same with the Company paying all shipping charges anywhere in Canada. Credit buying has also remained the same with up to two years to pay on major items.

Fashions for fall and winter occupy a prominent place in the opening section of the book, starting off with the front cover featuring a modified version of the chemise style in high fashion coats.

Many entirely new lines of household goods are introduced, and one of the firm's biggest features is its 10-page section of stereo sound equipment, Hi-Fi and T. V. sets, radios, and various combination models.

WEARING APPAREL NEWS
In line with the latest international fashion developments many chemise-style dresses, with front-belt or back-bow treatment, are featured for women, misses, teenagers and even little girls. T-strap sandals and "chemise" cloche hats complement this fashion trend.

On men's fashion pages photographs were widely used for the first time where drawing was used in the past. Fashion news is the "Vesteez," a one-piece shirt of the different materials which looks like a sleeveless cardigan over a sportshirt. For the outdoor sportsman more hunting outfits are offered than ever before in the men's section.

MORE POWER TO HER
A real help for Mrs. Home-maker will be any of the new Kenmore luggage-style vacuum cleaners. The book introduces a completely new line of the compact, light-weight and easy-to-store models which finally do away with the tank-or canister-type models which were so hard to move and awkward to store. All models can easily be carried around the house like a piece of luggage. The top model of this line combines so many features that it becomes a complete cleaning unit on wheels: Storage for all parts right in the unit (no more running back and forth for parts), adjustable speeds, adjustable suction, stands on star steps and can be moved with a minimum of effort.

An excellent value is offered with a 30" electric stove which has as many features as a big stove: Visual windows, automatic "rotisserie," many of her automatic controls, and an infinite variety of cooking temperatures. The price tag on this is $289.95.

Finally, a three-speed hand-mixer with brand-new thumb-control and ejector button will be just the thing for those small mixing or stirring jobs which do not require a big mixer.

STEREO — A NEW WORLD IN SOUND — NOW BY MAIL ORDER
While the new era in stereo sound is still in its infancy, Simpson-Sears already offers a line-up of Hi-Fi sets with stereo changers, speakers, stereo recording, records and complete Hi-Fi systems. There are also many different phonograph - T. V. combination sets, AM and FM radios and popular transistor radios in the catalogue.

One of the most interesting items in the ten-page offering of radios, T.V., record players etc., is the De Luxe Home Entertainment Centre, a complete Hi-Fi system with a 24" screen, five Hi-Fi speakers, all the latest recording and reproduction features plus all the attachments and controls for stereo records. This set is so new that it has not even been ordered before September 2, 1958. It has the highest price of a single catalogue item — $509.95.

Another first in the catalogue is a new 8 mm movie projector which takes 400-foot reels for full one-half hour showing. It features a built-in room-light switch (no more fumbling for the switch in the dark) and is lower priced.

And if you feel tired from a day's hard work, you can relax in a Vibrator lounge which will gently vibrate to massage your aching muscles and give you real comfort.

FREE ESTIMATES FOR PLUMBING AND ELECTRICAL STALLATIONS
As in previous catalogues Simpson-Sears again offers a complete line-up of plumbing and heating equipment for either do-it-yourself or professional installation by the firm. Anyone who is considering installation of a new heating system, a new bathroom, or just a new sink can write for a free estimate on the job. To the handyman who installs his own system the firm will send complete blueprints and instructions for non-technical language.

Another Simpson-Sears customer service is the Harmon House Color Planning Book which has already proved its tremendous value to thousands of Canadian families. This reference booklet is offered in the catalogue as a guide for interior decorating in matching and harmonizing colors.

As an illustration of what matching and harmonizing of colors, the back page of the catalogue features matching bedroom and bathroom ensembles — the thing for the modern home maker.

Couple Pledge Vows At St. Dunstan's Basilica

The marriage of Noreen Theresa, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mullen, to Dennis Alfred, son of Mrs. J. Alfred Doyle and the late Mr. Doyle of Charlottetown, took place at St. Dunstan's Basilica on June 19th, 1958.

Rev. Francis Corcoran performed the double ring ceremony and celebrated the nuptial mass. The altar was beautifully decorated for the occasion with baskets of summer flowers. Mr. Loman MacAnally was soloist, accompanied by Mrs. Joseph Dougan at the organ.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother Leo, wore a ballerina length gown in French Chantilly lace, fashioned with sweetheart neckline, ruffled torso and hooped skirt with long sleeves tapering to a point on the hand. Her chapel length veil was held in place by a band of pearls and sequins and she carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations.

The bride was attended by her sister Miss Marie Mullen, who wore a ballerina length gown of pink nylon over taffeta with matching headpiece. She carried a nosegay of talisman roses.

Mr. Allan Doyle acted as best man for his brother and the usher was Mr. Alfred Mullen, brother of the bride and Mr. Leonard MacCormack, cousin of the groom.

The groom's mother wore a navy blue triple sheer two piece dress, with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Queen Hotel. The bride's table was decorated with mixed flowers and centered with a three-tier wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom. The toast to the bride was proposed by Reverend K.C. MacMillan and was responded to by the groom.

Amid showers of confetti the happy couple left on a honeymoon trip to the New England States. For travelling the bride wore a pale blue tulle over a flowered sheath dress, with white hat, matching accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. — Photo by Meyers Studio.

ELLEN'S DIARY

The First Barns of Hay Are Filled At Alderlea

"And take your time!" James called after the help going on ahead in the truck to the field and the saving of hay this morning.

He was harnessing the team for the rake at the time, buckling an end of the double reins to a bit, and adjusting the others in turn.

"It's the haste, Ellen," he commented, "that brings the accidents. There's never a haying that there isn't misfortune somewhere — falls and broken limbs, and other hurts. And there's also those that come from poor gear. I like to have everything in good shape, down to the smallest detail of it. They say 'An ounce of prevention'."

"... is worth a pound of cure" we finished with a chuckle.

"Well!" he nodded, "there never were truer words than those when applied to the haying. A block half-secured gives away, or an end swing on the lift breaks or poor harness gives... and too late folks are in difficulties!"

"You'll ride?" we said watching him gather up the lines.

"Oh no, I'll walk. The exercise will be good for me. I'll be seated on the rake long enough!"

Granddaughter, by choice, and with her assistance much appreciated, managed the horse in the lift this afternoon, enjoying it much. It was good for her to be out in the open absorbing the golden vitamins to have against the grayish Island-Fall, and the white Winter, ahead.

Mack a steady little fellow, and with an adult close by, was allowed to drive the tractors on a level field, well pleased at this responsibility and his elders that he did it so well. So that with all the help there was a great saving of hay, and by this evening first barns of the place were full.

Indoors in that quiet which remains to us when all are in the field, and at the house across the lane where only a lone lad is then, the cooks look well to the meals.

"This is a pick-up meal!" James has said chuckling to Gage and Mack who are these days with us at table, "pick up what we can!"

And the "joint" disappears, and the vegetables at dinner: the Keswick potatoes that retain late their tasteful floury qualities... the greens off the garden-plot. And always now there are the strawberries to help out the menus of the haying-housewife. Served all natural with sugar and cream, or sugared before and left to grow sweeter in the juice, or in the toothsome shortcake, a favorite, as it conveniently happens, with all our help.

The bread? What is there to a loaf! The rolls? How fast they vanish in the delightfully hungry season at hand.

"Just another day to this week! Would you believe it, Ellen?" James queries noting day and date on the newspaper, he in the old armchair now unfolds. "Just another day!"

We catch night-stars through the open door... "Stars of the Summer Night!"

"Just tomorrow!" we nod. Until tomorrow — — Diary Good-night.

Mr. And Mrs. G. E. Miehlm Honeyymooning In P. E. I.

Mr. and Mrs. George Edward Miehlm travelled to Prince Edward Island following their wedding Saturday, July 12. The bride is the former Noreen Mary Wisener, 14 Highland Rd. West, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Emmett Wisener of Waterville, P.E.I. Mr. Miehlm is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Miehlm, 29 Ellen St. West.

Rev. W.A. Burns officiated at St. Mary's R. C. Church, Hydrangea with red and pink roses formed the setting. Soloist, Mr. Karl Schroyer, and St. Mary's Senior Choir were accompanied by Mr. Eugene Fehrenbach at the organ.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Clement Kraemer of Kitchener, the bride wore a formal gown of chantilly lace and nylon tulle. The lily-point sleeves and scalloped neckline were accented with a trapeze panel and the skirt was appliqued with lace.

Matching appliques were scattered over her illusion fingertip veil which was held by a head-dress of tulle and iridescent sequins. She carried a cascade of white feathered carnations and sweetheart roses.

Miss Joan Weber of St. Jacobs was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. John Easton of Toronto, a sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Mary Hishon of Kitchener.

They wore ballet blue nylon chiffon waltz gowns with cow-necklines, low torsos and bouffant skirts. Their headbands were matching tulle and they carried

Noreen Wisener Is Feted At Miscellaneous Shower

Among the friends who entertained for Noreen Mary Wisener and Mr. George Edward Miehlm before their wedding July 12th was Mrs. John Easton. Mrs. Easton was hostess for a miscellaneous shower at the home of the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Hugh Miehlm, 29 Ellen St. West.

Maid of honor Miss Joan Weber of St. Jacobs also held a miscellaneous shower, Mrs. Clement Kraemer, 8 Barclay St., was hostess at a shower where the bride received a steam iron. Mr. Robert Vogel, 93 Elgin Rd., Waterville, entertained for the bridegroom. Hosts were Mr. Neal Ertel, best man, and ushers Mr. William Weiler and Mr. John Easton. An occasional chair was presented.

Upon their arrival in Prince Edward Island, Mr. and Mrs. George Miehlm, were the guests of honor at a reception given by the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Wisener, Waterville. Approximately two hundred guests attended and many good wishes and beautiful gifts were showered upon the happy young couple.

IDA BAILEY ALLEN New Low-Calorie Drinks To Help You Keep Cool

By IDA BAILEY ALLEN
"Many persons pull a long face when they speak of nutrition," observed the Chef. "This is a great mistake."

"Nutrition, or the process of being properly nourished, is not a grim matter. On the contrary, it should be gay, light-hearted, what many call fun."

"And it can be, Chef," I replied. "It depends on one's point of view."

"For instance, the weather is hot and muggy. Children and grown-ups long for cooling drinks. When homemade in a blender they can be not only delicious and vitalizing but low calorie, too."

"Let's make up our new mid-July versions and add some thin-sliced open chicken sandwiches. Then let's take our trays, out to the terrace and enjoy a leisurely lunch."

TINKLING DRINKS (Servings for 8 oz. glasses)
Pineapple Fruit Cream Frappe: Crush 1/2 c. ice by means of an attachment to an electric blender or by pounding ice cubes in a towel. Into container of an electric blender, put 1 c. diced pineapple, 2 tsp. sugar and 1/2 c. light cream or milk. Buzz for 3 seconds. Add 1/2 c. crushed ice and buzz for 6 sec. Pour into glass.

Cantaloupe Cream Frappe: Substitute cantaloupe for pineapple. Peach is nice in this drink, too.

Fresh Fruit Soda: Into container of an electric blender, put juice of 1 lime, lemon or orange, and 2/3 tsp. sugar. Cover. Buzz for 1 min.

Pour into glass filled 2/3 with crushed ice. Fill with sparkling water.

Serve with a straw. Garnish with a twisted strip of fruit peel.

Apple Ginger Crush: Into container of an electric blender, put 1 washed, cored, sliced but unpeeled apple, 1 tsp. lemon juice, 1 tsp. sugar and 1/4 c. ginger ale. Cover; buzz 30 sec.

Pour into glass packed with crushed ice and fill glass with ginger ale.

Monday Dinner: Tomato aspic-on-lettuce, braised lamb shanks, pimiento sauce, parslied potatoes, swiss chard, sugared fresh berries, hot or iced coffee or tea, milk.

All measurements are level; recipes proportioned to serve 4 to 6.
Braised Lamb Shanks: Order 6 lamb shanks split. Cut off all possible fat. Brown shanks in 2 tsp. corn oil.
Add 1 qt. boiling water, 2 tsp. herb. granules, 1 tsp. Italian mix herbs, 1/2 lb. head celery and 1 chopped peeled onion. Cover.
Simmer 2 hrs., or until fork-tender.
Remove shanks from broth.

MARY HAWORTH

Brother's Engagement Is A Cause Of Concern

Dear Mary Haworth: My brother Evan, 33, is marrying a girl 19. Went steady for just a month, then popped the question. Her family immediately made arrangements for the wedding—next September.

There is a difference in nationality and religion, but the wedding will take place in his church and the children, if any, will be raised in his faith.

We don't object to Ruth's religion and nationality, but it bothers us the way her family has made all the preparations without meeting our family. Evan is ashamed of the section where we live. But I am engaged to a West Point fellow and I'm not ashamed of the neighborhood—and he stays overnight, as his folks live upstairs.

Evan had been going with another girl off and on for seven years, but they never mentioned marriage, he says. Grace now is 25, the same religion and nationality as we—and has stuck to Evan through thick and thin. She is quite upset about Ruth and says she'll make Evan wish he was never born.

ALL LIKED GRACE
We all had liked Grace and can understand how upset she feels. Evan had broken away from her many times, but would weaken and go back when she called. Our family feels that he should go steady with Ruth a few months longer, to make sure what he really wants. When some of the sturdiest is out of his eyes, maybe then he can think clearly.

Ruth knows all the answers and has been engaged twice before. She has a beautiful face but is rather heavy. She and Evan met professionally in December (both are singers), but didn't date until April. In May he tells us they are engaged and she is wearing his ring. We met her last week for the first time.

I love Evan and wish him the best. My other four brothers all married different nationalities, and all but one are happy. The bad marriage was based on too little acquaintance—and I don't want Evan to make the same mistake. But he says he's sure.

What is your opinion?—W.R.
DEAR W.R.: As I get the picture, the family probably always has had too much of a finger in the pie of Evan's romances, until he met Ruth.

And because the family got no opportunity to mix into this latest attraction, in the early rounds, it has surprisingly outdistanced their belated grab for control.

Unconsciously you are fighting Mom's battle for possession of her baby son. I think you echo her sentiments of concern, without understanding her deep motivation, or recognizing the "why" of your ditto.

Evan has met his fate, it seems—the girl who can change him from an apron string bachelor son into an eager bridegroom; and this without even trying.

Ruth had been engaged twice before, you say—which probably explains why Evan is letting no grass grow under his feet. He doesn't procrastinate about tying the knot, lest she think again, and look further, and jilt him too.

STORIES MIXED UP
In one breath you blame Ruth's folks for going ahead with wedding plans, before consulting your family. In the next breath, you mention that Evan is ashamed of your home address. This indirect association of ideas suggests that he has been stalling off a two-family meeting. And I surmise that he's been manoeuvring for time, to keep you all from sabotaging his break-freeedom from apron strings, while his purpose was formulating.

Actually, according to traditions of good form, the man's parents are supposed to take the lead, in paying a courtesy call upon the girl's family, once an engagement is in-the-works. So if your folks have sat back and waited on this score, that was your error.

It is too bad about Grace's disappointed hopes and embittered spirit. But she probably is paying the price of having tried to court Evan under his parents' nose. Much as you may have liked her, in a patronizing way, for looking after him—still, you chewed her to pieces, appraisingly, in his hearing, no doubt, thus neutralizing his feeling for her.

For advice—let your brother do his own marrying, for better or for worse—M.H.

Mary Haworth counsels through her column, not by mail or personal interview. Write her in care of this newspaper.

HELENS DRESS SHOP

• Dresses • Skirts
• Shorts • Blouses
AT REASONABLE PRICES
HELENS DRESS SHOP
54 GRAFTON ST. DIAL 9388

ELECTRICAL CHECK

DO IT NOW
Don't try to fit modern living to old fashioned wiring. We will check and correct your wiring quickly, neatly and economically.

FREE ESTIMATE
CALL NOW
PALMER ELECTRIC
PHONES 8543-8544

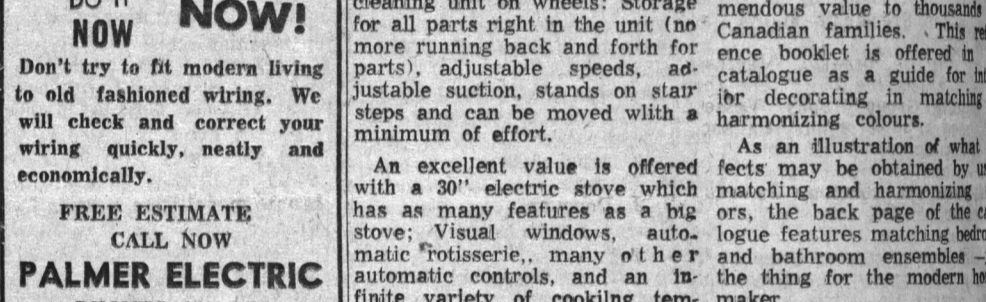

Eileen's Beauty Salon

Efficient Operators
Modern Equipment
With or Without Appointment
Telephone 7141
Block Bldg. Kent St.

MAPLE LEAF BAKERY

WEEKEND SPECIALS
Blueberry Pie 45c
Cherry Pie 45c
Blueberry Tarts • Cherry Tarts
Fruit Loaf • Assorted Cookies
Home Made Bread
Free Delivery Phone 8432

WATCH FOR THIS SIGN

EATON'S SATURDAY 2 P. M. SPECIALS

NO PHONE OR MAIL ORDERS ON THESE SPECIALS, PLEASE!
ON SALE SATURDAY AT 2 P. M. — REMAIN ON SALE WHILE QUANTITIES LAST

Women's Blouses Sanforized cotton blouses, short sleeve. Assorted colours, sizes 14 to 20. 2 P.M. Special, each 1.39	First Quality Nylons Full fashioned 51 gauge 18 denier in beige shade. Sizes 9 1/2 to 11. 2 P.M. Special, pair 69c	Boys' And Girls' Anklets Cotton anklets in assorted colours. Size 6 to 8 1/2. Substandards! 2 P.M. Special, pair 39c	Instant Coffee and Tea Makers Pyrex 8-cup coffee or tea server with tea ball for hot or iced drink serving. 2 P.M. Special, each 3.95	Cups And Saucers English bone china cups and saucers with attractive floral design. 2 P.M. Special, each 79c
Printed Tablecloths Printed Cotton in pretty shades of green, blue and gold. Size about 48" square. 2 P.M. Special, each 79c	Dusting Powder Lanidized! Plastic box containing approx. 5 1/2 oz. 2 P.M. Special, box 1.00	Boy's Shorts Cotton drill in colours suntan and grey. Sizes 10 to 12. Sanforized. 2 P.M. Special, pair 99c	Men's Pyjamas Cotton broadcloth in fancy stripes and plain colours. Sizes A to E. 2 P.M. Special, suit 3.29	Picnic Bags Plaid pattern in red, green and blue. Buy now at this low price. 2 P.M. Special, each 1.19
Laundry Bags Heavy cotton in a generous size. 2 P.M. Special, 3 for 1.00	Cotton Loop Mats Size about 9' x 12'. Rubberized back. Colours: Rose green, blue, coral. Regular 39.95. 2 P.M. Special, 19.98	Kiddie Bike Sturdy metal frame with wooden seat. Bright enamel finish. 2 P.M. Special, each 4.49	Picnic Set Plastic container to hold pie, sandwich, juice container and portion dish. 2 P.M. Special 89c	OPEN SATURDAY 9 A.M. TO 5:45 P.M. T. EATON & CO. CHARLOTTETOWN BRANCH