

Exploratory Meeting Discusses Federation

ALBERTON BUREAU OF THE GUARDIAN
 An exploratory meeting was held at Alberton yesterday to study the feasibility of forming a federated board of trade for Prince Edward Island.

Representatives from the Cra-paud-Victoria Board and the Alberton and West Prince Board of Trade met at the Friendly House during the afternoon for an informal discussion on the pros and cons of the proposed federation.

A number of projects were brought up which were considered to be of joint interest to all Island boards.

Unfortunately delegates from Charlottetown and Summerside showed to advise they would be

Penitentiary Terms Given Larkin, Finnan

SUMMERSIDE BUREAU OF THE GUARDIAN
 W. Chester S. MacDonald, steno-graphic magistrate for Prince County, yesterday sentenced William Wendell Larkin of Charlottetown to three years in Dorchester Penitentiary. His companion, Willard Pius Finnan, 17 of Freetown received a two-year term in the same institution. Both men earlier had pleaded guilty to a charge of jail breaking.

Larkin and Finnan touched off the most intensive manhunt in the history of the province when they escaped from the Prince County jail on October 15 by sawing the bars on the window of their cell and climbing over the barrier surrounding the jail.

Following their capture on October 24, they appeared in court here the next afternoon when they both pleaded guilty to the charge and elected trial by magistrate. At that time Finnan entered a plea of insanity which was not accepted by the court.

In passing sentence this morning Magistrate W. Chester S. MacDonald stated that this case has caused him a great deal of concern and this sentence would be

Egmont Bay Is Commended For Community Rink Effort

EGMONT BAY — Addressing the members at the October meeting held last week, moderator Father Cloutier warmly commended the local Catholic Youth Club for the time and energy all had devoted towards the erection of a community skating rink.

Father Cloutier also commended the parents for their support of the project, and asked that everybody turn out each evening from 7 to 10 in order to get the project finished up as soon as possible.

The moderator also requested a full attendance of members for the annual meeting which will be held shortly. He pointed out that it was the duty of each member to help with the selection of a new board of officers.

In attendance yesterday were Earle Atkinson and C. R. Leard, president and secretary respectively of the Alberton and West Prince Board of Trade, B. C. Wood, representing the president of the Cra-paud-Victoria Board of Trade and the secretary, Gerald Mathers.

Prior to the meeting the delegates were taken on a brief tour of points of interest and later were treated to a delicious supper at the Friendly House.

Ray Tanton Dies At Home

SUMMERSIDE — Ray Major Tanton, 63, well known retired Summerside businessman was found dead in bed yesterday at his home 94 Central Street.

Mr. Tanton had been in ill health for several years but lately had been up and around part of each day, although his health had deteriorated greatly in the past few months.

For several years Mr. Tanton pursued farming and later was a fire-accident insurance salesman. He was a member of the Masonic Lodge and belonged to the Summerside Presbyterian Church.

He was born a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Percy Tanton, Summerside and attended school here before serving with the Royal Flying Corps during the first world war. He later joined his father in the building trade in Vancouver and after the family returned to Summerside, father and son opened the Tanton Lumber Company on Water Street West where they constructed houses and owned a number of sailing vessels. Mr. Tanton was also engaged in the fox industry and owned a ranch at Summerside East. He was an ardent yachtsman and at one time was commodore of the local yacht club. He was also keenly interested in civic politics and contested a council seat on two occasions.

He leaves to mourn his wife, the former Marjorie Hunter of Alberton, and one daughter, Miss Rae, R.N. of Summerside. Also one sister, Vera, of Toronto and a brother James, living in western Canada.

The body is resting at the Compton Funeral Home from where the funeral will be held Friday afternoon, service commencing at 2 p.m. Interment will be in People's Cemetery.
