The Editor of the Islander does not play a losing game well. But when majorities are obedient, the treasury full, and deputations follow each other in rapid succession—when dejeuners and festivities are matters of daily occurrence—he appears to great advantage. Or give him a good case, with the prospect of well earned applause, and observe how earnest, how eloquent he can be! Such a cause, and such an occasion he had just four years ago in London, when, on the failure of the Land Commission, he was sent to secure the best terms which could be obtained from the Proprietors, who, irritated by the exposures of the Commissioners' Report, and, being then masters of the situation, may be said to have ruled Downing Street for the time, so far, at least, as Island affairs were concerned! Some of our contemporary's letters dated from a London club house, in which the Tenants' case was set forth, in powerful, masculine English, we have always regarded as deserving great praise,—they appeared to us to be the emanations of a patriotic heart—overflowing with zealous desire to effect the removal of that baneful tenure, which so long oppressed his native country!

But now "a change has come o'er the spirit of his dream."

"Hei mihi quahs erat! quantum mutatus ab illo Hectore, qui redit exuvias indutus Achilli."

"Unlike that Hector who returned from toils
Of war, triumphant in Eacian spoils,
Or him who made the fainting Greeks retire,
And launched against their navy Phrygian fire!"
DRYDEN.

Now, this same gentleman, who so eloquently pleaded the Tenants' cause at the Colonial Office, against the late Sir Samuel Cunard, tells the people to "rest and be thankful" for the 15 Years' Purchase Bill! Many of our readers may remember how fiercely, we had almost said savagely, Mr. Haythorne, who has always been in favour of a fair settlement of the land question, was denounced by the Editor of the Islander, because he had memorialized the late Duke of Newcastle against "the Bill to facilitate the operation of the Award." Now he is denounced because he attempts faithfully to carry into effect principles which, as a private individual, he advocated in our contemporary's own columns! Those principles met the approval of the people; and Mr. Haythorne having put them in practice by applying them to the case of his own Tenants, now seeks to make their application general. The fact is, that the Editor of the Islander has no political principles. A few years ago he was a Land Agent. He dropped that unpopular profession for reasons which don't concern us. Then he became a patriot, undertook the advocacy of the Tenants' cause, and advocated it ably for a time. Now he has returned to his first love—once more he is a Proprietor's man! We should like much to have seen our contemporary appear on any hustings at the late Election, and openly declare that great measure—the 15 Years' Purchase Bill—to be final and conclusive, leaving nothing to be hoped for, nothing to be desired! Happily, however, for the Tenants,

"Hope the charmer lingered still behind."

It is really deplorable to read such an apology for the leasehold system as appears in the last Islander. One would think all the disclosures recorded in the Commissioners' Report, all the disgrace attending the Tenant League disturbances, the Tracadie raids, the tale of families leaving their homes in chill November, to take refuge in the woods—were myths, legends of feudal times, extracts from some black letter book three centuries old—not realities of the last seven years recorded in the columns of the learned gentleman's own journal.

Ah! but there stands that great, costly pile—the Victoria Barracks—to remind those who are inclined to ignore or forget the evils of the leasehold system—to remind them, moreover, of what their late resistance cost, and what will be the consequences of another such mad attempt.

Three weeks ago the Islander proposed to give the tenants their land for "nothing" if they would enter Confederation, and accept 800,000 dollars. Last Friday he modifies his proposal, and suggests that the poorest of them should have their farms at less than 5s. Poor settlers! wait another week, and the Islander will perhaps promise you your long coveted, patiently waited for freehold, which has been the predominant wish of your lives, for less than half nothing! We recognize the fact with pleasure, that numbers of industrious, hard working men have become independent in spite of the leasehold system; but it is absurd to say that 9d. stg. per acre is not a burden, and a heavy one, on the resources of individuals and on the general welfare. 9d. stg. per acre may bear a larger proportion to the available surplus produce of 100 acres in this Colony than £2 sterling per acre bears in a like case in Britain. The settler in Prince Edward Island may remain poor on a farm for which he pays 9d. per acre; while a farmer in Britain may become rich paying £2 or even more. It is wilful ignorance, or worse, to make light of the evils of the leasehold tenure. The reputed Editor of the Islander once represented the district in which the Selkirk estate is situated, and cannot be ignorant that more than £20,000 of arrears were due by the Tenants when that Estate was purchased. Now, just suppose that an event had actually occurred, which it is generally believed was prevented by a happy accident only! Just suppose that the Selkirk estate had passed into the hands of some unscrupulous owner, who would have made it his business rigorously to exact those arrears! then we ask what would have been the condition of those unfortunate tenants? Would their 999 years' leases have been any protection against a "feudal grief" such as that? The result would have been that that large body of men would have been at the mercy of their new landlord, compelled to submit to any terms he thought fit to impose. We say the very existence of that vast amount of arrears, which has been stated by the apologists of the 15 Years' Purchase Bill as about £50,000 cy., ought, in the mind of every candid statesman, to condemn the leasehold system at once, and for ever. A man indebted past remedy is as much a subject of "feudal grief," as much at the disposal of his proprietor, so far as property is concerned, as Sir Walter Scott's impersonations of Saxon serfdom, Gurth and Wamba.

The Islander talks about deluding the tenantry. We suppose he would have told the residents on the Cunard estates, in grave, emphatic language, not more than twenty months ago, that "the question was settled, settled by law, with the consent of the late Sir Samuel Cunard"—and the Editor of the Islander. Yet those same tenants now see that vast property sold by Sir Samuel's heirs, and purchased by the Government at 7s. 6d. per acre—the arrears cancelled—and the fee simple placed within reach of every one at the lowest possible price. Yet our contemporary, with the example just quoted before his eyes, would have the tenants on other estates believe in the inimitable, irrevocable character of the Tory Bill, and denounces the Government because they hope, and perhaps expect, that Miss Sulivan, tempted by the offer of £17,500 stg., may follow the example of the late owners of the Cunard property.

We wish our contemporary joy of the unenviable position he has assumed—that of obstructing the well understood wishes of the people! Fortunately, his influence at the Colonial Office is but small. By-the-bye, why does he not publish the reply to that protest he sent home against the Loan Bill? We should think it would not occupy much space.

PLOUGHING MATCH.

Unfortunately the day appointed by the Commissioners for a trial of skill in this department of local industry, proved exceedingly unfavourable. Nevertheless eight competitors appeared at the place appointed—Mr. Haythorne's Farm—five of whom intended to go for first class honors, the remaining three in the lads' class. The Judges were Mr. John Ferguson—himself a prize ploughman—and Mr. Alexander McBeath, who acted in place of Mr Miller, Five Mile House—another prize taker of former times, but who, in consequence of an accident, was unable to attend.

The first prize was awarded to Donald McDonald, Mr. Haythorne's servant, whose father was once well known as a successful competitor in many a well contested match. His work was exceedingly well done, being straight, regular, and well up to the prescribed 6 × 9 standard. It was generally observed, however, that excellent as this young man's work was, there was something about it due to the credit of Howard's Bedfordshire plough, with its long, fine entering part, its cast share and steel mould board. Another thing which was considered worthy of notice was the lightness of draft of this plough. It was much regretted that no other plough of the same description appeared on the ground; and the more so, as it was remembered that some noble draft mares from the old country, and two iron ploughs are kept at the Stock Farm, only three miles distant. Surely these horses and ploughs were not imported to be kept in an out of the way corner, but to benefit the Agricultural interest.

We understand some Scotch gentlemen, from Brackley Point, are determined to try if their national implement, the Swing Plough, cannot produce work equal to that of the prize ploughman's the other day. We wish them good speed, but we know that the principle on which Howard's ploughs are constructed, has been recognized and adopted in Scotland.

The lads' ploughing was very praiseworthy, particularly that of Robert Gibson, a mere boy fourteen years of age.

The following is a list of the winners:—

MEN'S CLASS.
Donald McDonald, 1st,	£2	0	0
John Rodd, Malpeque Road, 2d,	1	10	0
James Drummond, Freetown, Bedeque, 3d,	1	0	0
Rob't McLachlan, Lot 34, 4th,		10	0
John Robinson, (servant to Mr. Wm. Scott, Lot 34), awarded		10	0
LADS' CLASS UNDER 18 YEARS:
George Essery, Rustico Road, 1st,	£2	0	0
Alex McDonald, (Peter's son,) Lot 35,	1	10	0
Robert Gibson, Lot 31,	1	0	0

We hope the preliminaries of the projected Match will be arranged without delay, as the season is advancing, the days short and nights dark.

LATEST NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

FROM EUROPE.

LONDON, Oct. 18.—The following despatch has been received from Florence direct, dated to-night. It is reported that Gen. Garibaldi has again escaped from Caprera, and that he left the Island on board of an American ship. Garibaldians have appeared in the Western district, between Rome and the sea, and have taken possession of the Railway running between the city of Rome and the sea port of Ostia, and torn up the rails, preventing all communication. It is still believed in Florence that the Government of Italy and France have an understanding with each other, and are really associated together in the treatment of the Roman question....At a dinner to Earl Derby at Manchester last night, Derby defended the action of Government on the Reform question, and replied to some of the attacks on the Reform Bill. Lord Stanley, Secretary of foreign affairs, spoke of the disturbed condition of Europe, but declared that notwithstanding the threatened condition of affairs, he still entertained hopes that peace would be preserved. In referring to the present relations of Great Britain with other powers, he spoke of the controversy with United States, regarding claims for indemnity arising out of the late war in that country. This controversy, he said, still remained open, but he entertained the hope of amicable arrangements, and that time is already soothing the feelings which might have arisen on the other side of the Atlantic.

PARIS, Oct. 18.—Napoleon has made an imperative demand upon the Italian Government for strict observance of the Convention of September. The expedition of Toulon is ready to sail for the relief of Rome. It is believed the Italian Government will yield.

LONDON, Oct. 20th, 2 p. m.—Official despatches recived from Rome report two battles as having haken place between the insurgents and Pontifical troops, in which the latter were victorious. The towns of Hervela and Orte, which had been taken by the insurgents, were retaken by storm. It was reported at Rome that Italian Prime Minister Rattazzi had resigned.

PARIS, Oct. 20.—It is reported to-day that the leading European powers will unite with France in joint intervention for the settlement of the Roman question, and preservation of the peace. The French Cabinet has addressed a circular note to its representatives at foreign courts, solemnly pledging France to enforce the stipulations of the treaty of September. The excitement and anxiety created by the rumours circulated here are very great.

PARIS, Oct. 20th.—All the official journals of Saturday concur in declaring that within twenty-four hours Italy must announce her determination either to support the Revolutionary movements on Rome or to faithfully execute the provisions of the September Convention. France must decide for peace or war accordingly.

FLORENCE, Oct. 20th.—A delegation, consisting of members of the Roman Municipal Council, and headed by a Senator of Rome, has had an interview with Pope Pius IX., at which a petition, signed by 12000 citizens of Rome, was presented, praying His Holiness to give his consent to the occupancy of Rome by the troops of Victor Emmanuel.

LONDON, Oct. 18th, (eve).—It is understood that arrangements are perfected between the Anglo-Saxon Company and the Atlantic Company, whereby the present rates by cable will be reduced fully 50 per cent. This reduction will go into effect on the 15th November next. The Fenian alarm does not abate. Last evening repeated efforts were made by the Fenians to burn the Police Station at Manchester, and thus release some of their comrades there confined. The fire was extinguished before any damage was done. The Government is on the alert, and precautionary measures are everywhere taken to guard against surprise.

ROME, Oct. 21, midnight.—Count de Sartiges, French Minister in Rome, had an audience with Pius IX. to-day at the Vatican. The minister officially assured His Holiness in the name of the Emperor Napoleon that whatever circumstance should arise from the Garibaldian invasion of the Pontifical territory, or the attitude of the King of Italy, France would not fail in her aid to the Holy See, and defence of its authority....The garrison of Rome has been reinforced by volunteers, enlisted for the most part in France and Spain. The town of Otte, lately taken by the Revolutionary invaders, has been reoccupied by a detachment of the Papal army....Consols 94¾. 5-20's 69⅓. Corn 45s. 6d. Other articles unchanged.

PARIS, Oct. 21.—The journal Desbats denies that the French Government has granted any subvention in aid of the new Atlantic cable to be laid from Brest to the American coast. The reports that Garibaldi has disappeared from the Island of Caprera are reiterated, and seem to meet with no contradiction. Rattazzi has resigned his position as head of the Cabinet. Some of the bands of insurgents still remain in the Papal territory, and the evacuation is not complete as previously reported.

LONDON, Oct. 21, eve.—Accounts of affairs in the States of the Church are very conflicting. Telegrams from Florence represent that Minotte Garibaldi not only maintains his position in the Roman territory, but his command has been reinforced and is hourly growing larger. On the other hand, despatches originating in Rome flatly contradict these statements, and assert that Minotte, with all his followers, has fled from the Papal dominions and abandoned the attempt on Rome.

FLORENCE, Oct. 21, night.—Rattazzi addressed a large crowd of people who were making a demonstration in favor of Garibaldi. He declared in the most emphatic manner that King Victor Emanuel would maintain the honor of the nation in the crisis through which it was passing. Garibaldi has issued another proclamation, which adds to the prevailing excitement. He exhorts the people of Italy to persevere in their patriotic struggle.

BERLIN, Oct. 22.—It is reported that the Grand Duchy of Baden will soon join the Confederation of the North German States.

PARIS, Oct. 22.—The Moniteur of this morning, in its official article announcing the cessation of war preparations against Italy, says, France beheld the spectacle of the invasion of the Papal territory by armed bands from the neighboring provinces of Italy, she could not, consistently with her duty, her dignity, and her national honor, suffer the September Convention to be thus violated; she prepared to send an army and a fleet to Rome, but Italy has since given ample pledges to fulfil, on her part, the obligation of the treaty in the largest sense, and, consequently, all hostile preparations have been suspended by France.

FLORENCE Oct. 22.—The reports of the escape of Garibaldi from Caprera are confirmed. It is known that he landed at Leghorn, and is now in Italy—all the efforts of the police and the Sherri to discover his whereabouts have up to this time proved futile.

PARIS, Oct. 23.—The Emperor Francis Joseph of Austria has arrived in France on his visit to the Emperor Napoleon. Yesterday he arrived at Nancy, and it is expected that he will reach Paris this evening. On his journey to France the Austrian Emperor passed through Baden. He made a brief pause in that city, and had an interview with King William of Prussia, who was visiting the Grand Duke of Baden, and the conversation between the two monarchs was of a most friendly character.

FLORENCE, Oct. 23, morning.—The official Gazette announces that a reconstruction of the Ministry has been effected, and declares that all apprehension of French intervention may be dismissed, and exhorts the Italian people to sustain their King in the trials through which he is passing. A report is current that Gen. Cialdini is planning a coup d'etat for the settlement of the Roman question.

FROM THE STATES.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—The Austrian Admiral Tegethoff has returned to Havana from Vera Cruz. The Mexicans refuse to surrender the body of Maximilian....Advices from South America state that the revolution in Peru is assuming serious proportions. The clergy, people and troops generally sympathize with the revolution....Gold 43.

FROM CANADA.

MONTREAL, 22nd.—The Commercial Bank of Canada has suspended.

Major Rankin, one of the most popular officers in the Local Volunteer Force, has resigned the Captaincy of the Prince of Wales Rifle Company, to the no small regret of its members. In accepting his resignation, the Commander in Chief complimented Major Rankin on the zeal and efficiency with which he had always discharged his duties as a soldier, and, in graceful recognition of his long services in the Volunteers, was pleased to promote him to the rank of Lieut. Colonel in that Force. Long may the gallant Colonel live to wear his military hnors.—Pat.

By referring to our advertising columns it will be seen that F. W. Falconer & Co. are prepared to supply customers with Dry Goods, Millinery, &c. at such rates as should satisfy all reasonable purchasers. Let any who doubt this make the experiment.

A telegram from Ottawa to the Toronto Globe says:—L. Carvell of St. John, N. B., who is now here, and who has been superintendent of railroads there, has been instructed by the Government to report as to the state of railways in New Brunswick and Nova Scotia."

THIRTEEN MEN KILLED OR SUFFOCATED AT THE HOOSAC TUNNEL.—Springfield, Mass., Oct. 10.—A terrible accident occured at the Hoosac Tunnel on Saturday, by which thirteen men were either killed outright or suffocated to death. The gasoline works at the mouth of the shaft exploded, setting fire to the building which contained them. The debris fell down the shaft, burying the whole gang of work men at the bottom. The bodies will not be extricated for some days.

THE BEST PLACE TO SPEND YOUR MONEY is undoubtedly, where you will get most for it. And as all are agreed that R. Young's is the cheapest store in town, we would advise all our friends who have money to spend, to do so there. He does business upon the "No second price system," having all his goods marked in plain figures. tf

Prince of Wales Vo nteers are particularly requested to attend at the Drill Shed, on Monday evening at 8 p. m. in uniform, with arms and accoutrements, as matters of importance will be brought before them.
