HAPPENINGS

Dame Flora MacLeod, that great Scottish personality, leaves in October for a trip to New Zealand and Australia. On her way home to Dunvegan, Cape Breton, she will travel through the United States and Canada, stopping off at various centres. Prince Edward Island will be thus honored. Dame Flora will be the guest sometime in February of that loyal clansman, Mr. Wilfred C. MacLeod and Mrs. MacLeod at their home, 2 Park Terrace.

WE AND OUR NEIGHBORS

Regretfully We See Our Summer Visitors Leaving

With another Old Home Week successfully and peacefully over, partings are more and more frequent on the Island. Regretfully our summer visitors are beginning to leave and regretfully we see them go, both those who came as strangers, and those bound by ties of kinship and friendship.

We say, "Good-bye" to them but for once our English term is not as expressive of what is in our hearts as the French "Au revoir" is. "Good-bye" is the contraction of "God Be With Ye" a strong and fervent wish but too final. Nor does "Farewell" (Fare you Well) beautiful in sound and meaning as it is, convey our added hope of a return visit.

This hope is voiced in the French "Au revoir" — "Until We Meet Again" which robs the "Good-bye" of much sadness, implying that it is just temporary. The German "Auf Wiedersehen" gives the same assurance. Good-bye, for the present it says, but only to meet again. (Wieder, again; sehen, seeing or meeting). To make it perfectly sure then, let us say all three — Good-bye, Au revoir, and Auf Wiedersehen. That should let our visitors know how well we wish them — and how much we hope they will be with us again next summer!

HOW PEACEFUL

Visitors from a crowded city gave a last look at the green fields and blue water around them and said wistfully, "How peaceful it is here. It must be so easy to relax. I wonder if those who live here get as tense and worried as we do?" It is wonderful that our summer friends can shed their worries and find peace here. But we cannot take all the credit. They are on vacation; they have determined to put away their problems for the time being. We have given them our sunshine and pure air and a friendly atmosphere. We have not solved their problems or indeed taken them from them. But they stay here, the change, the rest, will make it easier for them to cope with the problems they left behind.

PEACE IN CITIES

In turn, we who live on the Island the year around, will look toward the larger centers when our own holidays come. We will scatter our worries, over the peaceful fields, for the time being. The sight of taller buildings, the noise of greater crowds will relax us. The change will do

MacPhee - MacKenzie Wedding Is Solemnized

The wedding of Kathryn Jean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert MacKenzie, Valleyfield, West, and Kenneth Ewen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm MacPhee, Heatherdale, was solemnized at Hillside Inn, Montague, on Wednesday, July 3rd, at 6:30 p.m. Rev. Farquhar MacKinnon, Valleyfield, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The living-room was beautifully decorated with colorful summer flowers. The wedding music was played by Miss Alvah Brehaut, and the soloists, Mrs. Thomas Jackson sang "O Promise Me" before the ceremony and "I Love You Truly" during the signing of the register.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, looked lovely in a floor-length strapless wedding gown of pink nylon net over satin, with lace inserts in the full skirt, and fashioned with a fitted bodice and lace jacket with bracelet length slender sleeves. Her shoulder length veil of tulle illusion fell softly from a halo headdress studded with tiny sequins. She carried a nosegay of pink roses and white carnations.

The bridesmaid, Miss Marjorie MacPhee, sister of the groom, wore a ballerina length strapless gown of powder blue nylon net over taffeta, fashioned with a full skirt, fitted bodice and lace bolero featuring short sleeves and buttoned at the neckline. Her short veil was held in place by a halo headdress and she carried a nosegay of yellow and white mums.

Mr. Stanley Bruce was best man, and the ushers were Mr. Sinclair MacPhee, brother of the groom, and Mr. Finley Smith, Newtown Cross.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. MacKenzie chose a street length dress of aqua lace over satin with beige and white accessories and a corsage of yellow mums. The bride's mother wore a royal blue dress with matching bolero, white accessories, and a corsage of white carnations.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Inn when dinner was served to forty-five guests. The bride's table was centered with a three-tier wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom and flanked with vases of cut flowers. The toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. Mr. MacKinnon and was responded to by the groom.

Out-of-the-province guests included: Mrs. Alex MacDonald, Somerville, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Baine, Woburn, Mass.; Mr. Kenneth Liddell, Dorchester, Mass.; Mrs. Anna Aznive, Mrs. George Tosi, Miss Barbara Tosi and Master Robert Tosi of Mattapan, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. MacPhee left on a wedding trip to Toronto, Niagara Falls and Boston. For travelling the bride wore a pale blue shantung sheath with lace bolero, white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. On their return the young couple will reside in Montague where the groom is employed with the firm of MacLeod and Greene. Prior to her marriage, the bride was a member of the teaching staff of the Montague Memorial High School.

Mr. and Mrs. MacPhee were guests of honor at a miscellaneous shower at Valleyfield and, also at Heatherdale, where they received many lovely gifts. Mrs. MacPhee was entertained by the members of the teaching staff of the Montague Memorial High School at a chicken dinner held at Hillside Inn prior to her marriage and was presented with a beautiful wedding gift.

us good. If only freedom from care, peace of mind depended on location! But it isn't that easy. Green fields could give Robert Burns, who loved Nature so passionately no permanent peace of mind 'nor could cities'. Remember: "Ye banks and braes o' bonnie Doon, How can ye bloom so fresh and fair? How can ye chant, ye little birds, And I sae weary fu' o' care?"

C. F. Convent Alumnae Has Montreal Convention

Montreal, aptly named "City of Churches" with a rich historical and cultural background will provide an ideal setting for the tenth biennial convention of the Canadian Federation of Convent Alumnae to be held August 26th, 27th and 28th. Sessions, presided over by the national president, Miss Helen M. I. Brennan, Montreal, will take place alternately at the Outremont Convent, Sisters of the Holy Names, Outremont; the Convent of the Sacred Heart, Sault aux Recollets and the Villa Maria Convent, Sisters of the Congregation de Notre Dame, Montreal. Mrs. Clement C. Keenan is chairman of the convention committee with Mrs. Paul Dostert as co-chairman. The three day convention will include reports of the major projects of Federation — education; promotion of Dominion wide Mary's Day observance; mission aid; fostering the inclusion of Catholic literature in Canadian libraries and a drive to encourage the use of Christian Christmas cards. The convention theme "Role of the Convent Alumnae in restoring Christian Social Order" will be developed by prominent

Lovely Summer Wedding Solemnized At Basilica

St. Dunstan's Basilica was the scene of a very lovely summer wedding on July 27th, at 9 a.m. when before an altar beautifully decorated with summer flowers, fern and colored vigil lights, Mary Shirley, daughter of Mrs. and the late Patrick Mullen of Charlottetown, was united in marriage with Paul Colin, son of Mr. Frank and the late Mrs. Jay of Mt. Stewart.

Rev. Monsignor Patrick McMahon performed the double ring ceremony and celebrated the Nuptial Mass. During the mass appropriate hymns were sung by Mr. Frank McIntyre, assisted by his daughters, Margaret and Bethany. Mrs. Joseph Dougan presided at the organ.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her god-father, Mr. Ambrose Mullen, was winsome in an ankle-length gown of Chantilly lace over slipper satin. The bodice was styled with a bateau neckline and sprinkled with mother-of-pearl sequins. She carried a white lace-covered prayer book, enhanced by pink sweet heart roses and white satin streamers.

Miss Phyllis Mullen, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a ballerina length gown of blue eyelet nylon over blue taffeta with wide blue cummerbund and bow at back. She wore matching headdress, sprinkled with opalescent sequins and matching mitts of eyelet nylon. She carried a basket of colored mums, blue predominating.

The bridesmaids, Miss Mildred and Miss Patricia Mullen, also sisters of the bride, wore gowns identical with the maid-of-honor's gown but in colors of pink and yellow with matching headdresses, sprinkled with opalescent sequins, and matching mitts of eyelet nylon. They carried baskets of colored mums with pink and yellow predominating.

Mr. David Jay, brother of the groom, was best man. Mr. Lloyd Gaudet and Mr. Gerald Johnson, former S.D.U. classmates of the groom, were ushers.

The mother of the bride chose for her daughter's wedding a dress of dusty rose lace over pastel pink taffeta with pastel pink hat to match and a corsage of white carnations. Immediately after the ceremony, a wedding breakfast for thirty-five guests was served at the Queen Hotel. The bride's table, decorated with floral bouquets and centered with a three tier wedding cake, topped by a miniature bride and groom, was very attractive.

Mr. Frank Zakem was M.C. and the toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. G. McCormac to which the groom responded. Other complimentary remarks were made by Rev. K. C. McPherson, Rev. R. Hammill and Mr. Dick Wedge. Miss Doris Coady was in charge of the guest book.

Following the reception the happy couple left for a short honeymoon trip in the Maritimes. For travelling the bride wore a blue lace and crystal dress with white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

Out of town guests at the wedding included Miss Ruth O'Halloran, New York, Mr. and Mrs. Charles McIntyre, Halifax, Mr. Tim Doelling, Deep River, Ont., Mr. Gerald Johnston and Mr. Dick Wedge, Halifax.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay will reside at Deep River, Ont., where the groom is employed in atomic research at Chalk River.

Previous to her marriage the bride was guest of honor at a surprise shower at the home of Miss Doris Coady, a community shower at Tacadie, the hostesses being Miss Annette McDonald and Miss Helen Lund and at an afternoon tea given by her sister Phyllis at her home. Photo by George Lewis.

speakers and in workshop sessions under the chairman ship of Sister Mary Lenore, M.A. St. Michael's High School, Belleville, president of the Ontario Teacher's Association and the Symposium presided over by Mother Olga, Loretto College, Toronto. Convention speakers will include Sister Ann Joachim, O.P. attorney, educator and the author of numerous juridical and historical works, whose subject will be "The Role of the Educated Woman in the Church"; Rev. M. D. Dubee, founder of St. Genesius Players Guild, Montreal, first chairman for Canada of the Catholic Theatre Conference and an original member of the Board of Directors of the Catholic Broadcasters Association, New York, who will speak on "The Forgotten 'R' in Religion—recreation" and Miss Gerry Brown, Radio Station CJAD Montreal, and well known leader in the field of Catholic Action whose talk will deal with "The Lay Apostolate in Radio and TV." An impressive highlight of the convention will be the Solemn Pontifical Mass to be celebrated by His Eminence, Paul-Emile, Cardinal Leger, Archbishop of Montreal, in St. Patrick's Church. His Eminence, James G. Cardinal McGuigan, Archbishop of Toronto and Cardinal Leger are honorary chaplains of Federation and they have graciously extended their patronage to the convention.

The City of Montreal will be host at the opening luncheon in the Helene de Champlain Restaurant on historic St. Helen's Island overlooking the St. Lawrence River. Among other social functions are a dessert buffet at the home of Mrs. J. G. Quinn, luncheons, teas and dinners at the convents and a tea and visit at the Chateau de Ramezay, one of Montreal's oldest landmarks.
