Glenwood Fisherman Cops West Pt. Event

ALBERTON BUREAU OF THE GUARDIAN

A Glenwood fisherman, Raeburn Betts, won the B. A. Atkinson handicap trophy at the West Point races on Saturday afternoon. John Ellis, West Point, was second and the Betts brothers, Ivan and Orville, Glenwood, were third.

Eleven boats entered the cup race.

The free for all was won without difficulty by Ernest MacDonald, West Point, with the Betts brothers second and Willis Bulger in third spot. Although the weather was fine and sunny a fairly heavy sea caused the cancellation of the outboard races and the dory races.

The swimming events, under the direction of Mrs. Harry Cudmore, Red Cross director of water safety, were keenly contested and held the attention of the large audience for most of the afternoon.

The races were officially opened by Hon. Leo Rossiter, minister of industry and natural resources and fisheries. When completed the new provincial park at West Point will be one of the best in the province, Mr. Rossiter said.

Hon. L. G. Dewar, MD, Minister of education, and Robert Grindlay, MLA, both addressed the crowd and expressed gratification with plans for a park at West Point. B. Graham Rogers, director of transportation, was also present.

Hartwell Daley, Charlottetown was master of ceremonies.

An interesting feature of the afternoon was a display of safety equipment for pleasure boats and fishing craft. Cnst. James Potts, of the RCMP described the various life jackets and other boating equipment for a properly fitted boat.

Leonard Stewart was chairman of the races committee and proceeds are to go to the community hospital at O'Leary.

Following the afternoon's activities films were shown in the Maritime Packers factory.

Break Reported At S'side Plant

SUMMERSIDE — Nicholson's dry cleaners on Central Street, Summerside, was the target of a break Friday night that netted thieves the sum of $20 in cash and bills that had been left overnight in the cash register for change.

Entry to the plant was made at the rear of the building on St. Stephen Street by forcing a locked window that had not been opened in two years.

Ivan Nicholson, owner - manager of the dry cleaning plant, was in Moncton overnight, and the break was discovered by James Razavet, a member of the staff, who arrived at the plant to commence work early Saturday. Summerside police are investigating the break.

Poet Cummings Dies In N.H.

NORTH CONWAY, N.H. (AP) Poet e. e. cummings, 67, died early Monday in hospital after suffering a stroke at his summer home at Madison, N.H. He resided during the winter in New York City.

The cummings name — with no capital letters—appeared on a dozen volumes of poetry, a novel, The Enormous Room, published in 1922, several plays and a ballet. His full name was Edward Estlin Cummings.

Cummings also was a painter and worked in charcoal, ink, oils and water colors.

He was born at Cambridge, Mass., the son of a Harvard professor, and was graduated from Harvard in 1915. Later he received his master's degree at Harvard.

SET UP NEW POSTS

NEW DELHI (Reuters)—Communist Chinese have set up about 30 new posts on Indian border territory in the last three months, Defence Minister V. K. Krishna Menon told parliament Wednesday. He said there have been two skirmishes between Indian and Chinese troops during the same period—in the ladakh area of Kashmir July 21 and in the Pangong Lake area Aug. 14.

Oyster Fishing Party Rescued From Island

SUMMERSIDE — Two men and two boys, missing overnight in their boat on Malpeque Bay were located Sunday morning none the worse from their enforced stay on a small island.

Brothers Hugh and Alan MacKendrick and the latter's two sons, Douglas and Michael, of Birch Hill, were fishing oysters Saturday in waters at the rear of Hog Island.

Shortly after starting for home Saturday evening their outboard motor quit and refused to start. They drifted near a sand island known as "Seven Hills" and managed to tie up.

When the quartet failed to return Saturday evening Robert Strongman searched for a lengthy period Saturday night but failed to locate them. He contacted the RCMP and together with two outboards manned by Earl Strongman, Robert Strongman and James Strongman plus a Lennox Island boat with two Indians aboard, the search under the direction of Cnst. J. R. Potts, RCMP Summerside detachment continued Sunday morning until the party was located by the Indians on "Seven Hills" around 10 a.m.

The Indians stated they had seen the fishing boat the previous evening but didn't realize the crew was in trouble.

Hugh and Alan are sons of Lorne MacKendrick.

Train Flagged While Car Is Removed

ALBERTON — The only accident reported during the weekend occurred late Saturday night at the railway crossing between Alberton and Elmsdale when a car driven by James Frederick Mokler, Tignish, failed to make the turn and proceeded down the tracks.

The car sustained some damage and it was necessary for a nearby resident, Robert Campbell, to flag down the regular express train while the vehicle was removed from the tracks.

No one was injured in the accident.

O'LEARY RHS BEING EXTENDED

Work on the large extension to O'Leary Regional High School is proceeding on schedule and the building is expected to be pretty well completed by Chrisimas. The addition of masonry construction, is two stories high. On the first floor is a classroom, agricultural science room, a class room for retarded children, a home economics room and storage space. On the second floor are four classrooms, chemistry lab, library, secretary's office and a teachers workroom. County Tile and Supply are the main contractors and Douglas Brothers and Jones have the sub-contract for the plumbing, heating and electrical installation.
