OPEN LETTER NO. IX.

To the Hon. Donald Farquharson, the "Unsound Premier."

SIR,—Tignish has spoken! The fiat has gone forth! No confidence in your government! Public opinion will soon overwhelm you! Before responsible government was established in this island the financial condition was deplored by such men as Messrs Charles Hensley, Daniel Hodgson and George Birnie. They were appointed commissioners by the Governor and in their report "they condemned unconvertible paper a curse and a deception, a delusive and fictitious capital which left no solid foundation to rest upon in any time of reverse and difficulty." They condemned the creation of a debt and hoped that "on no pretext should a permanent debt be established in the colony as the evil effects of such a burden would necessitate the absorption of capital which might be more beneficially employed in commerce, manufactures or agricultural improvement." The experience of past generations was not heeded by yourself and your party, But by your "dashaway" policy you have squandered the assets of the Province, created a debt from which the Province can never recover. Responsible Government has not secured for this country the economy and sound financial policy which was urged before 1847, because men like you, without fitness or knowledge, managed to gain power. In the old days when members were selected from the lower house for the executive council, such members were held responsible for the acts of the administrator of the Government. The country must now hold you responsible, and in no mistakable terms the country demands your resignation. Will you heed the voice and surrender the reins to a more capable man? Like one class of forest animals you have nothing but a prehensile tail. You must climb or crawl. You have climbed up the ladder of notoriety in placing a heavy debt on this province. You are anxious now to crawl by starving the public works and leaving a legacy for your successors which will necessarily involve large expenditure of public money to render the public highway and bridges safely passable. All forms of Government symbolizes an immortal Government perfect where two men exist, perfect where there is only one man. My right and my wrong is their right and their wrong. Witness your conduct and haughty assumption of prerogatives in matters of contract. Witness the manner in which you have ruined contractors without remedy or redress. You dare not face an ordinary individual in the common courts of the country, because the Governor cannot grant a fiat without your Attorney-General's advice, Thus they are shut off while the incapable crowd, called a government, and with little knowledge, shield themselves behind the Queen as miserable representatives of Her Majesty, who never refuses a fiat in matters of contract, but always as a matter of grace grants her permission to appear and vindicate her cause in Her Chancellor's Courts. Imagine, for instance, a man driving on the highways of this Island at night who is caught in the traps called bridges which you are allowing to go down—he breaks his horse's leg or smashes his waggon. Who is responsible? And what remedy has the travelling public in this matter? None whatever. They cannot sue the Government You are afraid to allow them before a jury or before the Chancellor of the Supreme Court to answer for your negligence and incapacity. To educate the wise man the State exists. The antidote to the abuse of formal goverment is the influence of private character—the growth of the individual. But your appearence as the wise man of the existing government, it must be admitted, is a shabby imitation, and any government which is not in close touch and a reflection of the popular voice is unfit to stand 24 hours. The electors in this country have not been careful enough in their selection of representatives. Circumstances sometimes throw men on the surface that nature, talent or ability never designed for such a position; and strange to say such men, chameleon-like, change their attitude and go back on the profession and declaration of previous years,—they assume then the right of masters to dictate and make laws not in accordance with the circumstances and environments of people, but to satisfy personal gain as their corrupt desires may dictate. It is distinctly laid down in Todd's Parliamentary Government in England, that loans or debts due to the crown by individuals or otherwise cannot be remitted in any justifiable manner without the consent of Parliament. Our little parliament was never consulted when the assets in the Land Office were remitted from 10 per cent to 15 per cent, to favorites,—thus reducing the revenue of the Province to a large extent. While settlements were urged it was never authorized to make such sweeping reductions to partisans. The picture of the unjust steward when he asked how much owest thou? take thy pen and write forty must have guided you in order to make friends with the mammon of unrighteousness. Such crass ignorance and such total want of knowledge of governmental justice must cause the smothered embers to accumulate such heat as will shortly burst into a general flame and demand a thorough reconstruction of the financial position of the Province; a thorough reconstruction of the Government with wise leaders in accord and in close touch with the people. The Government should place themselves on a level with the people for after all the people are the sovereign Yet you act as it the people were your servants. The only time they can punish you is at the election. That is the court of final appeal, and although the people suffer wrong for a long time in the end they will redress all wrongs by unseating you on the first opportunity. I understand a petition of right was presented by Mr. Lowe to the Lieutenant Governor for scandalous treatment received by him at the hands of your party. If governmental justice had a place in your cabinet you would not be afraid to meet Mr. Lowe in court whether his case was right or wrong. Listen to what Sir Fitzroy Kelly in his place in Parliament: said "It was not competent or consistent with the duty of any officer of the Crown to advise the Queen to withhold her fiat to any petition of right upon any ground, whether right or wrong, whether well or ill founded. Such an interference was only to be justified in a case where a petition appeared to be founded on fraud, or upon gross and manifest error." Now the people should have the right every time and no prerogative should be used to shut them off from obtaining justice. A law should be passed authorizing the Lieutenant-Governor to grant a fiat whenever a properly-prepared petition of right is presented. A government that cannot meet a fellow citizen in a court of justice to defend itself as one man against another is not worthy of the name of a govenment. The people are sovereign and why not assert themselves now. You will soon be in the throes of dissolution and death. It is a fitting time to contend for reform and improvement in the laws of the province. Your successors, if wise men, will do their duty.

VOX POPULI.

The big, hearty healthy man is a continual irritation to his dyspeptic friend. Constipation is the root of nine-tenths of sickness of men, and of a large proportion of the sickness of women. It can be cured easily, naturally and quickly. Nature is continually working as hard as she can to throw off impurities, and to force out poisonous refuse matter When there is an impediment, Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets set the wheels working again without any trouble. They assist nature in a gentle, healthful, efficient way. There is nothing violent about their action and yet it is just as certain as if it were twice as violent. "You do not become a slave to their use." They are different and better than any other pill for the cure of constipation, headache and kindred derangements. Almost all druggists understand this, and are conscientious enough to tell you so. The druggist who tries to sell you a substitute is not a safe man from whom to buy madicine.

RHEUMATICS

All Those Suffering From Rheumatism Read the Letter Below.

Mr. A. N. Wideman Relates the Circumstances of His Cure for the Benefit of Other Sufferers—Crippled by Rheumatism—Cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Duntroon, Ont., Aug 8.—"I consider it my duty to inform the public of the great benefit I have received from the use of Dodd's Kidney Pills. And in giving the story of my experience I would request that it be published as widely as possible in order that others suffering as I did may be encouraged to use Dodd's Kidney Pills, as I know that all who do so will be positively cured by them of the disease which so afflicted me.

"I am a potter by trade, but work being scarce last year, I gladly took a chance to work in the harvest field. The season was unusually wet and I contracted Rheumatism from working in my wet clothes. At first I let it go, but at last the pain became unbearable. I consulted a doctor who did his best for me but the only effect his medicine had was to make my teeth break off.

"I was bed ridden for five months. Bed sores developed, one of which turned into an ulcer and was poulticed five hundred times before it healed. My legs were twisted so that my toes pointed inwards. I had lost forty pounds, and was given up to die.

"One day Mrs. John Boyer, of Markham, came to see me and persuaded me to take some Dodd's Kidney Pills she brought. To please her I started to take them. To my unspeakable delight I found they were doing me good. I determined to continue their use, and to cut a long story short, Dodd's Kidney Pills raised me from the grave. I thank God for putting the knowledge of them in my way.

"All suffering from Rheumatism who want further particulars of my cure can get them by writing, enclosing postage, to A. N. Wideman, Duntroon P. O., Ont.
