

He Felt Very Bad

BUT WAS WELL ENOUGH TO MARRY AGAIN THE NEXT DAY.

An instance of easy marriage and divorce was given in Detroit a few days ago.

"My wife would not come with me," said he, "because she said I could not support her properly. I appealed to her several times to come and live with me, but to no purpose."

"Once," and the complainant's voice became tremulous with the violence of his feelings, "she told me, I can never live with you again; I do not want to."

"I have worked for Mr. Whitney off and on for four or five years. Once I went to Chicago to try coaching, but I did not know the city and was obliged to return home to Detroit. Some time ago I left Mr. Whitney, and now I am coachman for Frederick Marvin. I met my wife on the street a short time ago and wanted her to come back with me, but she would not do so."

A decree of divorce was granted on the showing, and next day Mr. Eastwood procured a license in the county clerk's office to marry Annie Nelson, a young woman 25 years of age, who has been once before married.

WHAT IS IT?—A strange-looking creature resembling a gorilla and scaring about seven feet high has been seen in the woods near Preston, Halifax County.

THE ENGLISH WAY.—A plea of insanity was set up as a defense for a prisoner before a British court on a charge of felony, but it did not save him from being sent to penal servitude for three years, during which time the judge said it would be possible to thoroughly investigate the plea and make sure that it would hold water.

HEROIC RESCUE.—A young Campbellton girl named Edie Johnson rescued a lad named Kelly from drowning the other day, in a very heroic and intelligent manner. He had fallen through thin ice, upon which the girl lay down and approached him, feet foremost, directing him to lay hold of them, which he did and she crawled away from the hole, dragged Kelly out upon the ice that would bear his weight.—Chatham World.

COLD FACTS.

The following from a patient of Dr. Farrel's who was cured of Consumption shows what

PHOSPHOLEINE!

(Pronounced FOS-FO-LEEN).

Dear Sir, will do.

Last summer I was troubled with a cough, and my physician says unmistakable symptoms of consumption, including debility and loss of flesh. I lost 30 pounds in weight in a few weeks. My physician, who examined me, advised me to use your Cod Liver Oil Cream with Hypophosphites (PHOSPHOLEINE), and I am happy to be able to inform you that it has produced a complete cure, and I have regained from 124 to 154 pounds in weight, and am now enjoying good health. I drove 65 miles at night across Cape Breton during a snow storm in December without suffering from it in the least.

I am, dear sir, yours faithfully, E. R. HARRINGTON.
