SAFE SOOTHING SATISFYING

Originated by an Old Family Physician in 1810.

You can safely trust what time has indorsed for nearly a century.

There is not a medicine in use today which possesses the confidence of the public to so great an extent as Johnson's Anodyne Liniment. For more than eighty years it has stood upon its own intrinsic merit, while generation after generation have used it. The best evidence of its value is the fact that in the state where it originated the sale of it is steadily increasing.

Johnson's Anodyne Liniment

I. S. JOHNSON, ESQ. My Dear Sir:—Fifty years ago this month, your father, Dr. Johnson, called at my store and left me some Johnson's Anodyne Liniment on sale. I have sold it ever since. I can most truly say that it has maintained its high standard and popularity from that time to this. JOHN B. RAND, North Waterford, Maine, Jan., 1891.

"Best Liver Pill Made."

Parsons' Pills

Positively cure Biliousness and Sick Headache, liver and bowel complaints. They expel all impurities from the blood. Delicate women find relief from using them. Price 25c; five 25. Sold everywhere.

This certifies that Dr. A. Johnson, whose name is signed to every genuine bottle of Johnson's Anodyne Liniment, in the month of Jan. 1840, first left at my store some of the same I have supplied my customers with it ever since, (over fifty years) with increasing sales. JABEZ KNOWLTON, Newburg, Maine.

approve of Scott's Emulsion. For whom? For men and women who are weak, when they should be strong; for babies and children who are thin, when they should be fat; for all who get no nourishment from their food. Poor blood is starved blood. Consumption and Scrofula never come without this starvation. And nothing is better for starved blood than cod-liver oil. Scott's Emulsion is cod-liver oil with the fish-fat taste taken out.

"Baroness, have you heard——" "Is it a secret, your excellency?" "Yes." "Then I have heard it."—Fliegende Blaetter.

He (gallantly)—I couldn't kiss any one but you, dear! She—If that's the case, you can't kiss me.—San Francisco Wave.

Willie—Will teacher go to heaven when she dies, ma? Mrs. Ferry—Yes, dear. Willie—But will they let her in? —Cincinnati Enquirer.

Willie Wilt—My deah fellow, I nevah use bay rum. Barber—Why not, sir? Willie Wilt—Because it goes to me head.—New York Sun.

Teacher—Olga, translate the following sentence into French: "My cousin Arthur is greatly attached to me." Olga (quickly)—His name is Max.—Fliegende Blaetter.

Jones—Smith is in business for himself, isn't he? Brown—For himself? Well, I should say he is in business for the benefit of an extravagant family.—Brooklyn Life.

Minnie—I never noticed before that this mirror had a wrinkle in it, Mamie—I thought you were able to see wrinkles in any mirror you looked into.—Indianapolis Journal.

"Ah, me, my heart is full!" sighed the girl who had been taking advantage of her leap-year privilege until she found herself engaged to five men. —Yonkers Statesman.

"You ask me to put yon glass lager on shlate unt you drunk tree glasses, ain't it?" "That's all right; it only proves there's more in me than you gave me credit for, see!"—Life.

Gadzooks—We don't seem to hear anything nowadays about the coming woman. Zounds—No; because she has already come, and is now off on her wheel.—New York Tribune.

Watts—There seems to be some truth in the saying that heaven helps those who help themselves. Potts—Of course there is. They are the only kind worth helping.—Indianapolis Journal.

"How is your daughter getting on with the piano, Numson?" "First rate. She can play with both hands now. She says she will be able to play with her ear in six months."—Household Words.

Biggs—I am so stout that I know exercise would do me lots of good. Tams—Then why don't you get out and shovel that snow off the walk? Biggs—That's not exercise, that's work. —Truth.

"I say, Bellevue, lend me $10, will you?" "You have struck me at the most unfortunate time of the year, Manchester." "How so?" "February is the shortest month."—Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

It's all right, we suppose, to say that a man is homely enough to stop a train, but he'll find he's not homely enough to stop it if he has arrived at the station a minute after it has started.—Yonkers Statesman.

Patient—That sign of yours is not very encouraging. Dentist—Why so? I guarantee to extract teeth without pain. Patient—Yes, but I want the pain extracted. I'd rather keep the tooth.—Philadelphia Record.

"I wonder how warm the room is," said Bloombumper. "Benny, go and look at the thermometer." The little boy's consultation must have been very unsatisfactory, for he said presently, "the thermometer isn't going."—Truth.

First new woman (at the club)—What makes you so blue? Second ditto—My father-in-law has come to stay with us, and John and he sit at their knitting all day, and cry about my treatment of John.—Philadelphia Record.

Teacher—George, what excuse have you for being late? George—Only a far-fetched one. Teacher—What do you mean? George—The conductor of the car carried me several blocks past the school.—Harper's Round Table.

Officer—What did you want, sir? Citizen—Somebody has stolen my watch and I want you to hunt the rascal up and give him the key to it. It raises the mischief with a watch to let it run down, you know.—Boston Transcript.

"You can't tell whether a man is a bachelor or a father of a family simply by his looks." "Certainly not; but there is one infallible method of finding out." "What may that be?" "Give him a young baby to hold."—New York Recorder.

"Jane," said her father, "I thought you hated stingy people, and yet your young man——" "Why, papa, who says he is stingy?" "Oh, nobody says so; only I could see that he was a little 'near' as I passed through the room." —Boston Transcript.

He—But of course you will forget me? She—Nonsense; I shall think of you when you are gone. He—Oh, shall you? She—Yes; therefore, the longer you are gone, the longer I shall think of you. Won't that be nice?—Boston Transcript.

He—Why do you like the Wagnerian operas so much better than those of the Italian school? She—Oh, Wagner operas make so much noise that you can talk all you like through the performance, and nobody can hear you.—Somerville Journal.

She—Come, dear, here are some nice fresh biscuits I cooked myself. Put on your slippers and come to the table. He—Excuse me, dear, I don't think I'll put on my slippers. I've always made the boast that I'd die with my boots on!—Yonkers Statesman.

Little Irene (entertaining Mr. Noodle) —Do you play very hard with my sister Clara, Mr. Noodle? Mr. Noodle—Play with your sister? Why, no, I don't play. Why do you ask? Little Irene—Well, she says you make her awful tired.—Brooklyn Life.

A Graduate of Toron to University Says

"My children have been treated with Scott's Emulsion from their earliest years. Our physician first recommended it, and now whenever a child takes cold my wife immediately resorts to this remedy, which always effects a cure."

You Find 'Em in New York.

On Third-avenue one evening I saw an innocent looking old man walking along with satchel in hand, and thinking I might be of use I offered my services.

"I'm a-lookin' fur a cheap tavern," he replied as he came to a halt."

"Well, you'll find one two blocks down."

"Thankee, sir. I kinder hated to ask anyone, as there's lots of bad folks in New York. Do you know if beef is up or down?"

"I haven't noticed the market reports. Are you here with cattle?"

"Yas, got three car loads. Wonder how hogs is?"

"I can't tell. Have you hogs, too?"

"Yas, two car loads. Some folks would a put up on Broadway. I 'spose, but I'm not arter style. All I want is 'nuff to eat and a good bed. Think there's any danger o' my bein' robbed?"

"Not if you keep your eyes open."

"But I don't want to cash no checks fur strangers?"

"Indeed, not."

"Nor bet on any man's game?"

"No, sir."

Nor take a drink with a stranger and git drugged?"

"No."

"I guess I kin git along all right. Much obleeged to you, stranger. Say, you!"

"Well."

"You are a mighty keerless man to drop yer wallet in this way! I heard it fall as you turned to go. I don't want nuthin' fur bein' honest, but if you feel like presentin' me with—"

"You must think me a fool not to have heard of that old game—" I interrupted.

"There—don't fall over yourself!" he replied in an altogether different voice. "How's my make-up?"

"You appear to be an old hay-seed."

"And that's what I want. I'm going up the street and let some of the boys tackle me for a greenhorn. Come and have a drink?"

"No."

"That's right—never drink with a stranger! By-by, old man! Got to git to bed airly so's to see to my cattle and hogs the fust thing in the mornin'. If you read of an old hayseed from the west gittin' beat out of $5000 that'll be me—Abijah Johnson Black!"

And he had scarcely moved away when a policeman crossed the street and walked up to me and said:

"I was watching your little game, young man, and now you want to move on lively?"—M. Quad, in Detroit Free Press.

A FARMER IN TROUBLE.

A Granville County Man Speaks His Mind —Feels Like a New Man—Cured by Four Boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

CARDINAL, Dec. 7—(Special)—Mr. Robert McIntosh, a farmer very widely known in this county and living near this village, has been in a painful and dangerous condition as the result of kidney disease affecting the bladder. When called upon he said:

"During three years, until quite recently cured by using four boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills, I have been an intense sufferer from kidney disease, which kept going from bad to worse, though I was doctoring all the time."

Under advice I began using Dodd's Kidney Pills, at once realizing great help. I now feel like a new man, and am perfectly cured of kidney trouble in any form."

Fergus, April 6, 1896

To Robert Phillips, Druggist, Fergus.

This is to certify that I have suffered from piles for a long time and tried several articles recommended for this complaint, but none of them benefitted me till I tried Chase's Ointment, which has completely cured me.

MRS. JOHN GERRIE.

R. Phillips, Jr., Druggist Witness.

"My six-year-old daughter, Bella, was afflicted with eczema for 24 months, the principal seat of eruption being behind her ears. I tried almost every remedy I saw advertised, bought innumerable medicines and soaps, and took the child to medical specialists in skin diseases, but without result. Finally, a week ago, I purchased a box of Dr. Chase's Ointment, and the first application showed the curative effect of the Remedy. We have used only one-sixth of the box, but the change is very marked; the eruption has all disappeared, and I can confidently say my child is cured. (Signed) MAXWELL JOHNSTON. 112 Anne St., Toronto

A despatch from Bombay says the mortality from the famine in Balapur and Belaghi districts is steadily increasing. Hundreds of persons have died from starvation in Gonda district.

Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

Chase's Pills have gained popularity because they are a specific for the uric acid condition, prevent Bright's disease, cure Rheumatism and all Catarrhal conditions of the Kidneys and Bladder. They do this because they possess remarkable alterative, tonic and deuretic properities, exerting a wonderfully soothing influence on irritated or inflamed mucos membrance of the kidneys or bladder. One pill a dose. 25 ct box. The cheapest medicine in the world.

Chili has recently had a change of government and a new cabinet headed by President Errazuriz was formed. The old rebel Balmacedist faction is now fomenting trouble, and an outbreak is expected.

It Saved Our Child.

"My little daughter, three and a half year old, suffered three years with Eczema. Her little body was covered with the itching rash, and doctors did no good. Four boxes of Chase's Ointment entirely cured and saved our child. Her skin is clear and not a sign of rash is to be seen." Andrew Aiton, Hartland, N. B Mr. Aiton is one of thousands benefitted by this unfailing cure for piles and sk in dis ases.

Wanted no Moral.

The late Dr. W. B. Robertson of Irvine, Scotland, was once addressing a boys' meeting, and having delighted them with some of his racy anecdotes, he began to draw to a close by saying: "Now, I'm going to point out the moral of all this." "Never mind the moral," shouted a little fellow from the middle of the hall; "gie's anither story."

A MESSAGE TO MEN.

Proving that True Honesty and True Philantrophy Still Exist.

If any man who is weak, nervous and debilitated, or who is suffering from any of the various troubles resulting from youthful folly, excesses or overwork, will take heart and write to me, I will send him confidentially and free of charge the plan pursued by which I was completely restored to perfect health and manhood, after years of suffering from Nervous Debility, Loss of Vigor and Organic Weakness.

I have nothing to sell, and therefore want no money, but as I know through my own experience how to sympathize with such sufferers, I am glad to be able to assist any fellow-beings to a cure. I am well aware of the prevalence of quackery, for I myself was deceived and imposed upon until I nearly lost faith in mankind but I rejoice to say that I am now perfectly well and happy once more and am desirous therefore to make this certain means of cure known to all. If you will write to me you can rely upon being cured and the proud satisfaction of having been of great service to one in need will be sufficient reward for my trouble. Absolute secrecy assured. Send 5c silver to cover postage and address Mr. Geo. G. Strong, North Rockwood, Mich. 135&w.
