The St. John Sun says:—"Could not the St. John Board of Trade see its way clear to invite the delegation from Jamaica, now at Ottawa, to visit our city? And could not the Board likewise ask the leading business men of the chief cities of the Maritime Provinces to meet these Jamaicans at St. John, to talk over trade matters?"

It is reported that Col. Taylor, D. A. G. of this district, is to be appointed commander of the new school of artillery to be established at Winnipeg. The militia of this district, while acknowledging his undoubted qualifications for promotion, would greatly regret to part with their chief.—Amherst Gazette.

There is very little doubt that the colossal Extension to Cape Traverser, advertised in today's issue, will be the greatest event in the Tea Party line that will occur this season. The Cape is one of the most famous points of interest on the Island, and so rare a chance of seeing its beauties at so little expense may not soon be had again. The programme of sports and railway fares will be advertised at an early date.

The inhabitants of St. Theresa's Parish, Baldwin Station, intend having a grand picnic on Dominion Day. As the people of the above named parish are making strenuous efforts to complete their already beautiful church. We hope the public will recognize their zeal by patronizing their picnic, especially as no pains will be spared to make it enjoyable and respectable.

An old smoker declares that he has been using Myrtle Navy tobacco ever since the second year of its manufacture, and that during that time he has never suffered from a blistered tongue or parched tonsils, or any other of the unpleasant effects which most tobaccos will leave behind them. His experience, he says, is that no other tobacco which he has ever tried is quite so equal, and that in value for the money no other comes anywhere near it.

The steamer Ulanda, of the Halifax Line, which arrived here on Saturday, sailed for Boston at noon to-day. She had as cargo 1365 bags starch, 451 cases lobsters, a number of cases of eggs, pelts, etc. Her passenger list was as follows:—Rev D D Currie, Mrs Grant and six children, Joseph O Holmes, Susan Doyle, Margaret Wood, Catherine Kennedy, Mrs J Devereux, Mrs Christie Stewart, and two steamer passengers for Halifax and from thence to Boston.

The Portland Transcript says: "Mr. E. H. Milliken, the proprietor of Pine Cottage, has a coat that is eleven months old that weighs 740 pounds, and is 14 hands high; if any one can beat this we should like to hear from them." The Kennebec Journal says: "Mr. W. E. Potter of this city owns a coat of the same age as the one mentioned above, which stands 15 hands high, and weighed when taken to pasture the other day, 950 pounds. The coat came from P. E. Island, and was purchased by Mr. James Keegan from Mr. Stockman."

The Government appointments of prosecuting counsel in the Riel case are approved by both parties. Robinson is a Liberal Conservative, Oler a reformer. Robinson is admittedly the finest criminal lawyer in Ontario. He conducted the prosecution of Whelan for the murder of D'Arcy McGee, and the prosecution on the late George Brown for his attack on Chief Justice Wilson. He was one of the leading counsel in the argument of the Boundary case before the Privy Council. Oler is a younger man, something of a politician, and an eloquent speaker. He occupies a leading position at the Toronto Bar.

The London Daily News: "The question is now being carefully considered as to whether a Bill should not be introduced into the present parliament permitting the preaching of clergymen at Nonconformist services and of ministers not in Anglican orders at the services of the Church of England. The law at the present moment is very uncertain, and it is suggested that it would be better to proceed by legislation rather than to plunge into costly litigation for the purpose of settling obscure legal points. There is reason to believe that Mr. Albert Grey, M. P., is prepared to take charge of such a Bill."

THE RIEL REBELLION

News from Big Bear's Prisoners.

Mrs. Delaney and Gowanlock still Alive and well Treated.

Middleton and Strange following up Big Bear's Trail.

FORT PITT, via BATTLEFORD AND WINNIPEG, June 5.

For the past week Middleton and Strange's scouts have been scouring in all directions for Big Bear who went north on different trails.

Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Quincey, taken prisoners by Big Bear after the Frog Lake massacre, escaped a few days ago and arrived at our camp.

They report that Mrs. Delaney and Gowanlock, previously reported dead, and all other prisoners, are still alive and well treated. Notwithstanding all contradictory reports, no indignities were offered them.

Big Bear still has about twenty prisoners. On the 3rd inst. Capt. Steele, with Mounted Police, came up to one band of one hundred Indians, just as they struck camp, fifty miles north-east of this place. A fight ensued. The Indians ran to shelter, and the police had to retreat with three wounded. The loss of the Indians is unknown.

In reply to an interpreter, an Indian, believed to be Big Bear, said: "I want nothing from the police. We can deal with them. The prisoners are all right. Get away or we will attack you."

The police retreated, and despatched the news to General Middleton, who immediately started in pursuit with 200 men and twelve days' rations.

Big Bear, with his 600 warriors, are evidently making for the Beaver River country, where there are trails almost impassible for troops.

The weather is very bad. Snow and rain has fallen every night for a week past. General Strange goes to Onion Lake. All the trails are in a very bad condition and deserted camps are seen everywhere.

The region west of Battleford is in very bad condition. The Indians have cleaned out everything. Some think Big Bear will double back and strike the Victoria trail in order to intercept the supplies following General Strange. This is his only chance of getting food as everything else has been destroyed.

The Cashmere Earthquakes.

LONDON, June 8. Earthquake shocks at points in the Vale of Cashmere continue at intervals, averaging three hours in length. Whole villages are being engulfed, and terrible subterranean noises are heard, driving the people frantic with fear. The horrors of approaching famine are added to other results of the disaster, as many thousand bushels of grain have been swallowed up in chasms which are constantly opening.
