

ATTENTION STUDENTS

The Cadre is your newspaper. It is financed by the Student Union, plus any advertising we can get. It can be a good paper, or it can be a journalistic pile of garbage. Do you like reading garbage? If you like reading garbage, we can go on as a three person slave labor organization, and print garbage. However, if you have an interest as to what goes into your paper, we desperately need your help. There is a lot of work that goes into putting out the Cadre. Many hands make light work, and the work hasn't been all that light lately. In fact, it has been hectic, frustrating, and just too much for the staff we now have.

A typical Sunday lay-out session is a good example. It usually starts around noon and ends at three, four, and sometimes five in the morning. Gallons of coffee are consumed and enough cigarettes are smoked to strike terror into any member of the Canadian Cancer Society. There are articles to be typed, layed-out, and headlined, graphics to be prepared, photos to be captioned, etc., etc. And THREE people to do it!

The perfect lay-out session would consist of seven or eight people doing one or two pages each, and ideally (if we had a typist), everything would be typed, with the exception of one or two last minute items.

It's nice to dream. Do you want three harrassed people's dream to come true? Do you have an interest in journalism or art? Do you want to become involved with what's happening at your University? THEN:
