LITTLE SANDS
Word has been received here recently of the sudden passing of William Whitcomb at his home in Massachusetts. Mr. Whitcomb was the husband of Florence Sickles of Little Sands, who was well known in these parts. Mrs. Whitcomb visited many friends in these parts last summer and has many friends here. Mr. Whitcomb is a half brother of Charles and Donald Whitcomb who frequently visit relatives at the home of Bruce Stewart, High Bank.

Barry Stewart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stewart, Little Sands took suddenly ill at his home on Sunday morning, April 19th, and was rushed to the Kings County Memorial Hospital, Montague where he had an appendix operation. Barry is doing well and expects to be home soon.

Men are now working on the Little Sands Wharf, repairing part of it caused by damage from the winter storm so that fisherman can place some of their fishing equipment there.
Fishermen are extremely busy these days hauling fishing equipment to Wood Islands preparing for the opening lobster fishing season.
