OBITUARY

JAMES B. GAY

(Inserted by family)

The death occurred at the P.E.I. Hospital on March 20, 1966, of James B. Gay in his 96th year after a short illness. He was the youngest and last surviving member of a family of 13.

At six years of age he lost his father who was shipwrecked in Hillsborough Bay. At an early age he left P.E.I. and went to the Lucknow, Ont., area where he married Catherine Cameron; later moving to Toronto where he successfully engaged in the building trade in Toronto and Winnipeg. He then returned to his native Province and was engaged in the fox farming industry. For the past ten years, he has resided with his granddaughter, Mrs. Vernon MacLennan and husband of Alexandra, P.E.I.

He was a man of strong character and exceptional qualities; sobriety, honesty, industry and charity being chief among them, as well as a great zest for life and a bright spirit.

He was predeceased by his beloved wife and by his youngest son, Robert E. Gay. Surviving are two daughters, Annie (Mrs. Delano Carver) and Evelyn (Mrs. Ivan Nelson); one son, Cameron, eight grandchildren and 17 great-grandchildren.

The funeral was held at the MacLean Funeral Home on March 20. The service was conducted by the Rev. T.R. Goudge. The hymn "Rock of Ages" was sung by the congregation and a duet "Never Grow Old" was sung by Mrs. Sidney Burhoe and Mrs. Dorothy Douglas. Organist was Mrs. J.W. Ballem. Pallbearers were: George Lawton, Parker Ings, Edison Smith, Richard Jenkins, Roy Herman and Clifford Birt. The remains were later interred in Pownal United Church Cemetery.

May God rest his soul.

CARD OF THANKS

The family of the late Mr. Gay wish to express their sincere thanks to Rev. T.R. Goudge, the staff of the MacLean Funeral Home, Dr. H.P. Stewart and all those who so kindly sent flowers, hymn books, cards and letters of sympathy in their recent sad bereavement. Your kindnesses were deeply appreciated.

Cattle Buyers From U.S. Seek Charolais Here

OTTAWA (CP) — United States cattle buyers are "as thick as flies" in Canada seeking to purchase Charolais cattle, an Alberta MP told the Commons and he wants action to prohibit sale of the breed.

Lawrence E. Kindt (PC—Macleod) had the Commons chuckling with the vigor of his criticism of the U.S. buyers. However, Agriculture Minister Greene said no restriction on sale of the cattle is contemplated.

Canada imported 113 head of the French breed earlier this year and after a quarantine period in federal pens and a further 90-day period on various Canadian farms they may be disposed of as owners wish.
