Local and Other Items.

THE STANLEY left Pictou at half-past ten this morning.

An Ohio lady was so frightened by a snake that her glossy black hair turned white as snow. It was soon returned to its original color by Hall's Hair Renewer.

MASONIC CHARITIES.—An exchange says that the contributions of Freemasons for the year 1888 to the three English Masonic charities amounted to £82,914, being £21,855 more than in the previous year.

THE BITER BITTEN.—Col. Hughes, chief of the Montreal police, who was at the Windsor Hotel superintending the ejection of crows a few nights ago, had his pockets picked by one of his victims to the tune of $17.

A beautiful young lady became so sadly disfigured with pimples and blotches that it was feared she would die of grief. A friend recommended Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which she took, and was completely cured. She is now one of the fairest of the fair.

CHOKED.—A very fine Jersey cow belonging to William Grant was choked by a piece of turnip on Friday evening in the owner's barn near Windsor Street, Halifax. The turnip stuck in the wind pipe and before assistance could be obtained the animal died.

For the restoration of faded and gray hair to its original color and freshness, Ayer's Hair Vigor remains unrivalled. This is the most popular and valuable toilet preparation in the world; all who use it are perfectly satisfied that it is the best.

HE NEVER RECOVERED.—A man named Maurice Flynn, of St. John's, Nfld., died under peculiar and circumstances recently. He was put under chloroform for the purpose of having an operation performed on his eyes, but never recovered consciousness.—Ez.

ANOTHER VICTIM.—A young man named Love, employed at the Lorraine Mills, Pawtucket, R. I., while skating on Spectacle Pond, near Providence, one afternoon last week, fell into an air-hole and was drowned. Love was the fifteenth victim of the season in that vicinity.

TESTIMONY REFUTED.—The testimony of Beach in the Parnell inquiry to the effect that Michael J. Lomasney was blown up in the London bridge explosion is refuted by the record of the health office of St. Louis which shows that Lomasney died June 15, 1881, of apoplexy.

A DOCTOR'S MISTAKE.—Gustaf Johnson, a resident of Castlewood, Dak., became tired of life and took poison recently. He was nearly dead when Dr. Stanley was called to attend him. The doctor tasted the poison to find out what it was, and soon he too was suffering terribly. Both men are in a critical condition.

THE GREED FOR GOLD.—Cheyenne, Wyoming, advises state that it is reported that eight Mexican prospectors, who had succeeded, by means of an ancient chart, in locating a gold mine worked by Spaniards over 200 years ago, have been murdered by American prospectors, who secured the chart after a desperate fight.

CHESS TOURNAMENT.—The tournament of the Sixth American Chess Congress will begin on Monday, March 25, in New York city. Seven prizes are offered, graded down from $1,000 to $200, as well as a special prize of $50 for the best game. The entrance fee of $25 and a deposit of $25 must be paid by intending players on or before March 21.

SUDDEN DEATH.—The Halifax Herald says that Mr. John McElin, who had been sheriff for some years, died suddenly at his home on Portland Street, Dartmouth, last Friday night. The deceased was about town on Thursday transacting business as usual, but complained of feeling unwell. On Friday he took to his bed and that night passed away.

CANONICALLY ERECTED UNIVERSITIES.—A telegram has been received at Montreal from Mgr. Duhamel at Rome to Rev. Father Anger, principal of the Oblates in Canada, announcing that the university powers, rights and privileges have been conferred upon the College of Ottawa by His Holiness Pope Leo XIII. Laval and the new university at Washington are the only other canonically erected universities in America.

A NOTABLE BODY.—The London aldermen who have just been chosen by the newly elected Council of the Metropolis, is a rather notable body. All but one of the members are Liberals, and there are three Lords and one clergyman in it. The most notable member, however, is a woman, who is probably the first female alderman in the world, unless account is made of the officials lately elected in one or two Western towns.

PLOT FOR A NOVEL.—Miss Kate Coyne, a young artist of Cincinnati, has become possessed of a fortune in a romantic way. About three years ago William F. Jordan, an old gentleman from Topeka, Kansas, called at her studio and engaged her to make a crayon picture of his dead son. He took a great fancy to Miss Coyne, and sent her numerous valuable presents. About six weeks ago Mr. Jordan died, and the young lady has received word that he left her $20,000 in his will.

AFGHAN AFFAIRS.—A despatch from Moscow says the Viedomosti states that the Amer of Afghanistan has collected 20,000 men on the frontier with the intention of pursuing Thak Khan, and made futile attempts to secure the cooperation of the Amer of Bokhara in the movement against Russia. When the fact came to the knowledge of Russia, she notified England that it would be in the interest of both of the powers to prevent the Amer from taking precipitate steps.

ACCOUNTED FOR.—The Montreal Gazette thinks that the earthquake at St. Flavie, Que., last week, has been accounted for. It is "the beginning of the shaking up the Dominion is to receive from the adoption the same day of the new Opposition platform that Canada is morally, mentally, physically, politically and nationally defunct until it can send a minister plenipotentiary to the capital of the King of the Cannibal Islands. When the back townships catch on to this great movement the rest of the quake will be heard from."

Obituary.

An esteemed correspondent writes—"A very sad accident, on Monday, Jan. 21, caused a loss to the vicinity of Montague of one of our respected citizens, Mr. Daniel R. Dewar, and the Church of Christ one of its members. Brother Dewar left his home about noon of the day above named, in company with his brother, Capt. John T. Dewar, to attend to some matters about their vessel, and less than half a mile from their house the accident occurred, from the effects of which he died on Thursday morning, Jan. 24. Two sons and three daughters are left. Their sorrow and bereavement are intensified by their having lost their mother by death more than ten years ago, and during that time Brother D. tried, as far as possible, to add the tender care of the mother to the providence of the father. May our Heavenly Father protect, and may all loving hearts care for, the doubly orphaned ones."

After a lingering illness, Mr. John D. Campbell died at his home near Montague, Jan. 24, aged 76 years. Brother C. was a member of the Church of Christ in Montague during many years. In the congregation and work of the church, he will be greatly missed, as well as in the family circle. His wife, who with him shared the changes of over fifty years, is left in loneliness and sorrow, with one son and eight of their twelve daughters, four daughters having passed on before. Strong in faith, our brother passed to his rest. Many relatives and friends followed the remains to the place, where, tenderly and carefully, they were laid away in hope of a better resurrection.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

"Eustic" Speaks.

SIR,—I see by a late number of THE EXAMINER that you have again permitted your columns to be defiled by scribbles of the meanest and most nonsensical character. I refer to the "North Lake Notes," which appeared in your weekly issue of the 1st inst. For several years past the respectable and intelligent portion of this community have been annoyed and disgusted by the frequent appearance in THE EXAMINER and Patriot of the grossest misrepresentations and the vilest slanders directed against respectable and inoffensive persons. Not only have the aged and afflicted, and the unfortunate come in for a share of senseless ridicule, but the weaker sex have been attacked in the most shameful and cowardly manner. The last effort of your worthy correspondent compares very favorably with former productions. The glaring falsehoods, the mean insinuations and the childish attempts at ridicule bear witness to the character of the writers, and betoken a depravity of morals combined with a weakness of intellect to be looked for in the most idiotic.

It is evident, however, that your scribes were actuated, not only by the silly desire of seeing their productions in print, but by the baser desire of hurting the feelings of persons against whom they entertain some petty spite.

The allusion to the North Lake harbor movement, and the attempt to connect therewith the name of Mr. Elisha Baker, is an act of unparalleled meanness. It is but in justice to that gentleman to say that he has never agitated for the opening of a harbor at this place in the manner proposed by our local engineers.

Now, sir, such anonymous scribbling is calculated to do a great deal of injury. In this settlement alone, a vast amount of harm has been done thereby. Enmity has taken the place of friendship, and confidence has given way to suspicion and distrust. The innocent have been blamed, while the guilty have enjoyed the friendship and hospitality of those whom they have traduced. As you have been repeatedly warned against publishing such correspondence, your many subscribers in this community consider themselves unfairly treated. Hoping you will give this matter a share of attention, I remain,

Yours very truly,

RUSTIC.

North Lake, Feb. 6, 1889.

[As our correspondent remarks, we have been repeatedly warned, and we have repeatedly thrown such items into the waste basket. But the ingenuity of some of the rascals is past finding out. We shall take effective means to prevent a recurrence of the cause of our correspondent's complaint.]

More Mexican Ruins.

An interesting antiquity has recently been discovered at Palenque, in the Chiapas district of Mexico. The monument is situated upon the River Xhupa. Although it is now a complete ruin, it was originally a structure of considerable height, as three distinct stories are still distinguishable. The ground floor is very large, measuring some 120 feet by 75 feet. The floor above is attained through holes in the ceiling or vault, and here a room is found measuring some 27 feet by 9 feet. The openings referred to are natural and have been formed by the disintegration of the stone and the sinking in of the roof. On stone slabs set into the wall are bas-reliefs of human figures, warriors, etc. Although these stones are in a very bad state of preservation they are to be sent to the capital of Chiapas. Near this ruin are a row of houses forming a street, and not far from these the vestiges of a quite large town, all of course in a state of complete ruin.

Stop That Cough.

Many people neglect what they call a simple cold, which, if not checked in time, may lead to lung trouble. Scott's Emulsion of Pure Cod Liver Oil, with Hypophosphites, will not only stop the cough but heal the lungs. Endorsed by thousands of physicians. Palatable as milk. Try it. Sold by all druggists at 50c and $1.
