The United States Struggle.

If a majority of the Electoral College of the United States are in favor of Mr. Cleveland—and there is not much doubt that Cleveland electors are in the majority, a similar agency to that which elevated the Republican party to power, has deposited it. In the election of 1860, the Democratic party divided, on phases of the slavery question, into two hostile camps, each nominating Presidential tickets. The consequence was that Abraham Lincoln, the Republican nominee, was elected; and for twenty-four years the Republican party has retained the reins of power. The revolt this time was in the Republican ranks, but unlike the revolting Democrats of 1860, the Republican bolters did not nominate a Presidential candidate. They went over to "their friends, the enemy," the Democrats, and in consequence, Mr. Cleveland has in all probability, a majority of the electors.

Notwithstanding the considerable number of these bolting Republicans who went over to the Democratic ranks, the vote has been so close that, by all accounts, the relatively few who voted for St. John, the Prohibition candidate, turned the tide of battle, like the British Guards at Waterloo. Beecher, and the bolting Republicans were the Basher and the Prussians at the Waterloo in New York State in the late hard fought battle, but St. John and his few followers really put the Republican hosts "on the run"; and it is possible that by drawing to his standard disaffected Republicans, who could not go the length of voting with their old opponents, and might, and probably would, have returned to their old party at the last moment, really won the Democratic victory.

Editorial Notes.

—It is significant that over 2,000 government employees left Washington to take part in the election on the 4th. What will become of those two thousand now?

—Notice is given in the Canada Gazette that at next session of Parliament, application will be made to pass an act to authorize the establishment by the Canadian Pacific Railway Company of superannuation provident and insurance funds, for the benefit of the employees of that company.

—In its obituary notice of the late A. M. Sullivan, M. P., the Times pays the following tribute to the character and services of the deceased journalist:—"He was a fearless but a fair and honorable opponent, who smote with all his might, but in open, manly combat, and with weapons not unworthy of brave men. Few men connected with the popular movement, have received so large a share of public homage from all parties by his brilliant talents and his eminent virtues. His impassioned eloquence won the cordial admiration of his most uncompromising political opponents as much as of his warmest friends and colleagues, while his generous and honorable spirit, and his genial, sympathetic manner, made him an object of esteem in every circle in which he moved. He was always an advanced and earnest Nationalist—one of the few whose sincerity was not doubted—and when the Home Rule movement was started he threw himself into it with all the ardor of his nature. He was one of the ablest and most determined advocates of temperance, and rendered good service to those who promoted Sunday closing and other objects connected with the cause."

The Rifle.

No. 3 Co. 82nd Battalion held their last shooting match of the season on Thursday last, at Kensington Rifle Range. The Company's Silver Medal and various other prizes were competed for. Although there was a strong wind blowing at the time, and the day was very unfavorable, some very good shooting was done. The following is a list of the prizes competed for by the Company:—

- Company's Silver Medal—Private Murchison.
Silver Cup (presented by Capt. D. Stewart)—Private Hickey.
Meerschaum Pipe (presented by Apothecaries Hall Co.)—Capt. Stewart.
Lamp (presented by W. E. Dawson)—Private Long.
Pair Japanese Trays (presented by London House)—Private McMillan.
Box Cigars (presented by Sergt. Crosby)—Sergt. Carter.
Silver Napkin Ring (presented by G. H. Taylor)—Corpl. Murray.
Pair G-oves (presented by W. & A. Brown & Co.)—Corpl. Keizer.
One Dollar (presented by Geo. Davison & Co.)—Private Allan.
Pipe (presented by Albert Crosby)—Private Vance.

Presentation and Address.

On Friday last, the 7th inst., a very interesting meeting took place in the Masonic Hall of this city, on the occasion of the departure from this island for the United States of one of the most active members of the Masonic fraternity, in the person of Alexander McKenzie, Esq., P. M. of Victoria Lodge, A. F. & A. M., who was presented with a handsome gold Past Master's Jewel by the brethren of his Lodge, accompanied by the following

ADDRESS:

MASONIC HALL, VICTORIA LODGE, No. 2, A. F. & A. M., R. F. C. I., Charlottetown, November 7th, 1884.

Brother Past Master Alex. McKenzie: DEAR SIR AND BROTHERS,—Having learned with regret that you are about to leave this Province and take up your abode in the neighboring Republic, the Officers and Brethren of Victoria Lodge, of which you have been an active, highly esteemed and worthy Brother for the last nineteen years, cannot allow the present opportunity to pass without exhibiting some tangible evidence of their appreciation of your devotion to the Masonic cause. The Brethren, therefore, at their last regular communication, appointed a committee to convey to you some proof of their esteem, and it now gives us great pleasure to present you with this Past Master's Jewel, and with it the assurance of the good wishes of the Brethren toward you, and their desire that you may long be spared by the Great Architect of the Universe to continue a useful member of the Masonic Fraternity.

Fraternally yours, J. A. LAWSON, A. H. B. MACGOWAN, W. R. BOREHAM, Committee.

To which he replied as follows:—

REPLY:

To Bros. J. A. Lawson, A. H. B. Macgowan, W. R. Boreham, Committee, and other Brethren of Victoria Lodge.

DEAR BROTHERS,—I beg to return you my heartfelt thanks for the very handsome jewel which you have just presented to me, and for the kind expressions of regard contained in the address accompanying it. You have spoken in warm terms of my labors in the Masonic Order, and of my connection with Victoria Lodge. Believe me, I shall greatly miss the fraternal association which, during a period of nineteen years, I have enjoyed with my brethren in Charlottetown; but though my future home may be in a foreign land, I know that I shall not be among strangers, and that I shall always receive a brother's welcome and a brother's sympathy in a lodge of that brotherhood which happily extends the wide world over.

I thank you heartily for your good wishes for my future welfare, and that God may bless you and yours in my sincere prayer. Yours fraternally, ALEX. MCKENZIE.

At the close of the meeting, the Brethren adjourned to the Osborne House where a sumptuous repast was spread, and partaken of by a large number of the members of the Mystic Tie.

The chairman, J. W. Morrison, Esq., in his usual happy style, introduced the business of the evening. The following toasts were proposed and drank in pure cold water:—

- The Queen and the Craft—"National Anthem" by the Brethren.
The Provincial G. M., Brother John Yeoman—Responded to with all the honors, by P. M. Murray.
The guest of the evening—Responded to by P. M. McKenzie.
Song—"Burns' Farewell," by Brother Ross.
Our Sister Lodges—Responded to by P. M. Large.
Song—"Entered Apprentice" by the Brethren.
Members of Victoria Lodge—Responded to by the W. M.
Song—"Meet upon the Level," by the Brethren.
Brother P. M. Morrison, senior Mason in the city—Responded to by Brother Morrison.
Song—"Gavel Song," by the Brethren.
The Press—Responded to by Brother J. A. Lawson, and read from Peck's Bad Boy, the conferring of the Bumper Degree.
The ladies—Responded to by P. M. McGowan.
Song—"The Ladies' Man," by Brother Ross.
Our Mechanical Interests—Responded to by Brother Newson.
Volunteer Toasts—Responded to by several Brethren.
Recitation—"Wm. Tell's address to his native hills," by Brother Warren.
Our Host and Hostess—Responded to by P. M. McGregor.
Song—"When Adam ruined the World," by Brother Ross.
The J. W. Toast—Happy to meet, sorry to part, happy to meet again.
Song—"Auld Lang Syne," by the Brethren.
At an early hour the festivities were brought to an end, after spending a pleasant evening, when all departed to their homes in peace and harmony.

Mount Stewart Notes.

Rev. W. R. Frame returned a few days ago from a visit to Nova Scotia, much improved in health. A good deal of shipping has been done here this fall, making merchants and farmers busy. D. Egan, Esq., has just completed a fine vessel to be launched in a few days. Mr. N. Clarke is repairing his mill. Having procured a large boiler, he will be able to do all kinds of work in the sawing line the coming season. J. R. Bourke, Esq., has this season done a very fair business in his starch factory, and has made some superior potato starch. The Rev. E. Bell is drawing large congregations, and appears to be very much appreciated. The Temperance Friends are carrying out the Scott Act. One violator of the law has been sent to jail for two months, and others are being looked after and will soon be there; for the inhabitants here are determined not to have rum in their midst. Dr. Tombs has lately arrived and intends practicing here as a Physician.

A Boston correspondent of the Halifax Herald says that smart young Bluecoats do much better by staying at home than by going to the States.

Y. M. C. A. Week of Prayer.

The Charlottetown Young Men's Christian Association will, in common with Associations throughout the world, observe the second Sunday of November and the week following as a season of special prayer for young men and Young Men's Christian Associations. The meetings will be held in the Y. M. C. A. Hall as follows:—

- Sunday, Nov. 9, at 4 p. m.—Topic, "The Lord Our Helper," Psalm 20.
Monday, Nov. 10, at 8 p. m.—"The Fatal Choice," Gen. 3, 1-6, Rom. 5, 12-14.
Tuesday, Nov. 11, at 8 p. m.—"The Divine Choice," Phil. 2, 5-8, John 10, 17-18, Heb. 12, 2, 19-22.
Wednesday, Nov. 12, at 8 p. m.—"A Far-seeing Choice," Heb. Heb. 11, 24-27.
Thursday, Nov. 13, at 8 p. m.—"Two Choices—Which is Mine?" Mark 10, 17-22.
Friday, Nov. 14, at 8 p. m.—"Apostles Choice and the Lord's Promise," Matt. 19, 27-29.
Saturday, Nov. 15, at 8 p. m.—"Choose Life," Dem. 30, 15-20, Col. 3, 1-4.

The public are cordially invited to attend each of the above meetings.

The Storm and Fire.

SOURIS, Nov. 7th, 1884.—The schooner General Gordon, Capt. Wm. Lord, came in here yesterday, and reports that he never experienced anything to compare with the storm of last Wednesday.—got ferozish torn, fore-gaff broken, and seine boat badly damaged.

About 12 o'clock last night, Mary McDonald, (better known as Mary Rorrig) was burned in her house, and all its contents. The deceased was about eighty years of age, and was unmarried. Fire supposed to be accidental. SOURIS.

KING'S COLLEGE DISPUTE.—Ten governors of King's College attended the recent meeting of the board. After a lengthy discussion, a vote was taken on a motion to dismiss Prof. Wilson from the staff of the college for the publication of a letter severely criticizing the action of the president, the bishop, and the management of the institution. Eight governors voted in favor of this motion and two against it. But as the vote of nine of the governors is required to dismiss a professor of the college, the motion was not carried. Another special meeting of the board is called for next week. Two notices of motion were given to be acted upon at that meeting—one, that Prof. Wilson be dismissed for causes already stated; the other, that President Dart and Professors DeFourmentin and Butler be dismissed for general incompetency. Meanwhile, affairs remain in statu quo.—Halifax Herald.
