Gov't Censorship Rapped By Liberals

The recently instigated move to channel information of three government departments to the press through the office of the Provincial Secretary came under direct fire at the annual meeting of the Queens County Liberal Association Wednesday night. Harry MacLaughlan presided.

Unanimous approval was given to the resolution on the subject, which read as follows:

"Resolved that the recent order of the Provincial Secretary regarding the suppression of information on matters of vital public interest, which amounts to censorship and denial of freedom of the press, be condemned."

The association went on record as urging Liberal Party leader, Hon. Alex W. Matheson, to make inquiries at the next session of the legislature into what it termed "the apparent mismanagement" in the administration of the departments of the provincial treasury, the attorney - general, tourism, industry and natural reshources ("with special reference to the Prince Edward Island Industrial Corporation").

"SQUANDERING OF FUNDS"

It went on to suggest that the investigation be levelled at "the squandering of public funds, the indifference of the various ministers and the many high-handed and arrogant actions on the part of the ministers of the Crown."

As previously resolved, at the annual meetings of the second, third, and fifth districts of Queens Liberal Associations, it it was recommended that Queens County be divided into two electoral districts, one to consist of the fifth district (Charlottetown), the other, of the remainder of the county.

Election of officers was deferred to the next meeting of the 11-member executive of the association.

Speaking at Wednesday's meeting were Alex Matheson, Eugene Cullen, and Ira Lewis.

Bank Loans To Assist Winter Employment

At a meeting of the Charlottetown employment advisory committee held Wednesday night, approval was given to an agreement to promote the use of bank loans to small businesses, and for home and farm improvement, as a measure to combat winter unemployment.

The assistant manager of the Royal Bank, M.J. Regan, addressed the committee and said that during the past two winters such loans created new jobs for many people who would have otherwise been unemployed.

Mr. Regan said that any promotion that the committee feels should be given the small loan plan should stress the lack of red tape and the ease with which such loans are obtained as well as the low interest rate features and the long period allowed for repayment.

VOCATIONAL TRAINING

The meeting with chairman Edward Brown presiding also discussed vocational and apprenticeship training plans.

W.W. Reid, deputy minister of welfare and labour, Malcolm MacDonald, inspector of apprenticeship training and J.H. McLellan, principal of the vocational institute, described the various programs now in operation, and further development to be expected.

The committee recommended to these authorities that training programs be established to train or provide refresher courses for the various trades and skills required in the industrial development now taking place in King's County. Particular concern was expressed by the committee on the need for skilled men in the shipbuilding trades.

Others in attendance at the meeting were: Mrs. Ireta Sutherland, business and professional women, Doug Simms, carpenter's union; Keith Kennedy, federation of Agriculture; G.W. Cheverie, J.A. Murphy and C.A. Orford of the national employment office staff.

Price Offsets Poor Catches

Despite this year's lobster catch being about 1,400,000 pounds lower than in 1962, the higher prices obtained by fishermen offset the poor landings.

Figures released yesterday by Fisheries Minister Leo Rossiter show that 7,300,000 pounds of lobster were landed this year, having a value of $3,160,000. Last year, 8,700,000 pounds of lobster, valued at $3,220,000, were landed.

Total value of fish products landed for the first 10 months of this year was $4,379,600. The catch totalled 44,800.000 pounds.

In 1962, total catch of sea products was 54,900,000 pounds, having a value of $4,650,000.

Fisheries officials expect that when figures are available for November and December, they will compare favorable with the 1962 catch.

'Miss P.E.I.' Describes Pageant

SUMMERSIDE — Joe Maund, Moncton, an international councillor and past district governor, was the guest speaker at the ninth anniversary of the Summerside Lions Club held Wednesday night at the local curling club.

Mr. Maund was introduced by club president, Francis- "Ginger" MacQuarrie.

Also in attendance was "Miss P.E.I.", Cheryl Paquet, who gave an account of her trip to Toronto where she competed in the Miss Canada pageant. She read the speech which she had presented at the O'Keefe Centre during the pageant.

Afterwards Miss Paquet was presented with four portraits of herself, one in color, by the club. Mr. MacQuarrie made the presentation.

In attendance were Miss Paquet's mother, and Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Hogan. Mr. Hogan recently resigned as manager of the Summerside Lobster Carnival. Town counsellor, Lions member Herbert Schurman, represented Mayor J.E. Morrison who was unable to attend due to sickness.

A dinner and a dance was held after the banquet.

Earlier in the evening Layton Schurman had proposed a toast to the ladies which was responded to by Mrs. Stewart Drummond, president of the Lionettes.

Ferry Truck Traffic Heavy

Provincial Transportation Director Graham Rogers' freight movement statistics showed 436 trucks using the Borden ferry service during the first two weeks of November.

During the two week period, 215 loaded trucks left by way of Borden and 221 loads of freight entered the province.

Of those leaving the province, 52 were from Charlottetown, 20 from Summerside, 13 from Kensington, 16 from Albany, 20 from Carleton, 17 from Bedeque and the others from all points of the province. In most castes, agricultural produce was carried. Also carried was canned milk, meats, frozen foods fish and cabbage.

Of the 221 trucks entering the province, 107 came to Charlottetown, 62 to Summerside, eight to Morell and five to Montague. Among the loads coming in was general freight, automobiles, beer, lumber, apples, pastry and a load of candy.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

The bidding:

East	South	West	North
1♦	1♠	1NT	2♠
3♣	3♠

Opening lead—four of clubs.

This deal occurred in the match between Great Britain and the United States during the World Olympiad staged in Turin in 1960. It proved to be an expensive hand for the American team.

At the first table, the American North-South pair arrived at three spades on the bidding shown and went down one against good defense.

Reese led a club. Schapiro won with the king and returned a trump. Declarer finessed and lost to the king. Reese now made the killing play— the queen of hearts—and South had to go down one. Declarer went up with the king, but eventually had to lose a club and two hearts.

At the second table, with Britain now North- South, the bidding was more spirited. It went:

East	South	West	North
1♦	1♠	1NT	2♠
3♣	3♥	Dble.	Pass
Pass	3♠	Pass	Pass
Dble.

Apparently, South (Swimer) was sounding out game possibilities with his bid of three hearts. When this was doubled, he ran to three spades, which also got doubled.

The American West led a low diamond. Declarer ruffed and played the nine of clubs, taken by the king. East returned a trump, which was more or less the same play as the British East at the first table had made.

But the declarer at this table took advantage of the lapse (a heart return would have defeated the contract by forcing the king out of dummy). Swimer refused to finesse the spade, going up with the ace. He then played the queen of clubs and discarded a heart from dummy.

East took the ace, but the defense was now helpless. Swimer lost, all told, a spade, a heart and two clubs, and made three spades doubled to give the British a net gain on the deal of 830 points.

Both Easts erred in the play, but only the British declarer capitalized on the opportunity.
