AFTERNOON TEA - A highly successful afternoon tea, sponsored by the W. A. of Summerside Trinity Church, was held on Wednesday in Epworth Hall. The guests were welcomed by the president, Mrs. K. G. Sullivan. The hall was attractive with its Christmas decorations, which were carried out in the candlelight tea tables. The Allie MacNeill, Mrs. Roy Johnson, Mrs. Robert Dewar and Mrs. Harry Bishop. In connection with the tea was a fancy work table, presided over by Mrs. Harold Milligan and Mrs. Lorne Campbell. A candy and novelty table in charge of Mrs. William Heckbert; and a parcel post conducted by Mrs. Norman MacLeod and Mrs. Percy Keyes.

THE IDEAL Christmas gift. Regent Theatre tickets. In convenient books of $1.05, $2.25, $3.50, $4.50. Good for any show, anytime. For sale at the box office and Boates Pharmacy.

TRINITY Y. P. U. - The regular weekly meeting of the Trinity Young People's Union was held on December 5th with sixteen members present. The devotional period was in charge of Pat O'Brien, citizenship convener assisted by Mike Bush. The study period, under the direction of Rev. K. G. Sullivan, was continued from the previous meeting. An interesting talk on credit unions, given by Dr. H. R. Clark brought the devotional period to a close. With the president in the chair, the business period opened with the minutes of the last meeting, given by the secretary treasurer. The only item on the business agenda was a final discussion on "Cathedral Films", which will be sponsored by the young people group for the benefit of the Sunday school at the beginning of the new year. Recreation followed.

Mrs. J. H. MacFarlane and Mr. Douglas MacFarlane, Fernwood, left on Thursday, Dec. 7, for Fredericton, N. B., where they will visit with Mrs. MacFarlane's brother, Mr. Bruce Davison and Mrs. Davison. They will return next week.

A large congregation assembled in the Bedeqe United Church on Sunday evening, Dec. 3rd, when an inspiring carol service was held. A large choir composed of the Central Bedeqe Baptist Church choir and the Bedeqe Choral Club, provided excellent music. Many beautiful Christmas carols were sung. These were interspersed with solos by Mr. Norman MacDonald and Prof. Jones and readings by Miss Louise Callbeck, Miss Ruth Wright and Miss Kathryn Craig. The women's chorus "O Holy Night" was impressively rendered. Rev. C. A. Britten, pastor of Central Bedeqe Baptist Church presided and opened the service with scripture and prayer. Mrs. Walter Craig was organist. The service was closed by the singing of "Silent Night" unaccompanied, and the Benediction.

The annual "Get-together" of the MacCallum family was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Craig, Middleton on Friday, Dec. 1st. Mrs. Craig was formerly a MacCallum. About twenty members were present. Those coming from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Gordon MacCallum and daughter, Charlottetown. A delicious chicken dinner was prepared. The most of the members present being of the musical type there was no lack of vocal and instrumental selections. This combined with happy social intercourse rounded out a most enjoyable occasion.

The semi-annual meeting of the Bedeqe W. C. T. U. was held at the home of the president, Mrs. Edison Wright, Central Bedeqe, on Tuesday afternoon, Dec. 5th. The meeting opened with a minute silence in memory of deceased member, Mrs. Carrie Trueman. Then followed the singing of the hymn "O Master, let me walk with Thee," and Scripture reading by Mrs. Howard Schurman. In the matter of business, a committee was appointed to purchase gifts for the children who had written the examinations in connection with the National Temperance Course. The program consisted of readings by Mrs. J. H. MacFarlane, and Miss Louise Callbeck. Brief prayers by several members and the Lord's Prayer in unison were followed by the hymn: "Fight the good fight" and the Mizpah benediction. Three new members were added to the society. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

The December meeting of the Bedeqe Baptist Missionary Society was held at the Parsonage, on December 5th. It took the form of a Christmas service, with "peace" as the theme, for roll call, devotions, and the singing of carols. A nicely decorated tree from which small stockings hung stood on a table near the window. Members placed their birthday offerings in these stockings. A goodly sum was realized for Missions. After the meeting a social hour was enjoyed and a delicious lunch was served by the hostess.
