JOB PRINTING AT THE EXAMINER OFFICE.

GRAND WEATHER for the tea parties at Fort Augustus and Emerald.

HALF HOLIDAY.—The Monday half holiday in the stores went into effect this afternoon.

THE balance of our American flower pots we will sell at 20 per cent. discount. Call early. —R. K. Brace.

INSTALLATION.—The officers of St. Lawrence Lodge will be installed this evening by Grand Master Chappelle.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.—Meeting to-night at 8 o'clock. Business of special importance. A full attendance requested.

HOOK AND LADDER.—The regular meeting of the Hook and Ladder Company will be held this evening at 7.30 o'clock.

KEEP to-morrow night open for the cantata, "Under the Palms." It will do you good to hear those children sing.

MASONIC. — The brethren of Victoria Lodge, A. F. & A. M., will please remember the regular meeting this evening.

MEETING.—A special meeting of the South End Boating Club will be held at their rooms this (Monday) evening at 8 o'clock. A full attendance requested.

DRAMATIC.—The "Reclaimed" Company did not perform in Market Hall on Saturday evening, as advertised. There were not enough people present.

LOTTERY.—The grand lottery for the trotting horse Whistler which was to have been held on July 4th has been postponed until Saturday, August 8th.

"UNDER THE PALMS."—It is only once in five or ten years that such a flood of music is turned on for one night. Two hours of continuous song to-morrow night at the Lyceum.

BOSTON MARKETS.—P. E. Island eggs are quoted in Boston at 16½ to 17 cents per dozen. The demand for old potatoes is about over—new potatoes are coming in. Mackerel are in fair supply and meeting with a very good demand, but receipts consist wholly of small fish.

THE TURF.—There will be a stallion race and a 2.40 race on Union Park, New Glasgow, N. S., on the 16th September next. There will be a $500 purse for the first-mentioned race, and a purse of $100 for the latter. Mr. A. N. Large has been invited to take Golden Rover, and has consented.

POLICE COURT.—This morning three drunks were fined $1 or 4 day each, and one $3 or 14 days. One of two men charged with being drunk and disorderly was fined $30 or 30 days, and the other $4 or 20 days. The charge against a man summoned on complaint of his wife for being drunk and disorderly, was dismissed.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.—The Auction sale of furniture at the late residence of Justice Peters, Sidmont, will commence at 11 o'clock sharp on Wednesday morning. The sale of horses, cows, carriages, harness, etc., will take place at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Premises will be open for inspection to-morrow afternoon.—R. Bearisto, Auctioneer.

DON'T FORGET IT? WHAT? The bazaar and strawberry festival in Market Hall on Thursday evening next. The ladies of Zion Church are noted for the excellence of their efforts in this direction, and the affair of Thursday promises to be even more than ordinarily successful. Doors open at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Admission only ten cents.

SHOULD BE REMOVED.—There is a heap of garbage on Grafton Street, just outside Queen Square fence, to which THE EXAMINER has been requested to call the attention of the Sanitary Officer. This garbage has been there so long that it is now becoming an eyesore to the general public, and more particularly to the people living or doing business in the neighborhood.

For the cure of female weakness, suppressions, nervousness, bearing down pains and all those peculiar ailments that make woman's life almost unbearable, Dr Williams' Pink Pills are an unfailing cure. They build up the blood, restore the nerves and bring a glow of health to sallow cheeks. All dealers, or by mail post paid on receipt of price (50 cents a box). Dr Williams Med. Co., Brockville, Ont. 1w

SOME SHEEP.—We are informed that Alexander Anderson, Esq., has some sheep which stands ahead of those of Mr. Stewart Burns, referred to by us lately. One yearling had locks of wool 17 inches long and whose fleece weighed 10 lbs., 5 oz. Six of them including this one had fleeces the combined weight of which was 66 lbs. These sheep are a pure cross between the Leicester and Shropshires.—Pioneer.

TENNIS.—A tennis tournament (ladies' singles) will be played at Victoria Park on Tuesday afternoon next. As a handicap will probably be given, a great many lady members of the Tennis Club are expected to enter the lists. A handsome prize is offered by the President of the Club. Drawing will take place at the Park on Tuesday afternoon at 4. The names of those present on the ground at that time only will be drawn.

STAMPS CASE.—The two charges of using old stamps upon letters mailed to persons in this city, preferred against Isaac Brown, postmaster at Cherry Valley, by Post Office Inspector Brecken, came up for further hearing before Mr. R. R. Fitzgerald, J. P., this forenoon. After taking the testimony of one witness, and hearing what the counsel for the prosecution and defence had to say, His Honor gave judgment, fining Mr. Brown $40 and costs or 1 month's imprisonment in default of payment, for each offence.

UP FOR TRIAL.—William Wilbur, the tough who recently assaulted an Islander named Sanphy, at Moncton, driving a pick-axe into his arm, has been sent up for trial in the Supreme hourt. Sanphy's evidence had to be taken in his room, as he is not able to be out or move the injured arm, which lies on a pillow. The doctors fear that Sanphy's arm will be much impaired in strength, if not rendered altogether useless, as a result of the blow. The assault was the outcome of a quarrel between Sanphy and Wilbur over 40 cents which the latter claimed the former owed him, and which the former refused to pay.

THE TARTE-McGREEVY CASE

Murphy's Testimony Breaking Down.

OTTAWA, July 6.

At the Tarte-McGreevy investigation on Saturday, cross-examination of Murphy succeeded in breaking down much of his direct testimony. It is now believed generally that the large sums which Thomas McGreevy is charged with having received were carefully intercepted by Murphy and Robert McGreevy. The investigation is becoming very interesting, and Murphy's cross-examination will be continued to-day.

Death of William Henry Gladstone.

LONDON, July 6.

William Henry Gladstone, eldest son of Mr. Gladstone, died yesterday in London, aged fifty-one. His death resulted from an operation for the removal of a tumor from the brain, from which he had suffered some time. Mr. Gladstone arrived too late to see his son. His grief is terrible in its intensity. He manages to retain his health.

THE STATEMENT BELIEVED.—We have published at different times that we could furnish a piece of crockery or glassware to every man, woman and child on P. E. Island, as yet we have met, but one person who doubted this statement, but after going through our store and warehouse, he said it is all true. If there is another person who yet doubts our statement we wish him or her to call and look through our stock (without charge) and we believe they will be quite satisfied that our statement is correct.—W. P. Colwill. je25 d w 4w

I. O. O. F.—The Grand Lodge of the L. P. B. N. A, will convene at Yarmouth on Wednesday, August 12th, at 10.30 a. m. The brethren in that prosperous town are making great preparations, and are determined to give Oddfellowship the biggest boom it has ever had in the Provinces. The executive committee have prepared a programme as follows:—An encampment of the order will be instituted on Tuesday night, 11th, the evening preceding the assembling of Grand Lodge. Patriarchs from Boston encampment will be present. On Thursday morning the Yarmouth Steamship Co. will land a company of Massachusetts and other New England brethren. After Grand Lodge opens the members and representatives will form in procession and march to the site of the new Oddfellows' Temple, where the corner stone will be laid with Oddfellows' honors. At 4 p. m. a reception and luncheon will be held. At 6.30 the visiting contingent from Boston will leave for home. On the 14th an excursion leaves Yarmouth for Boston by steamer, open to all brethren of the order. Visiting Oddfellows are requested to attend in regular costume.

A DANGEROUS JOKE.—While one of our respected farmers was returning home from prayer meeting last night, he met with what might have been a serious calamity. It appears that when the gentleman in question reached the brow of the hill near Glynwood, on the Brackley Point Road, he felt an obstruction around his throat and neck, which compelled him to stop his horse and carriage. On investigation he found that a couple of rascals had extended a hair rope across the road, in order to stop any person travelling along. Beyond being slightly grazed about the face and throat the farmer escaped serious injury, which would certainly have been the result had the horse been travelling at his usual pace. St. Peter's Road has of late years obtained an unenviable notoriety. Last year, for months, the Jordan house flourished, and many persons were assaulted and frightened and chased by midnight marauders, and this year the road is occupied by a madman, who is allowed to roam about at his own sweet will, to the terror of the inhabitants and travellers. Last night's freak was a dangerous one, and the two offenders who attempted, by means of a rope across the road, to stop a gentleman travelling home of a dark night, should be arrested and severely punished.

K. D. C. is Guaranteed.

A Suggestion.

SIR,—Our popular Railway Superintendent seems anxious to accommodate all who wish during the summer months to take advantage of a visit to the country. The Saturday excursions are popular, but as only comparatively few can take advantage of them may I be permitted to make the following proposal: Let a special train leave for Cape Traverse about 10 o'clock Saturday evening and return on Monday, leaving Cape Traverse at 6 a. m. By this means those who are shut up in stores and shops the entire week could enjoy a quiet rest and be very much invigorated.
