SIR MORELL MCKENZIE is dead. Brouchitis carried him off.

Baird's Balsam of Horehound cures and relieves Chronic Coughs.

KEEP in mind the lecture on Scottish Characteristics next Monday night. A good time guaranteed.

VENTURESOME.—Two parties crossed the ice from Southport to the city with horse and sleigh yesterday.

BAIN, conservative, has been elected for Southport by 118 of a majority. It was formerly represented by a liberal.

A beautiful yellow butterfly emerged into the light of day in the dining room of the Miss Wrights, "Eastbourne," Wednesday.

ANOTHER grand night at the Harbor Light last night—crowded hall, brief but telling address by Rev. Mr. Brewer, and great interest manifested.

YESTERDAY the Stanley left Georgetown for Pictou, but on account of the storm returned without reaching it. Consequently we had no mail last night.

REV. J. A. GORDON proposes preaching a sermon having special reference to the life and labors of the "prince of preachers," C. H. Spurgeon, on Sunday evening next.

THE lecture on Scottish Characteristics by Rev. Mr. Sutherland in the basement of the First Methodist Church next Monday evening should draw a large audience.

FOUR young men were arrested at an early hour yesterday morning for being drunk and disorderly. Three of them were fined $3 or 14 days and one old offender $30 or 30 days.

D. McMILLAN music dealer of this city has made a special offer to supply all churches, schools and public halls with organs at cost up to first of May next. Feb. 5, d&w—11

CAMPBELL'S wine of beach tree creates a new remedy for all affections of throat, bronchial tubes, and lungs. Price one dollar per bottle. For sale at D. McD's Medical Hall seventy-five cents per bottle. Feb. 3, Tur & Fri—4

MR. JOHN R. GARRETT'S warehouse, with its contents, at Stanley Bridge, was burned to the ground at 3 o'clock Thursday morning. It is insured. It is only a short time since Mr. Garrett's dwelling house and shop were destroyed by fire.—Pat.

EVERYBODY'S PILLS are prepared only by A. S. Johnson, but all druggists have them.

When out shopping it will pay you to remember that A. S. Johnson keeps only the best qualities in flavoring essences, cream of tartar, etc., which he sells at right prices.

THE Elfin made several trips yesterday morning with one wheel, the other being damaged by the ice. In the evening the dock on the Southport side was filled up with heavy lolly and ice, which rendered it very difficult to turn the boat around. We think an extra effort is being made by the Department to give every accommodation to the people this season.

For Sore Throat and Lung, apply Dr. Kendrick's White Liniment.

ST. GEORGE'S L. & D. CLUB.—A meeting of this Club was held in the office of R. R. Fitzgerald Esq., the President. The report of the Secretary-Treasurer was read and adopted. Moved by R. F. Maservey, seconded by Jas. H. Good. Resolved, that the balance of the Club's funds in the Secretary-Treasurer's hands, be handed over to the Principal of Prince of Wales College, to be expended on one prize or more, as he may think fit, to be awarded at the close of the current term "for English Literature." On motion the meeting adjourned sine die.

A VERY enjoyable occasion took place Wednesday evening, 3rd inst., at the residence of Geo. H. Dingwell, Esq., St. Peters Bay, Marie, when his only daughter, May W. was united in marriage to Robert Rowland Webster of the same place. The young couple were attended by the Lizzie Passmore of Charlottetown, who acted as bridesmaid, and Mr. James E. Dingwell, who supported the groom. After the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. J. W. McKenzie, the party with a large number of friends sat down to a repast to which ample justice was done. It is needless to say the presents, some of which came from abroad, were both numerous and handsome.

A FIRE broke out about 4 o'clock yesterday in the stable and outbuildings of Mr. George Thorne, on Spruce Street. The building where the fire originated was used as a boiler house, and was connected with the stable where Mr. Thorne kept his pigs, cow and three horses. The fire was discovered before it had made much progress, and the alarm soon brought the firemen and other citizens rushing to the scene. Before the brigade arrived, however the horses and cow had been removed and the fire was rapidly spreading over the roof of the building. It was something surprising how soon the hose was brought to bear on the flames but it was sometime before the fire was got under control, as it had caught in a quantity of hay inside the building. However the boards were soon torn off and the burning mass deluged by water by which time the fire was extinguished leaving an ugly sight to mark its devastating track. The buildings were the property of Sheriff Curtis and are said to be insured. Mr. Thorne cannot account for the origin of the fire as he had not been using the boiler house that day.

Married.

At the house of Mr. John McLeod, city, on the evening of Wednesday, Feb. 4th, by the Rev. W. Hamlyn, Capt. John Embree, of Boston, Mass., to Mary May Nelson, of Charlottetown.

The Scotch Soiree.

One of the most enjoyable and sociable affairs ever held in this city was the Scotch Soiree held at the Caledonian Club rooms, Thursday evening. Tables were laid in the principal room loaded down with the choicest delicacies, supplied by Mr. W. F. Carter, and presenting a most tempting appearance.

Col. Irving presided, and on his right were Mrs. A. A. McDonald and Prof. Caven; on his left Senator McDonald and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. McDonald.

Malcolm McLeod, Esq., Q. C. and Mrs. McLeod, and Hon. Neil and Mrs. McLeod were unavoidably absent.

The following guests were present:—

Col. Irving, Hon. Senator and Mrs. Macdonald, Mr and Mrs Jas Paton, Mr and Mrs J. J. Davies, Mr and Mrs J. B. Macdonald, Mr and Mrs John McEachern, Mr and Miss Angus, Mr and Miss Small, Mr and Mrs J. Davison, Mr and Mrs J. A. McDonald, Mr and Mrs Jas Byrne, Mrs Rose, Prof and Miss Caven, Mr and Mrs D. M. McKenzie, Mr and Miss John Ross, Mr and Mrs Ferguson, Mr and Mrs Gillis, A. McNeill, Esq.

Miss Barratt, Mrs McLaren, Miss Murdoch, Miss Currie, Miss McNeill, Miss McKinnon, Miss McEachern, Miss McDonald, Mrs Webster, Miss Webster, Miss Reddin, Miss T. Brown, Miss Hall, Miss Mitchell, Miss Daley, Miss Alley, Miss Wilson, Miss Gillis, Mrs McRae, Mrs Caulder, Mrs Patterson, Mrs C. McGregor, Messrs J. A. McLaren, Hugh McInnis F. J. Nash, Peter Ferguson, A. D. McLeod, Edwin do, John McLeod, Ewen McMillan, M. J. McMillan, Capt J. Gillis, Jas A. McEachern, A. McCallum, J. A. McDonald, Chas McGregor, Jas McLeaac, J. J. Gillis, D. McRae, J. McPherson, Capt S. McRae, Chas Webster, Wm Ross, Jas A. McNeill, J. McPhee, Alex Patterson, R. M. Campbell, D. McDonald, (V. Riv Bridge) J. Cameron, J. A. Cameron, J. M. Campbell, Jas Calder, Wm McKay, T. McLean, Jr., A. E. McEachern, J. S. Macdonald, J. M. McLeod, R. McDonald.

After tea the following programme was carried out:—

1. Address—President Irving.
2. Instrumental—Worth's Orchestra.
3. Recitation—A. E. McEachern.
4. Song—"Under My Plaidie"—Mrs. Rourke. Encore—"Calla Herring."
5. Address—Hon. Senator Macdonald.
6. Vocal duet—"Oh, Wa's Me for Prince Charlie"—The Misses Webster.
7. Solo—"March of the Cameron Men"—John Ross.
8. Bagpipes—Peter Ferguson.
9. Solo—A hundred pipers—Prof. Caven.
10. Solo—I'll await my love—Miss May McDonald.
11. Address—A. McNeill Esq.
12. Reading—J. McPherson, Esq.
13. Solo—Jas. Calder.
14. Auld Lang Syne.

Miss Caven and Miss Wilson were the accompanists. Needless to say all did their parts well.

After the concert the floor was cleared and dancing was indulged in with a vim for a few short hours. Everyone went away feeling that he or she had spent a real good time. The soiree bids fair to eclipse St. Andrew's dinner. This shows the effect of the ladies' presence.

Court of Chancery.

Thursday, at 2.30, the prisoners—Matthew Phelan, James Stewart and Patrick Doyle were brought up before the Master of the Rolls, by virtue of a writ of habeas corpus, issued out of the Court of Chancery.

After the reading of the return of the jailer to the writ, Mr. H. James Palmer, on behalf of the prisoners, moved for their discharge, on the ground that the warrant of commitment was incomplete and insufficient, because the clause reciting the distress and default, was omitted, and secondly, because the warrant imposed a greater penalty than the statute authorized, namely, the costs of conveying and committing the prisoners to jail.

Mr. Peters, Attorney General, followed in forcible argument, that the magistrates had power to insert the costs of conveying and committing, as in the warrant of commitment set out, and if not, it was within the power and also the duty of the judge to amend any errors in matter or substance in the warrants, provided he was satisfied that there was an offence committed and a conviction duly obtained on the merits, under the powers of amendment given by statute.

The Master of the Rolls took time to consider and adjourned the Court till Monday, at 11 o'clock.

THE bushing of the ice between Bedouque and Summerside was finished yesterday.

THE ice in Bedouque Bay is not very safe and considerable caution is necessary when travelling over it.

THE last day or two trade appeared more lively than usual. Quite a number of people took advantage of the snow, and drove into town.

WE learn from letters recently received from Hon. J. W. Richards then in Liverpool, Eng., that he anticipates reaching P. E. I. the first week in March.

SEVERAL Indians belonging to Lennox Island brought to town on Wednesday, hundreds of potatoes, which were loaded on three or four teams. Mr. R. T. Holman purchased the lot.

THE Scott Act case, postponed to Wednesday last, was again put off until Saturday, for necessary witnesses. We understand warrants have been issued for the parties subpoenaed.

TUESDAY afternoon while Mr. A. M. Wright of Bedouque was attending a meeting in the S'side Bank his horse took fright broke the halter and started for home on double quick time.

MR. JAMES STEWART of Northport Town road, father of Mr. William Stewart of the firm of Sinclair & Stewart of this place, passed away on Monday last in his 92nd year. His funeral took place on Wednesday the 3rd inst.

MR. JAMES L. LEE, who removed to Boston with his family last fall, returned to Summerside last Tuesday, in charge of the body of his step daughter's Mrs. W. Schurman's child, who was buried in Summerside Cemetery on Wednesday.

MR. CUTBERT McLEOD, of Kensington, previous to the train leaving Summerside for the east on Wednesday (noon) when in a friendly scuffle got his leg badly broken above the ankle. He was removed from the train in a chair at Kensington and Dr. McNeill was called to set the bone.

THE annual musical review of the pupils attending the convent here took place in their music room on Wednesday evening last. The parents of the scholars were in attendance and were highly pleased with the progress made by the children and the manner in which they acquitted themselves both in vocal and instrumental music.

IT is rumored some of our local horsemen have purchased a "wrecker" from the western end of the county. Report says he has trotted in 2.38 on Haywood's mill-pind. We are uncertain what shape the track was, neither do we know whether it was a half-mile or a whole one, or who the official timer was. Perhaps it is a westerly similar to the one on the tapis last week.

IN the garden of Mr. John McKenzie there stands a beautiful Mountain Ash tree which is perfectly handsome during the summer time when in bloom. At present it is loaded with clusters of red berries, and has been patronized daily during the past month by one lone Robin who eventually declined to move to a warmer climate with his feathered brethren. This red breast finds it very convenient to perch on the limbs when hungry and make a good square meal. Mr. McKenzie, to encourage the bird to remain, adds a dessert occasionally to a limb in the shape of a piece of bread.

King of Medicines

Scorfulous Humor—A Cure "Almost Miraculous."

"When I was 14 years of age I had a severe attack of rheumatism, and after I recovered had to go on crutches. A year later, scrofula in the form of white swellings, appeared on various parts of my body, and for 11 years I was an invalid, being confined to my bed 6 years. In that time ten or eleven sores appeared and broke, causing me great pain and suffering. I feared I never should get well."

"Early in 1886 I went to Chicago to visit a sister, but was confined to my bed most of the time I was there. In July I read a book, 'A Day with a Circus,' in which were statements of cures by Hood's Sarsaparilla. I was so impressed with the success of this medicine that I decided to try it. To my great gratification the sores soon decreased and I began to feel better, and in a short time I was up and out of doors. I continued to take Hood's Sarsaparilla for about a year, when, having used six bottles, I had become so fully released from the disease that I went to work for the Flint & Walling Mfg. Co., and since then

HAVE NOT LOST A SINGLE DAY on account of sickness. I believe the disease is expelled from my system. I always feel well, am in good spirits and have a good appetite. I am now 27 years of age and can walk as well as any one, except that one limb is a little shorter than the other, owing to the loss of bone, and the sores formed on my right leg. To my friends my recovery seems almost miraculous, and I think Hood's Sarsaparilla is the king of medicines." WILLIAM A. LEHR, 9 E. Railroad St., Kendallville, Ind.
