Dozen Big U.S. Firms Here

To Be Hit By New Tax Laws

By HAROLD MORRISON
WASHINGTON (CP) — About a dozen big U.S. controlled Canadian investment companies, with total assets of some $400,000,000, likely will be hit by the new United States tax laws effective Jan. 1.

These, in the view of the U.S. treasury department, are in effect "tax haven" companies...

The bidding and play at the second table went quite differently. The American North was raised to four, and North went to four.

East, on lead at this table, opened a trump. Declarer played low from dummy and won the lead with the ace. He then played the ace and a diamond, ruffing in dummy, and led a diamond.

By now North had pretty much run out of steam. He later lost two hearts, a diamond, a club and a spade to go down two—100 points. So Italy gained 500 points on the first hand of the 144-deal match.

The swing on the opening deal was largely traceable to the peculiarities of the Italian system which made South the declarer at spades instead of North. Call it luck, or skill, or anything you want; it happened.

The Italians eventually won their match against the United States by a clear margin, and also defeated France and Argentina to win the championship.

SEEK ASYLUM
CASABLANCA (AP) — Seven crew members of the Cuban freighter Pinar del Rio have asked for political asylum in Morocco, authorities said Friday.

The crew members arrived Monday with miscellaneous cargo and intended to remain 24 hours but were refused to sail.
