Defeat Giants 4 - 3 In Final Game For 3rd Straight Series Victory

By Jack Hand

NEW YORK, Oct. 10 — (AP) — New York Yankees won their third straight World Series under manager Casey Stengel today by defeating the Giants 4-3 on Hank Bauer's 400-foot triple with the bases loaded in the sixth inning. The victory gave the American Leaguers a 4-2 edge in games for their 14th championship.

A last-gasp rally by the back-to-the-wall Giants fell one run short in a two-run ninth inning rally when lefthander Bob Kuzava came to the rescue of Johnny Sain.

Pinch hitter Sal Yvars lined out to Hank Bauer who made a sliding sitting catch for the last out of the series with Whitey Lockman-headed home from second base.

In desperate straits after Bauer's blast the Giants fought back hard to keep their miracle story alive. In the seventh they knocked out Vic Raschi only to have Johnny Sain, an old National League from Boston Braves, stop them cold.

Sain wobbled past a rocky eighth inning to finally strike out pinch hitter Ray Noble with the bases full.

In the ninth they loaded the bases on three singles with nobody out. Once again Stengel had to change pitchers, with lefthander Bob Kuzava replacing Sain.

Two long fly balls by Monte Irvin and Bobby Thomson let two runs trickle home.

But they couldn't manage the last as Yvars lined to Bauer for a dramatic clincher.

Charles Stops Layne By Kayo In 11th Round

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 10 — (AP) — Ezzard Charles, former heavyweight champion, started a comeback tonight by stopping Rex Layne in 2:32 of the 11th round of their scheduled 12-rounder.

A winging right to the chin settled the rugged scrap, referee Buck McTiernan halting the scheduled 12-rounder as Layne tried to struggle to his shaky legs as the count reached nine.

Charles, weighing 188—the highest he's ever scaled for a fight—gave Layne a terrific beating in the last two rounds after a fairly even scrap up to that point. Layne weighed 195 1/2.

A disappointing crowd of 6,257 witnessed the interesting scrap.

and receipts were $59,763.35—of which $23,000 was for the television rights. The promoters had expected a crowd of 15,000 and receipts of about $100,000.

The temperature, a breezy 52, helped hold down the crowd.

Following the scrap, Charles said: "That Layne was hard to beat. He's an awkward fighter, that's what he is. He's hard to hit with a left jab, but I finally got him with my rights."

Layne, who suffered the second straight kayo of his career—he was belted out in July by Rocky Marciano for his only other kayo loss—said in his dressing room: "I don't know what happened. I guess I just got hit."

Pin-Up Boy Bauer Was Close To Being Goat

By WILL GRIMSLEY

NEW YORK, Oct. 10 — (AP) — Hank Bauer was the "pin-up boy" in the victorious Yankees dressing room today but the big outfielder from Kansas City admitted he came close to being a goat.

"I almost lost Yvars' hit in the ninth," he said of the spectacular play that ended the game, giving the American Leaguers a 4-3 victory over the Giants and their 14th World Series conquest.

"It was a well-hit ball and I wanted to make sure I caught it. I scooted forward but lost it in the shadows. I didn't know I had it until I looked in my glove."

Bauer made a sliding, lunging catch of the ball, retiring pinch-hitter Sal Yvars with Whitey Lockman, representing the tilters, ruck, heading home from second base.

That ended the Giants dramatically when they smashed Johnny Sain from the box with three straight singles and came within a breath of continuing their miraculous comeback.

Bauer also unloaded the bases with a three-run triple in the sixth, providing the winning margin of the sixth World Series game.

The world champions took their 14th victory in 18 World Series.

without too much demonstration. Casey Stengel, who reiterated that he plans to return next spring, strode through the room to congratulate each player individually.

He paused at the corner where his "Big Man" Joe DiMaggio was sipping a soft drink.

"We couldn't have done it without you," he told the Yankee Clipper, giving DiMag a fatherly pat on the arm.

DiMaggio was pressed for a statement of his future plans — he has said he may retire after this series.

"I may not decide until next spring," he said. "I'll let everybody know then."

The great outfielder bounced out of a terrific slump in the final three games and hit a booming double his last time up today. This breaking the record held by Frankie Frisch, who played in 50.

Sharing the limelight with Bauer was Bob Kuzava, the massive lefthander from Wyandotte, Mich., who went in with the bases loaded and none out in the ninth and put out the Giants' fire. He forced the Giants' big guns — Monte Irvin, Bobby Thomson and pinch hitter Yvars — to fly out.

"I felt nervous at first because it was my first World Series," Kuzava said. "But after I threw a few I knew I was okay. I threw one curve and the rest fast balls."

PAGE SIX THE GUARDIAN, CHARLOTTETOWN OCTOBER 11 1951

The decision of the junior baseball heads to settle the Maritime junior baseball finals between Charlottetown and Springhill by a three game series instead of a sudden death game, as first proposed, will be met with approval. The only advantage in a sudden death game is a financial one and from the standpoint of the Junior Abbies there would probably be no advantage there. In a baseball game anything can happen and an inferior team with a few lucky breaks can administer quite a beating to a much stronger squad. Of course the same thing can happen in a series but usually matters will even themselves up so that the better team emerges the winner.

Florida - Owned Entry Winner Of Puppy Dog Stakes Here Yesterday

Favored with clear autumn weather and a marvellous course, the Charlottetown Hun Field Trials got underway early yesterday morning with the Puppy Stakes and the Shooting Dog Stakes being held in the Winsloe-Harrington area.

Keen competition featured both stakes. The Puppy Stake was completed in the morning and all the Shooting Dogs except the last brace were judged yesterday. The last brace will go out for their 43 minute heat today.

Bell Oaks Ginger, handled by veteran Tommy Cox of Indiana was the winner of the Puppy Stake. The young dog is owned by Mrs. J. B. Bell, Jr. of Palm Beach, Florida.

Second place honors went to Humdinger's Tip owned by Ted Cunningham and handled by Frank McGinley both of Bangor, Maine. Stinger du Juchoir, handled by "Buck" Bissell and owned by Louis Tippet of Portland, Oregon took third place.

A young puppy owned by Mr. Wallace Rodd, Highfield and shown by Wally Sharpe won fourth prize in the stake. The dog, Peggy Bluejacket, won the prize donated by the Charlottetown Kennel Club for the best Island puppy.

The puppies were judged by Walter Kleeman, Springfield, Ohio, who is the secretary of the American Britany Association, and Alfred Gray of Moncton. They went through twenty minute heats without shots being fired.

Mr. Gray last night stated that the first place puppy had four good finds and was followed very closely for top honors by Humdinger's Tip, who finished second. He stated that all three first place puppies had very intensive bird work.

Results of the Shooting Dog stakes will not be available until today as they were not completed. The Shooting Dogs are being judged by Messrs. Richard Hoyer, Andover, Mass.; Raymond R. Camp, Outdoor Editor of the New York Times and Collier's Magazine, and Chick Middlemiss of St. Stephen, N.B.

These three men were probably the most tired lot of the sportsmen as they had to travel for miles on foot while following each brace.

ever, are taking part in the trials. Included in this latter bracket are three men from the United States who were former class-mates at Harvard University. They are Messrs. James T. Balwin, Cambridge, Mass.; P. Shaw Sprague, Portland, Maine; and F. Van Wyck Mason of Baltimore, a well known author.

The men visited the Province last year and have been impressed with the hospitality shown by the residents of the Island. This morning the Shooting Dog stakes will be completed after which the Derby Stake and Open All Age Stakes will be held.

Field Marshal for the trials is Dr. Gil Houston and the Field Trial Superintendent is Mr. Stewart Jones. Mrs. W. M. Brehaut is secretary and the committee members are Wallace Rodd, Art Hogan, B. Graham Rogers, Stuart Ives and Mrs. Arthur MacPherson.

INTERMEDIATE GAMES POSSIBLE NEXT WEDNESDAY

It was learned last night that the long awaited game for the Maritime intermediate baseball championship may be played next Wednesday in Middleton, N.S. The Summerside team has received a proposition from the Middleton team who are Nova Scotia champions to play two games there on Wednesday and a fourth if necessary on Thursday. It is understood that this offer may be accepted. This will mean of course that Summerside fans will not see any of the games. — S.

Lack of Birds

The judges reported that the biggest trouble in the area was the lack of birds. For this reason they stated they had to judge more on the class of the dogs rather than on their performance. Mr. Camp marvelled at the course and also about the natural climate which the Island provides for the Huns.

The sportsmen and officials yesterday were served a delicious noon luncheon at Harrington Hall by the Women's Institute. The Field Trial Dinner and presentation of prizes will be held at Winsloe Station Hall this evening.

Among those attending the Trials are the presidents of the New Brunswick and Nova Scotia Fish and Game Associations.

Peakes Wins Series Opener

The Peakes Bombers came through with an eleventh inning rally yesterday to defeat the Lennox Island MicMacs 13-12 in the first game of the Provincial Intermediate Baseball "B" series. The game was played at Peakes. The next games in the series will be played at Lennox Island on Sunday afternoon.

Would Replay Series Same Way, Durocher Says

By TED SMITS

NEW YORK, Oct. 10 — (AP) — Leo Durocher stoutly turned his back today on any second guessing.

"I'd play the series just the way we played it if I had another chance," he said, his voice husky and his face taut.

"They're all champions in my book—all the Giants."

When everything was over, Durocher slumped down in his chair in the visiting manager's office under Yankee Stadium. The team that came from dismal last in the National League to win the pennant and battle the Yankees right down to the finish in the World Series was quiet, as beaten champions always are.

"You can't hit a ball any better than that," Durocher said. "I thought it was in there. If it had been a foot or two either way it would have been a hit."

Everyone knew he was talking about Sal Yvars' sinking liner that Hank Bauer caught to end the game.

"Those boys played like hell," Durocher went on. "They never gave up. But we couldn't get a hit when we needed one."

"When the ninth came up (the Yankees were ahead 4-1), they all said 'We got three big outs, let's go out and get 'em.'"

"They've had a great year. They're champions."

Could Monte Irvin have caught Hank Bauer's three-run triple that broke up the game, if he had been playing deeper?

"Sure, if he had been standing right up against the wall. That ball was hit 400 feet."

What did Dave Koslo throw to Bauer?

"He had to come in there with it," said Leo. "The bases were loaded and the count was three and two."

Neil Budlong Goes Fastest Mile; Silver Chilcoat Pulls Upset

Neil Budlong, a strong pacing bay gelding, raced the fastest mile at the Charlottetown Driving Park yesterday afternoon and lowered his own record as he paced the mile in 2:16 1/5.

The big horse, reined by "Ike" Moreside won two heats for the only double heat victory of the afternoon. He led all the way in both races and won with plenty to spare. The time of his first mile was 2:16 2-5.

At no time in the first race was the Budlong horse pushed in the second race Yankee Dale and Sister Mary stayed with him for the first half but he left them behind on the back stretch.

The race was sponsored by the Islanders Hockey Club. The members of the hockey team were introduced by coach Leo Lamoureux between the fourth and fifth dashes.

Silver Chilcoat, owned by Frank Roper and driven by Claude O'Brien pulled the biggest upset of the afternoon by winning the first race. The big trotter went away in tenth position but came home a nose ahead of Bonnie Dale.

Josedale Clipper and Silk Hal split top honors in the free for all with the Clipper winning the first dash and Silk Hal taking the second one. Jenny Kalmuck led the field most of the way in the first race with the Clipper following a close second. The Clipper took over the lead in the stretch and easily outdistanced Jenny to the wire.

In the second dash Loch Hanover was drawn and this time it was all between the Clipper and Silk Hal. The latter horse put on a stretch drive to win handily.

Big Babe Britton won the second race of the afternoon as Len O'Meara drove her steady mile to an easy win. Miss Donna Mae came up from far behind to win the sixth race in a stretch drive and pull another surprise.

The fifth race was won by Mildale who was driven by owner Willard Kelly. Winnie's Last showed the way for most of the race but faded in the home stretch. April Bud finished a close second to Mildale.
