A GUILTY FINANCIER

He Wanted Money, but It's a Question if He Got It.

A man in one of the rural communities not far from this city, who is content to profit financially at the expense of his personal popularity—who is, in fact, a money lender at extravagant rates of interest—was greatly surprised by a visit from the son of a well to do neighbor.

The young man wanted to borrow $500.

"Been to see your father?" asked the man of computations.

"Nope," was the reply of the youth whose family had been too thrifty to spend much money on his education.

"I ain't been to see dad, an' what's more, I be-n't goin to see dad."

As he spoke he twisted his hat in his hand and leaned his body over to one side until one leg of his trousers was drawn half-way up his boot.

"What do you want with this $500?"

"You're almost as bad as dad. What's the use of you're askin all them questions. You've heard about it, ain't you?"

"Heard about what?"

"Me courtin a gal."

"Oh, yes, I believe I did hear something of the sort."

"Well, it's happened. I proposed to her. We're goin to git married, an I want $500 so's we kin have enough money all at once to go from here to Chiny an stay forever if we want to."

"You're not going to run away, are you?"

"No. We'll be back. Only we don't want to feel hampered."

"Well, Jed, I'll tell you what I'd do if I were in your place. I'd go to your father and tell him I was going to get married."

"Dad knows it. He's tickled to death. He says Sadie's a good stout gal an a willin worker an he'd be right pleased to have her in the family."

"Well, why don't you go to him and say frankly that you want to borrow $500?"

"He knows it. I told him me an Sadie wouldn't get married 'less'n we had it."

"Wouldn't he lend it?"

"Yes. He said he reckoned he could git it fur me."

"Then what's the use of coming to me?"

"Well, you know dad is powerful clus in money matters. If I was to borrow from you an not pay, you'd jes' sue me or somethin. But if I was ever to tell dad I couldn't pay him he'd jes' nacherly chop down a saplin an lam me till I couldn't stand."

A VANCOUVER LADY

Cured of Asthma After Eight Years of Almost Constant Suffering. She says the Absolute Freedom From the Disease Seems Like a Dream. Clarke's Kola Compound Cures.

Mrs. J. Wise, Mt. Pleasant, Vancouver, B.C., writes: "I have been a great sufferer from bronchial asthma for the past eight years, many times having to sit up nearly all night. Through the advice of a friend who had been cured by Clarke's Kola Compound I resolved as a last resort to try it. The first bottle did not relieve me much, but before I had finished the third bottle the attacks ceased altogether, and during the past six months of damp and cold weather have not had a single attack. It seems something like a dream to be free from this worst of all diseases after so many years of suffering. I have since my recovery recommended this remedy to others suffering as I was, and know many others in this city whom it has cured. I consider it a marvelous remedy, and would urge any person suffering from this disease to try it."

A free sample bottle will be sent to any person who has asthma. Enclose 2c stamps. Address The Griffiths and Macpherson Co., Limited, 121 Church street, Toronto, Ont.

The sprinkling of railway lines with oil is valuable in that rain does not penetrate the oiled outer crust, and that vegetation along the lines of the rails is destroyed.

Are You Bilious?

A sluggish liver fails to filter the bile from the blood, and when the poisonous matter goes through the body in the circulation, the whole system is tainted and deranged. This is called biliousness and can be completely cured by Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, which act directly on the liver making it healthy and active. One pill a dose, 25 cents a box. The cheapest medicine in the world.

Don't Tear Down—Build Up.

The old-fashioned theory of tearing down disease was entirely changed by the advent of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food, which cures by creating new rich blood and nerve tissue. Through the medium of the circulation and the nervous system they strengthen and invigorate every organ in the human body.

An Interesting Case.

Mr. W. G. Phyll, proprietor Bodega Hotel, 36 Wellington Street East, Toronto, says: "While living in Chicago I was in a terrible state with itching and bleeding piles, I tried several of the best physicians and was burnt and tortured in various ways by their treatment to no avail, besides spending a mint of money to no purpose. Since coming to Toronto I learned of Dr. Chase's Ointment, I used but one box and have not been troubled with piles in any shape or form since."
