It is with deep regret that we learn of the death of Mrs. Dr. Bagnall, which occurred at her late residence, on Fitzroy Street, early this morning. Till within a day or two ago Mrs. Bagnall enjoyed her usual good health, and it is sad indeed to think that so soon she would be called away. The deceased had many friends, who will receive the news of her death with profound sorrow. To Dr. Bagnall and to her father's family we tender our sincere sympathy.

The New York Sun says two silver cups, designed by the Princess Louise, of Canada, to Albert Bierstadt, the artist, were received at the Custom House in New York recently for export to Bermuda, where they are to be presented in the name of the Princess, one to the Bermuda Royal Yacht Club and the other to J. H. Brimingham, of Englewood, Bermuda. It was at the latter's residence that the Princess was a guest during her visit to Bermuda last winter. The cups were sent here from Canada to be engraved before they were to Bermuda. Collector Robertson said the Treasury Department had exempted the cups from duty on Mr. Bierstadt's filing a bond. Customs experts said that ordinarily the cups would be classified as dutiable merchandise, even if they were designed for presents.
