MARRIAGE BELLS.

One of those interesting events which we are always pleased to chronicle took place at St. Dunstan's Cathedral on Tuesday morning the 28th ult., when Mr. Cornelius Murphy, of Brookvale, led to the altar Miss Mary Ann Tierney, daughter of Mr. Martin Tierney, of New Haven. The ceremony was performed by Rev. D. B. Reid, of Kelly's Cross, pastor of the contracting parties. Miss Maggie Kiggins, of Brookvale, attended on the bride, the groom being supported by Mr. John Bradley, of Kelly's Cross. After breakfast at the Revere, served in Mrs. Brown's dainty style, the happy couple drove to the residence of the bride's father, New Haven, where a number of friends met them with hearty congratulations. Here the time passed pleasantly in social converse till luncheon was served, after which Mr. and Mrs. Murphy, accompanied by several friends, proceeded to their home at Brookvale where a large number of invited guests were assembled to offer their congratulations, and heartily welcome the fair bride to her new home. Needless to say the company was royally entertained by the happy bridegroom. The evening was passed in music, speeches, song and dance, and all went merrily as a marriage bell till the wee sma' hours of the morning stole upon them bidding them say farewell. All regretted that the hours had so swiftly sped, and took their leave with fervent wishes for the health and happiness of Mr. and Mrs. Murphy. THE EXAMINER joins in the congratulations.

Show day at Patons on Thursday.

Miss E E Ernst, graduate optician, on account of her annual trip to Summerside will be absent from Charlottetown till 9th inst., but will be at her office at Captain Samuel McRae's, corner Kent and Queen Streets, Charlottetown, on 11th and 12th inst.

A Great Change in the Style of Furs.

This season makes a distinctly new style in Furs—in fact we do not remember having ever before offered anything in the least like the new ideas in Muffs and Collars. There is one word that will convey any idea of them and that is

STYLE.

Some ladies may think the change too startling, but we think the majority will agree with us that a more beautiful range of goods was never before offered them. Our illustration gives a good idea of one of the many novelties. We invite you to see our exhibit of these pretty goods in our Fur Room which is now at its best.
