

length gown of white lace over satin with a lace jacket and a finger tip veil falling from a crown encrusted with pearls, rhinestones and sequins. She carried a bouquet of red and white roses.

She was attended by her sister Mrs. Leonard Trueman as matron of honor and Miss Joyce Dingwell, sister of the groom, as bridesmaid. Mrs. Trueman wore blue nylon net over taffeta and Miss Dingwell a similar gown of shrimp pink net over taffeta. They carried bouquets of carnations in matching colors.

The groom was attended by his friend Mr. Whitney Saville, formerly of Bay Fortune, P.E.I. Mr. Leonard Trueman, brother-in-law of the bride was in attendance.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Gee chose a gown of blue lace over taffeta with white accessories and wore a corsage of yellow rosebuds.

The groom's mother wore yellow flowered nylon with matching accessories and wore a corsage of yellow rosebuds.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Prince Arthur House for twenty-five invited guests.

The toast to the bride was proposed by Dr. Hunter and responded to by the groom. A three tier wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom was cut in the traditional manner by the bride and groom.

For a honeymoon trip to P. E.I. the bride wore a light blue flecked suit with white accessories. While on P.E.I. Mr. and Mrs. Dingwell were tendered a miscellaneous shower in the hall at Fortune Bridge where they received many useful and lovely gifts.

They will reside in Toronto, where the groom is employed by
