In her report the President thanked the Reverend Director, for his assistance and kind advice given during the year, also the executive and members for their co-operation. She gave a detailed account of the splendid work done during her term of office, a year which was a very successful one, as was shown by the Treasurer who in her report showed that the League had to its credit in the bank $924.81. $900 of this amount was presented to the pastor as a donation to help with the decorating of the interior of the church. The secretary gave her report. Father MacCormac thanked all the members and expressed much satisfaction for the work done. He encouraged even greater action during the coming year and asked that a greater effort be made to attend the C. W. L. meetings. He asked also that as many as possible attend the Retreat to be held in Notre Dame in July.

The following slate of officers were elected by ballot for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. Mat-thias Murray (re-elected); 1st vice pres. Mrs. F. J. Trainor (re-elected); 2nd Vice President, Mrs.

BRACKLEY - COVEHEAD W.M.S.

The W. M. S. of Brackley and Covehead met at the home of Mrs. Leith MacKinnon with an attendance of nine members and two visitors. Mrs. Leith MacKinnon was in charge of the meeting, which opened with "Jesus Shall Reign", followed by responsive reading from Mark 10 and Matthew 6. "The Lord's Prayer" was repeated in unison. Mrs. Ramsey Auld read a poem "To My Son". The hymn "Jesus Calls Us" was sung. Mrs. Chesley Hughes read a story, "Little Funny Face", telling about an orphan girl in Korea.

The roll call was answered and the minutes read and corrections made. Roll call for next meeting to be answered with a Scripture verse beginning with the letter "O".

Discussion followed on the work of the Mission Band, which is under the supervision of Mrs. Ramsey Auld and Mrs. Bert Reed, also it was decided to leave quilting the autograph quilt till the fall. The collection amounted to $1.95. A dainty lunch was served by the hostess and a social hour was enjoyed.

CENTRAL ROYALTY W. M. S.

The W. M. S. of the Central Christian Church, Charlottetown, held their May meeting at the home of Mrs. Henry MacLaren on May 7th. The president, Mrs. Lillian Baker, presided. Theme: "Where the Spirit of the Lord is". Opening hymn, "Nearer My God To Thee". The president read the opening thought taken from James 1:12.

The remainder of the worship service was taken from "World Call", conducted by the president and some of the members. Roll call was answered by Scripture verse or Bible question. Fourteen members were present.

Following the offertory a special Mother's Day programme was carried out, comprising a trio by Mrs. L. Campbell, Mrs. Dunbar and Mrs. M. Carter; readings by the following: Mrs. Houston, Mrs. Webb, Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Carter, Mrs. Grant, Mrs. Baker, Mrs. Parker and Mrs. MacLaren; prayer by Mrs. Dunbar.

At the close of Mother's Day programme a period was spent in a Bible Quiz. Some correspondence was read by the president and passed to the secretary to attend to.

The June meeting is to be at the home of Mrs. Herbert Platts. Closing hymn, "God Will Take Care of You", followed by Benediction.

A delicious lunch was served by the hostess.

BUNBURY W. M. S.

The regular monthly meeting of the Bunbury W. M. S. was held at the home of Mrs. Leslie MacDonald on Wednesday afternoon, May 3rd.

The president, Mrs. Tait, was in charge of the worship period, taking as her theme, "Christ's Highway to Peace".

The meeting opened with the hymn, "When I Survey the Wondrous Cross", after which the Scripture lesson was read by Mrs. Leslie MacDonald. A short reading was then given by Mrs. Tait, followed by prayer led by Mrs. George Mason, at the close of which Mrs. Weir very softly and prayerfully sang a solo, asking that it be considered a continuation of the prayer. Mrs. Tait then spoke briefly on the great needs of the starving peoples of the world today, stressing the point that all can and should help in some way to relieve these conditions. These facts were taken from the program leaflet, "How We Can Work For Peace Through Helping to Feed the Hungry".

The business period was conducted in the usual manner, and it was brought to the attention of the meeting that the allocation is $200 and not $200 as previously reported.

A letter from the Presbyterial Community Friendship Secretary was read by Mrs. Raymond MacDonald. A letter from the Presbyterial Supply Secretary was also read. Christmas cards to be sent to Trinidad were brought in by members. It was moved and sec-

MEADOW BANK MISSION BAND

The Meadow Bank members of Cornwall Mission Band held their May meeting in the school-room. Meeting opened with repeating the Member's Purpose, followed with the "Lord's Prayer" in unison. Scripture reading by Ruth MacPhail. The roll was called by Shirley Jewell and minutes of last meeting read. Miriam Hyde gave the treasurer's report.

The study-book was conducted by Mrs. S. H. Drake. The collection was received by Vivian Drake while the members sang "Hear the Pennies Dropping." Recitations by Vivian Drake and Verne MacPhail. Meeting closed with singing "Jesus Loves Me" and benediction by Mrs. Murray. Cake and candy was served.

KINGSTON UNITED CHURCH W. M. S.

The May meeting of the Kingston United Church Woman's Missionary Society met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Heber Barrett. The meeting opened with hymn "Take Time To Be Holy," followed by Scripture reading taken from St. John 14 chapter. The theme of the meeting was, "How we can work for Peace—through helping to feed the hungry."

The program from the Monthly was carried out with all members taking part. Reading on Christian Stewardship was given by Mrs. Edgar Newson. A poem was read by Mrs. Earl Willis. Mrs. Willard Proud led in prayer, followed by the Lord's Prayer in unison.

The business part of the meeting was carried out by the president. Minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved, followed by the roll call, answered by 18 members and one visitor who was present.

Collection was taken amounting to $2.50; friendship fund, 58c.

Mrs. Bert Willis invited members to her home for the next meeting. Lunch committee, Mrs. Elmer Younker, Mrs. Bert Willis and Mrs. May Willis.

It was decided to start making ended that at the next meeting a box of clothing be packed for overseas.

The president then extended a very cordial welcome to the guest speaker Miss Mabel Newsome, who told of her work in the coke oven district in Sydney, giving a vivid picture of the great work being done by those working on the home mission fields and impressing those present by her account of the varied activities carried out at these missions, showing the great need of these little groups of people for the Christian Message and of the wonderful response by them to the Christian teachings.

At the close of Miss Newsome's address, prayer for all missionaries was offered by Mrs. S. Scranton, remembering especially our missionaries for prayer, Miss Enman and Miss Morson.

The meeting closed with the Mizpah Benediction, after which a lovely lunch was served by Mrs. MacDonald assisted by several of the ladies.

Bakes Prize-Winning Bread For St. Stephen Fair

Feeding husky appetites on the farm means plenty of baking for Mrs. Hazen Russell, of Moores Mills, N.B. And at the St. Stephen Fair, Mrs. Russell's bread and rolls are plentifully decorated with prize-winning tags. Of course she knows a few things about ingredients! "I'm extra careful about my yeast," says Mrs. Russell.

"For going on twenty years I've been using Fleischmann's Yeast. I know I can depend on it—it's always good and lively."

It's true! Fleischmann's Yeast is made extra active to rise extra fast—to give you grand results every time. No wonder the majority of prize-winning cooks in the Maritimes prefer Fleischmann's!
