At the Stipendiary Magistrate's Court, this forenoon, John Doyle—16 years of age—appeared on charge of larceny. John is a street Arab, who has stolen a large number of articles from vehicles standing at the market. He was remanded 8 days. John Goodnow appeared on complaint of his father for being drunk and incapable. He was fined $2 and costs or 8 days, and warned that on his next appearance on complaint of his father he would be fined heavily or bound to keep the peace.

A PORTRAIT of Deputy-Sheriff Curtis is on exhibition in the ante-room of the House of Assembly. The artist has shown considerable skill in bringing out the lineaments of the face so as to give an exact likeness of the original. We do not consider ourselves competent judges of shading, but will venture the opinion that, if the color had been heightened somewhat, the likeness would be more perceptible and the picture more valuable. As it is, we have much pleasure in complimenting both Sheriff Curtis and the talented artist, Mr. G. W. Millner, upon the fine picture exhibited. We have no doubt that Mr. Millner would reach a high degree of perfection in his art if he had more numerous opportunities of engaging in portrait painting.

Departure of J. H. Fletcher, Esq.

PREVIOUS to Mr. Fletcher's departure from this city for Colorado, he was the recipient of the following address from the citizens of Charlottetown:—

ADDRESS:

CHARLOTTETOWN, P. E. ISLAND,
22nd May, 1879.

To James H. Fletcher, Esq., Editor "Island Argus":—

DEAR SIR,—Having heard that you are about to leave this Province, we the undersigned, citizens of Charlottetown, desire to express our regret at your departure, and to bear testimony to the esteem in which you are held, both as a journalist and a citizen. Some of us may have differed from you in opinion respecting questions which have from time to time agitated the public mind; but we all admire the fearless, independent and outspoken manner in which you have discussed important matters affecting the interests of this country. Of your moral character we entertain the highest opinion, and trust that in the country of your adoption you may enjoy the confidence of its people to an extent equal to that accorded to you in this your native land.

Be assured, dear Sir, that wherever you may reside we shall cherish the warmest remembrance of you, and be at all times pleased to hear of your prosperity:—
