Gamble - Phillipson Wedding

Standards of autumn flowers against a background of ferns formed the floral setting for a pretty wedding in Trinity United Church, Summerside, on the afternoon of Wednesday, October 10th, at which Ann Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Phillipson, exchanged marriage vows with Walter Elmer Gamble, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Elmer Gamble of North Tryon. Rev. K. G. Sullivan, M.A., B.D., performed the ceremony and Miss Mary Goldhart, organist, was in charge of the wedding music. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a floor length gown of satin and lace featuring a fitted bodice, long sleeves and bouffant skirt. Her finger tip lace edged veil was held in place with a coronet of satin and seed pearls and she carried a shower bouquet of yellow mums. Miss Mary Gamble, her sister-in-law's attendant, was gowned in Nile green taffeta and her headress was a matching bandeau with floral trim. She carried a bouquet of mauve mums. Mr. Douglas Stultz of Saint John, N. B., was groomsmen and the ushers were Messrs. Davis Murphy and Kenneth Henderson. Mrs. Phillipson chose for her daughter's wedding a gown of emerald green with black accessories and she wore a corsage of pink carnations. The groom's mother was attired in a dress of black crepe with lace overskirt and black accessories and a corsage of crimson flowers. Following the ceremony a reception for thirty five guests was held at Epworth Hall, where the Trinity Social Club catered. The bride's table, with its artistic arrangement of garden flowers and lighted tapers was centered with a three tier wedding cake topped with a wedding bell. Mr. and Mrs. Gamble left by automobile on a wedding trip to the United States, the bride travelling in a suit of silver mist gauding with green and black accessories and a corsage of yellow mums. On return they will reside in North Tryon. Among the out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Louis Mabey, Saint John, N. B., Mr. and Mrs. Lee Gamble of Amherst, N. S., Mr. and Mrs. Earl Burke, Southport, Mr. and Mrs. Alton Rodd, Milton, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Tombs, Tryon, Mr. and Mrs. George Mackay, Albany, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Keizer and Mr. and Mrs. Emily Keizer of Charlottetown, S.

"It shouldn't make you feel sad," said Peter. "It makes me feel sad." "It shouldn't make you feel sad, it should make you feel glad," declared Mrs. Peter. "Wherever a leaf falls, there is another leaf wrapped up ready for next spring, and if that isn't a good reason for gladness, I don't know what is. There is sadness in saying goodbye to many of our friends going away for the winter, but with that sadness is the gladness that we know will be ours when they come back. Never forget that," said Mrs. Peter earnestly.

POULTRY

LOADING LIVE POULTRY TUESDAY, OCTOBER 16 8 A.M. to 1 P.M.

Buying exactly on the merit of your product. If you take a pride in your poultry give us a call.

For the past two months I have tried to convince the Wholesale Trade that buying good, bad and indifferent poultry at approximately the same price would sooner or later end in disaster.

Please back me up on this issue. Top grade poultry should get a break any time now. One man cannot accomplish very much alone.
