Mrs. George Walsh and daughter Grace, also Mrs. Horace Lidstone, Mrs. L. A. Bureleigh and Mrs. Pearl MacGovern were visitors to Charlottetown on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Morrison and daughter Kathleen were visitors to Summerside on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Colin Hutchinson, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Waite, motored to Summerside on Sunday.

Mrs. Aldred England spent the week-end visiting with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Hall, Summerside.

Mr. and Mrs. Wendall Phillips, accompanied by Harry Gillis motored to Summerside on Saturday evening.

Mrs. Ralph Lord of St. Andrews, N.B., is visiting her mother, Mrs. Leslie Morrison.

Mrs. Margaret Grant was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Helen Milligan, Summerside, on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Milligan and Mr. and Mrs. George Ford attended the funeral of the late John Keigles on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Millar and children Wyman and Audrey, accompanied by Mrs. Mark White, Summerside, attended the play "The Meddlesome Maid" in the L.O.L. Hall on Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Simmons, Mrs. Samuel Simmons and Misses Ruth Simmons and Alma Corney, Summerside, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gillis on Sunday.

Miss Grace Walsh, accompanied by Mrs. Horace Lidstone, Tyne Valley, left on Monday evening for Farmington, Mass. U. S. A. after receiving word that her uncle, Mr. Frank Walsh, had suffered a stroke. His many friends here trust that his condition is not serious and hope for his speedy recovery to health.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Millar, accompanied by Mrs. Byron Ramsay and son James, and Gordie Millar Jr., motored to Charlottetown on Saturday to visit with their daughter Rachel, who underwent a major operation at the Prince Edward Island Hospital on Friday. Her many friends here wish her a speedy recovery.

—Mr. and Mrs. Archibald MacGregor and son Ray motored to Arlington on Monday evening. Mrs. MacGregor and son remained with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Phillips for a few days and plans to accompany her father to Charlottetown on Tuesday to pay a professional call on Dr. Lantz as Ray has had three rather serious attacks of mastoiditis recently, and during the past week was a patient in the Prince County Hospital, Summerside, for four days. Their many friends hope the cause of the infection may be located and that their eight-month-old son will be completely recovered soon.

Mrs. James Bureleigh entertained the members of the Ellerslie Women's Institute on Tuesday evening. There was a large number of members and visitors present. Mrs. Burton Bureleigh, the president, presided. Meeting opened with the Institute Ode, and reading the Creed in unison. Roll call was followed by minutes of previous meeting which were read and approved, and correspondence dealt with. Various points of business were discussed. Refreshment committee for next meeting was appointed at the close of the meeting. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess and members of the refreshment committee.

The players of the Bideford United Ladies' Aid presented their three-act comedy, "The Meddlesome Maid", before a very large and appreciative audience on Thursday evening in the L. O. L. Hall at Ellerslie. It was one of the best plays ever presented here, with plenty of laughs, thrills and suspense from start to finish, with each and every person performing his or her part to perfection. Mrs. Bertram Phillips had the misfortune to fall victim to the flu on the day the play was to be presented, but despite this she performed her part as Mrs. Margaret Winthrop to perfection. The cast of characters were:

Robert White, Bertram Phillips; Dolly Darling, his fiancée, Jean Millar; Charlie Winthrop, Robert's friend, Kenneth MacNevin; Margaret Winthrop, his wife, Daisy Phillips; Carlyle Howard, a salesman, Melvin Hutchinson; Sam Bryant, a chauffeur; Ernest Paynter; Edna Powell, a maid; Glenn Paynter; Mrs. Fraser; a friend of Sam's, Evelyn MacNevin; Mrs. Rita Griffin, a young wife, Jeanette Ogden; Richard O'Neil, a plain clothesman, Earl Coughlin.

The entire scene takes place in the living-room of the Winthrop home in a summer resort town. Rev. B. H. Baxter was chairman for the occasion, and intermission was supplied by the talented Paynter children. Catherine ten, sang two solos, accompanied by Mrs. Baxter on the organ; and Carmen, seven, played two tunes on the mouth organ, accompanied by Earl Coughlin on the guitar. Messrs. Kenneth MacNevin and Bertram Phillips sang two duets and on the third encore sang a short comedy piece that gave the audience a good laugh. The applause was heart-warming to the players and to the directors, Mrs. Ivan Millar and Mrs. E. B. MacNevin. There was a sale of candy by the Ladies' Aid.

Breadalbane and Vicinity

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Newson and family, Summerside, were visitors to Breadalbane last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Robertson recently moved from Rustico to their newly purchased home in Breadalbane. Their friends and neighbors here wish them happiness and prosperity.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Newson Breadalbane, were guests during the week-end of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Newson, Kingston.

Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Hedley Woodsie, Breadalbane Village, on the death of her mother, Mrs. Mary Warren of Clinton, at the Prince County Hospital.

On May the fifteenth friends learned with regret that Mr. John D. Nicholson, Hartsville, had passed away in his ninetieth year. Sincere sympathy is extended to Mrs. Nicholson and all the family.

Friends regret to learn of the sudden illness of Rev. P. L. Richardson, pastor of the Christian Church, Breadalbane Village. Mr. Richardson suffered a heart attack shortly after conducting the morning service in the New Glasgow Christian Church on May the thirteenth. All sincerely wish him a complete and speedy recovery.

The Young People's Society of the Breadalbane United Church held a variety concert in the Breadalbane Village Hall on Friday, May the eleventh. A good program of dialogues, choruses and instrumental music was presented to a large audience.

An unusual and interesting sight appeared in Breadalbane last Monday morning, when the little white house belonging to Mr. Robert T. Barlow was moved by a bulldozer from the western extremity of the Breadalbane district, down the road and through the village approximately three miles to a new location on the Malpeque Road. What difficult labor and time would have been involved in this undertaking some years ago!

Mrs. Alex. MacDonald, the genial and obliging librarian of the Breadalbane branch of the Carnegie Library, recently retired, after fifteen years of faithful service to this community. She has been succeeded by Mrs. Robert MacKay, Breadalbane.

Mrs. Philip Goatcher, Montreal, who is spending a vacation in Fredericton and Montague, Prince Edward Island, was a recent visitor to Breadalbane. Mrs. Goatcher, who is making her first visit to the island is much impressed with the beauty of the scenery which reminds her of her native land, England.

On Wednesday evening, after word had been received that according to a recount of the ballots, Mr. Frank Myers had been elected to represent the First District of Queens, a considerable number of friends from this district and many others from the surrounding districts assembled at the home of Mr. Myers, Crapaud, to extend congratulations and to enjoy a pleasant evening of speeches, songs and instrumental music.

Sympathy is also extended to the family of the late Mrs. Angus Matheson, Springfield. Both these elderly ladies, Mrs. Warren and Mrs. Matheson, were accustomed to calling themselves "twins", be-son; Sam Bryant, a chauffeur; Ernest Paynter; Edna Powell, a maid; Glenn Paynter; Mrs. Fraser; a friend of Sam's, Evelyn MacNevin; Mrs. Rita Griffin, a young wife, Jeanette Ogden; Richard O'Neil, a plain clothesman, Earl Coughlin.

The entire scene takes place in the living-room of the Winthrop home in a summer resort town. Rev. B. H. Baxter was chairman for the occasion, and intermission was supplied by the talented Paynter children. The home of Mr. and Mrs. George Jardine was the scene of a large gathering recently when friends and neighbors gathered to bid their farewells to their new home.

cause they had the same birthday. By a strange coincidence, both passed away on the same date, "Mother's Day", May the thirteenth.

A Mother's Day service was held in the United Church, Breadalbane on Sunday evening, May the thirteenth. Rev. W. B. MacPhail read the twenty-first chapter of Proverbs and chose as his subject "The Best Mother on Prince Edward Island." Many different answers could be given to this question. Some would say, the mother who teaches her children the social graces; the mother who provides the best material possessions for her children; the mother who sees that her children are given a good education; or the mother who gives her children for a lifetime of work in the church. All of these are good, but the latter part of the thirteenth verse states "a woman that feareth the Lord shall be praised." Therefore the mother who teaches her children to pray, to read the sacred word and love and serve the Lord, is the "best mother." The hymns sung were: "Pass Me Not," "Jesus Loves Me," and "Happy the Home." Mrs. Alex. MacDonald was the organist.

Mrs. Angus Gillis was hostess to the Breadalbane Village Institute on Monday evening, May the fourteenth. As the regular president was absent, Mrs. William Graham presided. After the meeting was opened with the singing of the Ode, the Creed was repeated in unison. Mrs. Stanford Glover, the secretary, called the roll. The reports of the committees included the display of gifts for a bereaved friend. The following new committees were appointed: School — Mrs. Lawrence Newson and Mrs. Elton Somers; Lunch — Mrs. Millage MacLeod, Mrs. William Graham and Mrs. Stirling Nicholson; Sick — Mrs. Angus Gillis and Mrs. Millage MacLeod. A good deal of correspondence was read including some useful garden hints, and an appeal from the Salvation Army. To the latter the members responded by voting a donation of five dollars. A new member was welcomed at this meeting. Mrs. Bruce Somers invited the members to her home for the next meeting in June, when the roll call will be answered by each member presenting a rose. The purpose is to see how many varieties of roses are grown in this vicinity. During the social hour a dainty lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by the lunch committee.

Miss Minnie Drummond of South Freetown spent Thursday in Freetown Village at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edison Dammarell.

Miss Heather Lantz of Charlottetown visited in Freetown, guest of her friend Miss Katherine Aust.

Mrs. Austin Scales, Freetown, and Mrs. Doris Toombs of Summerside returned on Tuesday from an enjoyable motor trip to Wolfville and Halifax, N.S. While in Wolfville they attended the closing exercises of Horton Academy, where Mrs. Toombs' son Garth received his diploma.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lightbody of North Anson, Maine, who spent a week recently in Freetown visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Hubert McNeill, returned to their home on Thursday. They were accompanied by their cousin, Mrs. Harry Hecker and daughter Christine of Summerside, who will spend some time visiting in Maine.

Friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Simmons gathered at the Simmons home in Upper Freetown on Friday evening to bid them farewell on the eve of their departure to their new home in Summerside. As a token of their esteem and friendship Freetown neighbors presented them with a beautiful chair and trillium, and Marcia and David with a rocking chair each. Freetown sincerely regrets losing this family from the community, and all good wishes go with them to their new home.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. George Jardine was the scene of a large gathering recently when friends and neighbors gathered to bid their farewells to their new home in Red Rock, Ontario, where her son, Dr. Allison Deacon, Mrs. Deacon and family are locating. Mrs. Deacon was the recipient of several beautiful gifts, testifying to the high esteem in which she has always been held in the community. Mr. John Profit was appointed chairman for the occasion and after a few brief remarks called on Mr. Louis Cairns who read an address expressing the appreciation of the people for the help Mrs. Deacon has always given in all community and church work, and the regret that is felt at her departure. Following the address, a presentation of a wrist watch, a billfold and a sum of money was presented by Mr. Wilbert Drummond on behalf of the community. Mrs. Austin Rogers then read an address representing Birch Grove Women's Institute and a presentation of jeweled earrings was made by Mrs. Ralph R. Burns. Following this, Mrs. Austin Rogers, representing the W. C. T. U., read an address and a beautiful pendant was presented by Mrs. E. S. Dammarell from the members of Freetown W. C. T. U. The remainder of the evening was spent in music, the sing-song being led by Mr. J. B. Lewis. Lunch was served by the ladies present.

LITTLE POND W. I.

The regular monthly meeting of the Little Pond Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Allan McKenzie with nine members present. Meeting opened with the "Ode". Roll call was answered by exchange of seeds. Minutes of last meeting were read, approved and signed. Committees were heard from and new ones appointed.

Correspondence was read and it was decided to send a donation to the Salvation Army. A treat was sent to a young man from the district who has been in the hospital in Ontario for seven months as the result of an accident. Another treat is to be sent to another young man who had the misfortune of meeting with an accident also in Ontario before Christmas, and who is still in hospital.

The members discussed having the school grounds fenced as the next step towards improvements. Copies of the Institute News were distributed and discussed.

Next meeting is to be held in the school.

Meeting closed by singing "God Save the King". A lovely lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Josie McKenzie, and a very enjoyable social hour followed.
