MOORE-- & -- McLEOD,

LATEST FROM SOUTH AFRICA.

Gen. Buller Retreats to Line of Tugela.

BOER POSITIONS SAID TO BE TOO STRONG.

How the News Was Received in London.

What Mr. Balfour said in the Commons—Canadians Detained at Graspan—General Macdonald's Retirement—What the next Move will be—General Hutton to go to South Africa.

SPECIAL DESPATCH TO THE EXAMINER.

BULLER RETREATS AGAIN.

LONDON, Feb. 10.—General Buller has abandoned his third attempt to reach Ladysmith and has retired behind the line of the Tugela.
A despatch from Bennett Burleigh to the Daily Telegraph, dated Springfield Bridge, Thursday night, states that the Boer positions were too strong for Buller's force and that the General decided not to persist in trying to advance by way of Vaal Krantz.

NEWS IN LONDON.

LONDON, Feb. 10.—London accepts as true the Boer statements that General Buller has failed again.
These statements were passed by the British censor at Aden and are read in the light of Mr. Balfour's announcement in the House of Commons that General Buller is not pressing his advance.
Winston Churchill wires that Vaal Krantz impracticable for the guns which were needed to support a further advance. His cablegram leaves Gen. Buller on Tuesday night sending a fresh brigade to relieve the tired holders of Vaal Krantz.

MR. BALFOUR'S STATEMENT.

LONDON, Feb. 10.—Mr. Balfour, government leader, replying to a question in the House of Commons as to whether any information had been received from the seat of war, said: "Our information points to the fact that General Buller is not pressing the advance from the position he has occupied."
"We do not consider it right to press for details of the operations which are in progress, nor if he gives such information do we deem it proper to make this public until such operations are completed."
"The government has no information as to whether or not General Macdonald has retired."

CANADIANS DETAINED.

TORONTO, Feb. 10.—Frederick Hamilton, the Globe's war correspondent, cabling from Belmont, says that the Canadians who left here a few days ago under orders to proceed to the front have been unexpectedly detained at Graspan.

McDONALD'S RETIREMENT.

LONDON, Feb. 10.—The Times correspondent confirms the statement that orders were received on Thursday for General Macdonald's whole force to retire to the Modder river, and adds the startling information that the position was easily tenable.

He does not pretend to understand the meaning of the order to retire, which, however, has not yet been reported.

THE NEXT MOVEMENT.

LONDON, Feb. 10.—Charles Williams, the military writer, who is understood to be in confidential relations with Lord Wolseley, says that, beyond a doubt the most authoritative opinion in London regards it as probable that an endeavor will be made to force the line of the Orange river before Wednesday next, possibly by Monday.

HUTTON GOES TO AFRICA.

OTTAWA, Feb. 10.—It is officially announced that General Hutton has been selected by the War Office for special service in South Africa. This involves the relinquishment by him of his command of the Canadian Militia.

BOERS IN ZULULAND.

PETERMARITZBURG, Feb. 10.—The position in Zululand is daily becoming more acute. Following up their seizure of Ngutu, the Boers have invaded Nkandhla and are boasting that they will march on Eshowe and from there to Durban.

The Governor of Natal has made every endeavor to restrain the Zulus from rising against the invaders of the province. It is impossible to say how far these efforts will be successful.

British Parliament.

[SPECIAL TO THE EXAMINER.]

LONDON, Feb. 10.—The address in reply to the Queen's Speech was adopted yesterday by a vote of 229 against 59.

Will Return the Gold.

DURBAN, Natal, Feb. 8.—The prize court here has decided to return £25,000 in gold belonging to the Transvaal National Bank which was seized on the steamship Avondale Castle last October. The bank was transferring the gold from Durban to its branch at Delagoa Bay.

Prayer Meetings in Ladysmith.

LONDON, Feb. 8.—According to the Rev. R. W. Allen, senior Wesleyan army chaplain, prayer meetings have been for some time a daily feature in besieged Ladysmith. Over a thousand men attend then regularly, and Sir George White is often present. The Rev. Owen S. Watkins, Wesleyan chaplain, is among those shut up in the town.

Minard's Liniment Cures Burns & Scalds

SECOND EDITION.

HE WILL TRY AGAIN.

LONDON, Feb. 10.—A despatch from Spearman, Camp, dated Feb. 9th, says: "General Buller's retirement was merely temporary, owing to a determination to change tactics."

The force, it is added, will resume operations.
The casualties were mostly slight wounds.

THE THIRD RETIREMENT

LONDON, Feb. 10.—A despatch to the London Times from Springfield Bridge, dated Feb. 9th, says: "Our force at Vaal Krantz has entrenched itself as well as possible. But never the less we continued to lose men, and no advance was made."

The Boer artillery fired incessantly, and as Wednesday proceeded it was increasingly apparent that although the infantry might, by a very determined assault force its way through the centre of the Boer position, it would become impossible, during subsequent operations, to maintain the security of the lines of communication, and an evacuation was decided upon.

Retirement commenced at 9 o'clock a night, the pontoon bridge being removed after General Hildyard's force had crossed this morning. The whole force retired beyond the range of the Boer guns which continued shelling.

WHAT MORE CAN WE DO ?

[SPECIAL TO THE EXAMINER.]

OTTAWA, Feb. 10.—In the House of Commons yesterday, Hon. Mr. Borden, in reply to Mr. McNeill, stated that the Government had decided to offer the Imperial Government a garrison for Halifax in case the Imperial garrison were withdrawn. The announcement was received with cheers from both sides; and Mr. McNeill expressed his gratification that the course he had urged upon the Government had been adopted.

He would, however, urge on both sides that the House should now consider what further could be done to help the Empire in the present grave condition of affairs. He recommended that the leaders of both sides should consult over the matter and try to arrive at something adequate to the present emergency.

Thanks to the Greeks.

ATHENS, Feb. 8.—Sir Edwin H. Egerton, the British Minister, has written to the Romanos warmly thanking, on behalf of the Queen, the Greek nation for its friendly feeling toward Great Britain throughout the South African war.
