HIS TRAIL MOVED

Richard Speck, observed courtroom proceedings during appearance yesterday in Chicago. The trial of Speck, who is charged with killing eight student nurses in Chicago, was transferred to Peoria by Judge Herbert C. Paschen of Circuit Court. The transfer was made at the request of the defense. (AP Wirephoto)

OBITUARY

WILLIAM W. COLWILL
Inscribed by the family
On September 26, 1966 the people of Kingston and surrounding districts were saddened to hear of the death of William W. Colwill which occurred at the Prince Edward Island Hospital.

Although not enjoying the best of health for the past several months his passing came as a shock to his family and friends.

Born at Elmwood December 6, 1897, the son of the late Nicholas and Mary (Newman) Colwill.

In 1915 he married Catherine Ferguson of Hampton and moved to Kingston where he farmed until the time of his passing. He was a faithful attendant of the Kingston United Church.

Besides his surviving wife he leaves to mourn two sons and one daughter: Stewart, Kingston; Elmer, Elmwood and Edna (Mrs. William Livingston) Clyde River. Two daughters died in infancy. He also leaves five grandchildren: Joyce Colwill, David, Brian, Alan and Lewis Livingston whom he dearly loved. Also surviving is one brother, John, Elmwood. He was predeceased by two brothers, Wesley and Septimus and a sister, Jane, Mrs. George Green.

His funeral was held on Thursday, September 29 from the Catholic Funeral Home. Service was conducted by Rev. F. Lloyd assisted by Rev. Gillis and Rev. T.R. Howard. Hymns sung were "The Lord is My Shepherd" and "Abide With Me." The organist was Mrs. Elmer Yee. The flower bearers were Neil Campbell, Lyman Newson, Eric MacKinnon, Clifford Green, Milton Docherty, Donald Campbell-Pallbearers were John Buchanan, Elmer Younker, Leo Gallant, Gordon Docherty, Heber Campbell and Tryon Holmes. Interment in Kingston United Church cemetery.

Floral tributes were: Pillow - Wife and Family; was transferred to Peoria by Judge Herbert C. Paschen of Circuit Court. The transfer was made at the request of the defense. (AP Wirephoto)

CARE OF THANKS
The wife and family of the late William W. Colwill wish to extend their heartfelt thanks to Dr's MacLeod, Laidlaw and Roberts, nurses and staff of Prince Edward Island Hospital, the Catholic Funeral Home, Rev. Lloyd, Rev. Gillis, Rev. T.W. Howard, Rev. Ross Howard, the pallbearers, flowerbearers, organist Mrs. Elmer Yee and all who gave flowers, hymn books, Bibles and cards of sympathy. Also to the friends, neighbours and relatives who helped in so many ways in our time of bereavement. A sincere thank you to all.

CZECHS DENOUNCE MAD
VIENNA (AP) — The Czech Communist Party Tuesday condemned Party Chairman Mao Tse-tung of China, for the first time accusing him of discrediting Marxism - Leninism. The Czechoslovak news agency CTX said a central committee resolution also called for a world conference to seek unity in the Communist movement.

CATTLE MAN ROBBED
LUSKVILLE, Que. (CP) — Two armed men escaped with an unknown amount of cash in a robbery Tuesday after tying cattle breeder Wesley Bradley and his wife to chairs in their home. Roy Lusk, a neighbor who dropped in to see the Bradleys, was greeted by the bandits and lost $149 in cash. Police would not say how much money was involved.
