Haggard's much abused ditch is a good work in several respects.—Montreal Gazette.

ANOTHER INTERESTING DISCOURSE—There was a large and deeply-interested audience at Miss Ben-Oliel's lecture in the Baptist Church last evening. Her subject was "The Coming of Christ in Relation to the Jews," and it was well handled. At the close of her discourse Miss Ben-Oliel was tendered a hearty vote of thanks. This afternoon Miss Ben Oliel gives an address in the schoolroom of the First Methodist Church, the subject of which will be "The Daughters of America."

A LARGE FUNERAL.—One of the largest funerals seen in that city for some time was that of the late James Scott, of Queen Street, Halifax, on Sunday afternoon. The large concourse of citizens present at his obsequies testified to the high esteem in which the deceased was held in the community. The coffin was loaded with floral tributes, and many others were brought to be deposited on the grave. Impressive funeral services were conducted in the cemetery by Rev. Drs. Forrest and Currie.

AN ISLANDER BURNED OUT.—A gentleman in Boston, writing to THE EXAMINER, says: "Mr. Gay Smallwood's blacksmith shop and rooms at Cambridge, Mass., were destroyed by fire on Saturday evening last, while Mr. Smallwood was at work. He, with a couple of friends who were present, tried their best to save the household effects and the stock in the shop, but they were almost suffocated with smoke in the attempt. All was lost excepting some clothing, as the fire had made great headway in the rear before being discovered. Among other things Mr. Smallwood lost a valuable piano, and an elegant parlor suit, besides his stock. All the insurance he had was $200 on the stock. The fire was caused by a spark from a passing locomotive. Mr. Smallwood has the sympathy of his many friends."

THIS MORNING'S WEDDINGS.

THIS morning witnessed the marriage of Miss Maud Batt, daughter of Mr. William H. Batt, one of our pioneer steamship owners, to Mr. Daniel W. Finlayson, an enterprising merchant, and one of the most popular of the younger citizens of Charlottetown. The wedding ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Hamlyn, Rector of St Paul's Episcopal Church, at the residence of the bride's parents, Water Street, and was witnessed by the immediate relatives of the contracting parties. The groom was supported by Mr. Charles E. McKinnon, while the bridesmaid was Miss Elizabeth Batt, the younger sister of the bride. After the ceremony the bride and groom and guests sat down to a wedding breakfast, at the conclusion of which Mr. and Mrs. Finlayson took the morning express en route to the mainland, where they intend passing a short honeymoon. The bride was beautifully attired in a travelling dress of navy blue cloth, with gold trimmings. She wore a hat of navy blue velvet, with blue and gold trimmings and held in her hand a handsome white boquet. The bridesmaid was very suitably and neatly dressed in fawn cloth, with brown velvet trimmings and brown and gold passementerie. The high esteem in which the bride is held by her many friends was clearly and practically shown by the large number of beautiful and useful presents she received. THE EXAMINER wishes both Mr. and Mrs. Finlayson much happiness and joy in their new life.

St. James' Church was also the scene of another wedding this morning, shortly after seven o'clock when Mr. Thomas B. Mothersill, the agent in this Province of the New York Life Association, led to the altar, Miss Maud Henderson, well known as one of Charlottetown's most popular young ladies. The officiating clergyman was the Rev. Thomas F. Fullerton, of St. James The floral decorations of the church were very fine, including palms, acacia, also festoons of autumn leaves and rowan berries—the work of the bride's friends. Mr. Herbert Henderson, of Sackville, acted as groomsman, and Miss Winnie Blake, attended the bride. Miss Henderson was also the recipient of many costly and beautiful presents, (including a handsome clock from the groom's fellow boarders at the Hotel Davies,) all shewing the friendship of her many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Mothersill took the morning train for the neighboring provinces on their wedding tour followed by the good wishes of their hosts of friends, in which THE EXAMINER joins.

Both wedding parties coalesced at the railway station and between the friends of both couples the scene before the train started was very animated.

THE Royal Arch and Blue Degrees will be conferred in St. George's Lodge tomorrow night. Members will attend at 7 o'clock if possible.

Blowing Their Horns!

Lots of people in our lines make a big blow on their horns to the old tunes of

"25 per cent. discount,"

"33⅓ per cent. discount,"

"No one can buy as cheap as we do,"

"No Furs like ours and the One Price Band," and lots of other such rubbish. Don't you believe it. Talk is cheap. Blow, brag and bluster may catch the ear of the buyer for a time, but it won't keep his trade.

The people who advertise in this way is to sell and not to satisfy. Their reputation is almost as good as the average circus—all promise and very little show. These are not methods of doing business. We believe in marking our goods at prices that will not allow big discounts. We are able to say, without "blowing," that our stock is CLEAN, FRESH and NEW; and although we had no big discount sale or collection of rubbish as a side show the past week, we were as busy as nailers, and our sales have been larger than ever. The public have confidence in our way of doing business, and that is

The highest salary paid to a governess is probably that received by Miss Etta Hughes, English governess to the young princess of the Austrias, sister of the late Queen of Spain. Miss Hughes receives $4,000 a year.

The death is announced at the age of 84 of Joseph Bell who was the first railway engine-driver in England, having had charge of the old Rocket, which is now on view in the South Kensington Museum.

Rev. J. Sinclair, of Bridgeville, N. S., accompanied by Rev. J. Murray and two daughters, from New Glasgow, N. S., left this morning in the St. Lawrence, en route home. They came here for the Synod, and remained over visiting friends in the western section of the Province.

The close friendship between Queen Victoria and ex-Empress Eugenie continues undiminished. Eugenie has taken up her residence at the castle of 'Arergeldie," which has been placed at her disposal by the Queen.

King Humbert learning that Queen Victoria is desirous of visiting Naples, has placed the palace of Cappo Di Monte at her disposal. An agent of the Queen has been sent from England to report the condition of the palace.

Madame Latourneau, of St. Pierre, Montmagny county, Quebec, who recently gave birth to triplets, has received the royal bounty of three guineas which the Queen usually grants in such cases.

Bishop McDonald has returned to the city from the west, where on Sunday morning he erected a beautiful Way of the Cross in Father Burke's fine church at Lot 7, and preached a powerful discourse on the Lord's Passion. There was an immense attendance. On Sunday evening His Lordship officiated at solemn Benediction in Sacred Heart Church, Alberton. The Rev. Father Gallant preached.

Everybody should like Celery. The taste for Celery has to be acquired. You remember that when Robinson Crusoe gave his man Friday salt to eat, he spit it out as something very disagreeable, but all the same salt is essentially beneficial to health. The taste for Celery is as readily acquired as any other food, and in no one article are there such medicinal properties found as in the Celery Paine's Celery Compound is a grand medicine, but why pay $1 for a bottle, when Gay & Son can give you as good an article in the shape of a bunch of Celery for 10 cts. new styles come with it, and every man in Charlottetown, with any idea of dress, comes to us for styles, as a matter of course. The best readymade suit is only a travesty of correctness. It isn't even a clever masquerade. Banish all readymade misfits from your wardrobe and get something stylish and handsome, produced to order and faultless in fit and correct in every detail of workmanship. We fit our customers. That's our rule and it stands, like rock bottom. The belated summer suit has now no place in the wear of the gentleman of style, who, if not already provided for the fall, makes no delay. We have now on hand a beautiful range of Fall and Winter Overcoats at prices to meet the demands of the times. Our stylish Suits seem to create sensation among the nobility of Charlottetown.
