WUSC Craft Sale

November 26, and the possible sponsorship of an Atlantic Canadian Symposium on Development issues next spring. In order to support these and other activities, we hope that everyone on campus will attend and buy handcrafts at a display next week. Handcrafts from all over the developing world will be visiting U.P.E.I.

The students who are members of the local WUSC Committee urge all people on campus to visit this fundraising event called "Foreign Lands"-- a travelling cultural experience and international craft sale.

By attending this exotic event, one will be able to feast on the sounds and sights of rare, beautiful music and colourful slide images from around the world. Canada's most interesting and eclectic "travelling" collection of handcrafted jewellery, clothing and art objects from roughly 30 developing nations will, however, be the main attraction.

Included in the vast array of crafts available at the fundraiser are: hats, belts, bags and tapestries from many Asian nations; wood carvings, masks and musical instruments from the Himalayas to the Island of Java; jewellery and richly embroidered or otherwise ornamented clothing from African cultures, the Americas and many other foreign lands.

To support U.P.E.I. WUSC, visit "Foreign Lands" any time from Tuesday, October 11 to Friday, October 14 between 10 am to 6 pm ('til 4 pm Friday) in the Library Breezeway, U.P.E.I.

If you want to join WUSC, please leave your name and phone number with Gale Taylor at Student Services, U.P.E.I. at 566-0423. Hope to see you at "Foreign Lands".

The U.P.E.I. WUSC Committee has been busy over the past couple of weeks. It has welcomed a new student to U.P.E.I. last week. Abdullah Ebrahim Saeed arrived on P.E.I. on October 5. Originally from Somalia, Mr. Saeed is the sixth refugee student sponsored by the local WUSC Committee in the past ten years. The local committee would like to thank the Student Union, the Administration, Marriott Foods and the U.P.E.I. Bookstore for making it financially feasible. With the co-operation of Mr. Blaine Jensen, residence staff and many others on campus, this project has been much easier for the local committee.

The local WUSC Committee also plans to send two U.P.E.I. students, Glenn Pound and Fidel Murphy, as delegates to the 48th Annual WUSC Assembly in Ottawa from October 13-16, 1994. This conference will highlight local committee skills-building and networking, a Development Conference day on the Future of Canadian Foreign Policy, and a discussion on the future directions for WUSC.

Future plans for the local WUSC Committee include a fundraiser at the Barn on

Theatre

Theatre Prince Edward Island, in partnership with Henderson & Cudmore Ltd., will present CLOTHES AND COMEDY, a special fundraising evening of fashions and theatrical entertainment. The event will be held on Wednesday, October 19th at 8 pm in the Georgian Room, Charlottetown Hotel.

The evening's hosts are David Moses and Rob MacDonald, a wacky duo well-known to Islanders from stage and television. A large number of actors and production staff are donating their time to contribute to the evening. The actors will model fashions from Henderson and Cudmore's stores: Charlotte's, The Haberdashery, Dave's Cave and Christopher's Beach Club. The evening will also feature special theatrical entertainment, some comic surprises, and attractive door prizes. Refreshments will be served, and a cash bar will be available.

This special evening will also provide the occasion for the official launch of Theatre P.E.I.'s newly published commemorative booklet, which recounts the organization's history and work since its inception in 1980. The booklet will be used especially for fundraising, and souvenir copies will be on sale.

Theatre P.E.I. serves the Island community, bringing many stage productions to school and public audiences. It also provides theatre resource and development services to individuals and groups across the province.

Tickets for CLOTHES AND COMEDY are $25 for adults, $20 for seniors and students. A charitable tax receipt will be issued for 80% of the ticket price. Tickets are on sale in advance only, from all Henderson and Cudmore stores in Charlottetown and Summerside, or call the Theatre P.E.I. office at 566-0321.

Contact: Daphne Harker, Theatre P.E.I., 566-0321.

Home Economics

The Fashion Show-- A Great Success

The Carriage House at Beaconsfield in Charlottetown was an appropriate location for that 'different kind of fashion show' held October 1, 1994. The theme: 'out with the old, in with the old!'

Home Economics Society students put on a fabulous show. Ten models, (seven ladies and three gents) took an enthralled crowd for a walk back in time.

Historic costumes continue to influence today's latest fashions. This was elegantly illustrated by alternately featuring present-day fashions from Henderson & Cudmore, and then accenting a featured aspect of style on that garment.

Origins of the featured style were narrated by Professor Sheri McBride as interested onlookers enjoyed a slide display of clothing from yesteryear.

On display were several historic clothing artifacts from the Home Economics Historic Costume Collection. They gave that additional touch of history and class to the show.

Sheri McBride wants to say, "Many thanks to all who helped make it a success!"

Proceeds from the fashion show go towards helping to offset costs for the Home Economics Society students' trip to New York. -- Lise MacLean

CIMN News

Hello, UPEI. This being the first column of the school year concerning happenings at CIMN (our friendly and ever-popular university station), there are a couple of important matters to address. First and foremost, CIMN is operating for you. If you want to volunteer, you're in luck: there are still quite a few time slots open. Just come down to the third floor of the barn, and our keen management will give you thorough training before throwing you on the air. Volunteering has many advantages, such as becoming involved in university life, hearing the best new music, learning all about radio, and meeting new and interesting people. If you are thinking about getting involved, go for it! You don't have anything to lose.

For those of you who don't have the time or desire to volunteer, just sit back and listen to CIMN. It has all the latest campus and community information, the most diverse collection of music on our island (there is definitely something for everyone: from classical, to jazz, to death metal and everything in between, great giveaways where you can win FREE STUFF, the most unique DJ's currently on the air, and a request line (566-CIMN) which allows you to hear exactly what you want. Listen to CIMN on 700 AM in Marian and Bernardine. You can also hear CIMN on 104.5 FM cable across P.E.I., wherever cable is available. Phone CIMN or Island Cablevision for information on how to get hooked up.

Well, that's my spiel. Friday, October 14 there will be a mandatory volunteer meeting in the Barn at 1:30 pm. All those interested in volunteering are invited to attend. Now for a couple of closing remarks: we have really cool CIMN T-Shirts selling for only $10. They're the height of fashion, so hurry down to CIMN and grab one before they're history. While I've got your attention, check out our top 30 list (painstakingly compiled by our selfless Music Director, Darren). Remember, CIMN is your station; feel free to make use of it. Stay tuned for the upcoming program guide describing all of CIMN's shows.
