Local Squad Plays Sunday

By JIM CULLEN

Charlottetown's Intermediate baseball representative faces elimination Sunday afternoon at Memorial Field when they tangle with Summerside Intermediates.

Donnie 'Funnel' MacLean is handling the local charges and the veteran hurler is optimistic about his team's chances against the Summerside aggregation in this all important fourth game.

The series will be completed Sunday and if the local team wins the fourth game the fifth and final contest will be played immediately after the first game.

MacLean told us last night he expects either Don Schurman or Gerald 'Smell' Smith to toe the slab for Summerside Sunday afternoon.

The league are divided into 'A' and 'B' divisions. Senior 'A' football teams are required to wear full uniforms including cleats while the 'B' teams wear: helmet, shoulder pads, pants and running shoes.

Frank Mahovalich served notice Thursday night that he plans to be heard from in the National Hockey League this season.

Minor League Grid Coach Charges Lack Of Support

What Bennett undoubtedly meant was that CFL clubs could do a lot more to help minor football. Specifically, he took off on Argonauts. His East York Argonauts - not to be confused with the other Argonaut club - are a bunch of dedicated young men with possibly the best record in Canadian football. They're now on a 21-game winning streak and that includes a 41-25 decision over St. James Rods in the Canadian final in Winnipeg a year ago.
