Engagements

MR. AND MRS. KEITH WEBB, Toronto, Ont., wish to announce the engagement of their daughter

BANDSMAN Lou McMahon displays his musical talent to lead the Prince Edward Island officer commanding Lt-Col. A.H. (17th Recce) Regiment is at present undergoing summer training at Camp Utopia.

Fine Showing Made By Queen Square School Cadets

Word was received during the week-end of an excellent showing by the Queen Square School Cadet Corps, No. 148 in topping all other corps in both Prince Edward Island and Nova Scotia for the 1956 year. This is the "second" year that the corps has performed such a feat, they also made a clean sweep in 1951. In 1955 the unit led in their home Province and finished second to the corps from New Glasgow, N.S.

This year the runners up who were also rated as excellent were corps from Windsor and New Glasgow, N.S. The local corps which is affiliated with the P. E. I. (17 RECC) Regiment were inspected at the Memorial Field, June 1.

Other Island Corps were rated as follows: No. 20, Queen Charlotte High, (above average); No. 84, St. Dunstan's College (average); No. 2320, Prince of Wales College, (average) and Montague High School, (first inspection).

On Wednesday evening a group of young friends gathered at the home of Jackie Reddin, Southport. The occasion was a farewell party for his cousin, Frankie Hayley, who is leaving for Edmonton. A lively sing-song and music provided entertainment until refreshment time. These were thoroughly enjoyed.

Frankie was surprised and delighted when he was presented with a flash camera by the group as a memento of their good times together.

The Regimental march of the old fourth Regiment was the "The Dandy Fifth" and today he can still play the tune by ear. His playing has mellowed throughout the years and today he is considered to be one of the finest players of a great musical instrument.

Mr. Winters said he received a copy of the order-in-council and understood from Premier Duplessis that the provincial government has no objection to entering an agreement. Now, it was up to the civic authorities to come to an agreement with the province and he expected in due course to receive a proposal from Montreal.

Bandsman With P.E.I. (17th Recce) Rgt. Played Flute '07

Ask Bandsman Lou McMahon his age and you probably receive the perennial answer, 35 years of age. Nevertheless it is common knowledge around Prince Edward Island that Lou, as a full fledged man could have rocked any of his fellow bandsmen as an infant on his knee.

Lou, colourful bandsman with the Prince Edward Island (17th Recce) Regiment band first began playing a flute in a military band in 1907 while serving in the militia with the old 4th Regiment Royal Canadian Artillery. The Regiment at that time was commanded by the late Lt-Col. H. M. Davison who was succeeded by the late Lt-Col. A.G. Peake both of Charlottetown. Today his commanding officer is Lt-Col. A.H. Peake son of his former commander.

The Regimental march of the old fourth Regiment was the "The Dandy Fifth" and today he can still play the tune by ear. His playing has mellowed throughout the years and today he is considered to be one of the finest players of a great musical instrument.

Montreal Slum Clearance Is Raised In House

OTTAWA (CP) — Works Minister Winters said Saturday the next step in reaching a federal-provincial municipal agreement on a Montreal slum clearance and low-rental housing project is up to the city administration.

He was replying in the Commons to William Hamilton (PC—Montreal Notre-Dame-de-Grace) who asked whether an order-in-council approved by the Quebec government July 18 is sufficient provincial authority to clear the way for the $13,750,000 project.

Mr. Winters said he received a copy of the order-in-council and understood from Premier Duplessis that the provincial government has no objection to entering an agreement.

Now, it was up to the civic authorities to come to an agreement with the province and he expected in due course to receive a proposal from Montreal.

Pilgrims Begin Arriving At Shrine Village For Ceremonies

ST. ANNE DE BEAUPRE, Que. (CP) — Pilgrims from various parts of Canada and the United States, many of them ill or disabled, began arriving in this shrine village Wednesday to participate in ceremonies marking the Feast of St. Anne.

More than 25,000 persons are expected here before conclusion today of ceremonies at the shrine, situated on a hilltop overlooking the St. Lawrence River about 20 miles east of Quebec City.

Members of the Redemptorist order, administrators of the shrine estimated that 5,000 of the pilgrims will come from the United States. Most, they said, will be praying for cures, special favors or relief from ailments.

This year's celebrations mark the beginning of a three-year period of preparation for the tricentenary of the erection of the first chapel. The fathers hope that construction of the still-unfinished basilica will be completed in time for the celebration. Buildings of the basilica were started in 1923.

PLACED STONES IN CHAPEL The history of the shrine, now internationally known, dates back almost 300 years. In 1658, a cripple named Louis Guimond was reported to have been cured after he succeeded with great difficulty in placing three small stones in the foundation of the first chapel dedicated here to St. Anne.

In 1670, Francois de Montmorency-Laval, first Roman Catholic bishop of Quebec, called the attention of his clergy and the members of his diocese to the increasing number of blessings gained by those who prayed for the help of St. Anne in the little chapel of Beaufre.

In 1680, Bishop Laval announced that after a serious study of reported blessings he approved of their publication throughout the world. Since that time, large numbers of pilgrims have reported what they considered miraculous cures following visits to the shrine.

MALPEQUE C.G.I.T. closed their activities for the year by conducting a very impressive service in Princeton United Church on July 1st. It is the third church service which this group has held during their organization in Sept. 1955, under the leadership of Mrs. Reginald Miller and Mrs. Denton Hogg.

The girls completed their Mission and Bible Study and officiated with the W.M.S. at Hamilton. Through the efforts of their leaders and the interest of the work of the group, they have qualified and received their chevron certificate.

A number of the girls are looking forward to attending C.G.I.T. Can. at Augustine Cove.

OWEN SOUND, Ont. (CP)—Susie, a six-week-old lion cub, had a short term as mascot of HMS Sault Ste. Marie. She was just plain unsalable.

Susie left the ship, berthed in Owen Sound for the weekend, Friday afternoon for a new home in Toronto's Riverdale Zoo.

The cub was presented to the ship by the chamber of commerce at Michigan City, Ind. last Tuesday. But she was a problem child. She tried to bite and scratch everyone who went near her cage.

About twice the size of a house cat, Susie played no favorites. She hated everybody.

Bus Tours Provided For Patients And Shut-Ins

A Walter Callow Bus is visiting this city for the purpose of taking shut-ins and hospital patients from various institutions on sight-seeing tours in the city and suburbs. On Sunday residents of the Sunset Lodge and some patients from the P.E.I. Hospital thoroughly enjoyed the trip to a number of points of interest. They were accompanied by Mrs. A.O.P. Gillis and Mrs. Fred Hanson. Twenty-three elderly people from the Sacred Heart Home made the tour attended by Mrs. Thomas Cautey and Mrs. Arthur Coffin.

On Monday the children from the Charlottetown Sanitarium take a ride in the big bus, looked after by Mrs. Russell Roper and Mrs. Harry Sentner. In the afternoon the adult patients of the Sanitarium will have the use of the bus for a leisurely ramble through city and country. They will be attended by Mrs. John B. Murley and Mrs. J.M. Garnham.

On Tuesday morning it will be the turn of the polio children from the sanitarium to take the tour. The polio children will be in charge of Mrs. Harold Drew and Mrs. Frank Rush. On Tuesday afternoon two trips will be made, with a full bus load each time for the patients
