A FACT which even political economists are apt to forget is that a manufacturer's rate of profit is not the only essential element of success; the aggregate profit at the end of the year is of far greater importance, and this in most cases is greater out of a low rate of profit than out of a high rate, because of the increased business, which the low price gives rise to. It was on this principle that Messrs. Tuckett & Son acted in introducing their now famous "Myrtle Navy" tobacco, and to this principle they have ever since adhered. This is one of the reasons why the people of Canada are smoking the best tobacco which can be produced, at a cheaper price than other people can buy a similar article.

THE remains of the late Vernon H. Knight were interred in the Cemetery at Souris West, yesterday afternoon. The services at the house were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Cameron and at the grave by Mr. G. The Masonic fraternity was represented by Orient Lodge, Souris, and by a deputation from St. John and Victoria Lodges, of this city. The flags on the principal places of business and the ships in the harbor floated at half mast. The visiting Masons returned to the city last evening.

THE attendance at the market to-day was larger than for some time past, and sales were quite lively. Mackerel, the first of the season, as well as some fine specimens of codfish were on sale and eagerly bought up. The following were the prices:—Beef (small) 7 to 10 cts per lb; do per qtr 4 to 7 cts; mutton, 5 to 8 cents; pork (carcass) 4 to 5 cts; pork (small) 6 to 8 cts; lamb, 6 to 8 cts; ham per lb, 13 to 14 cts; fowls, each, 30 to 35 cts; butter (fresh) 23 to 25; do (tub) 18 to 20 cts; eggs, per dozen, 10 to 12 cts; clover seed, 16 to 18 cts per lb; flour per 100 lbs, $2.25 to $2.75; oatmeal, do, $2.30 to $2.50; oats, 30 to 40 cts; hay per 100, 55 cts; potatoes, 18 to 20 cts; geese, 50 to 70; turnips, per bush, 12 to 13 cts; seed timothy, $3 per bush; veal, 3 to 7 cts per lb; turkeys, 80 cts to $1.75; radish per bunch, 6 cents; herring (fresh) 6 to 8 cts; lobsters, 3 to 6 cts each; halibut, 8 cents per lb.; rhubarb, 3 to 4 cents lb; codfish, 10 to 25 cents; mackerel, 5 to 8 cents.

HOME RULE DEFEATED.

INCIDENTS OF THE VOTE.

Defeated by 30 Votes

LONDON, June 8.

Intense excitement prevails throughout Great Britain over the defeat of Gladstone's Govermental Home Rule Bill, upon which a vote was taken last night, resulting in the defeat of the Bill by an adverse majority of 30 votes. There will now be an immediate appeal to the country.

Upon entering the House last night Gladstone was greeted with tremendous cheering. The Parnellites were all in good voice and gave him an enthusiastic welcome. The Opposition loudly cheered John Bright and Lord Hartington as they took their seats. Every inch of space on the main floor as well as in the galleries was occupied.

Goschen, speaking in opposition to the Bill, said that the sovereignty of the Imperial Parliament depended upon those clauses which it was highly probable a majority of the House would never consent to. If the bill were allowed to pass a tremendous struggle would immediately be inaugurated by the Roman Catholic clergy of Ireland to obtain control of the educational system of that country. It had been elicited from its supporters that a reconstruction of the bill was the basis upon which many members of the House were to unite in voting with the Government upon a measure which, every one admitted, was the most important ever submitted to Parliament. The Premier is now more anxious to ascertain from his supporters what they will authorize him to give, than he is to insist upon knowing what the Parnellites will accept. Untold difficulties would arise under the "foreign enlistment Act" and in cases like that of the cruiser Alabama the Imperial Parliament would be responsible for all the acts of the Irish executive and yet would be powerless to control that executive. The Canadian executive was at this time in trouble with the United States of America; England was responsible for Canada, and would have to settle the difficulty. Members must not forget Morley's words of warning, that if discontent should arise in Ireland, Irish-Americans would place material resources at Ireland's command. If Parliament now parted with its executive power in Ireland, alienated its friends and made them bitter foes, and placed the executive power in the hands of new and untried men, how would they meet this difficulty? In conclusion, he said: "I implore this House by the traditions of which we are the heirs, by the solemn obligations of duty and honor, by their hopes for the future of this Empire, and by their loyalty to the Queen, to look to it that those who shall come after us may bear witness that we have not betrayed our trust."

Parnell was the next speaker. He was greeted with cheers on rising and said: "Ordinarily I have lacked confidence in myself when following so able and so eloquent a speaker, in this contest of giants, but 'thrice is he armed who hath his quarrel just.'" He (Parnell) united with Goschen in denouncing outrages in Ireland; in deprecating the introduction of religious and educational issues into the controversy; and concluded with a pathetic appeal for local self government in Ireland. Speaking of Chamberlain's opposition, Parnell said that he (Chamberlain) and his kind seek to dash this cup from the lips of the Irish people. It is first cup of cold water that has been offered to our nation since the recall of Lord Fitzwilliam. This settlement he believed will be a final settlement. Parnell was loudly cheered throughout his speech. He was followed by Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, and then Gladstone, who made an eloquent appeal on behalf of the people of Ireland.

At the conclusion of Gladstone's speech the division was moved, and resulted in the Government being defeated by 30 majority. Large numbers of Tory aspirants for seats in the Commons are retiring in favor of Chamberlain-Hartington candidates in districts where a joint poll of the Conservative vote with that of anti-Gladstone Whigs will probably secure the election of the combinationists.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain; and the little shrub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind. feb 4 eod wk
