

WOMEN'S ORGANIZATIONS

Auction Articles Donated By Kingsboro Institute

Mrs. L. G. Robertson is hostess for the March meeting of the Kingsboro Institute. The institute when nine members and one visitor answered roll call with an article for an auction to be held at a later date.

—It was decided to send $2 to Mrs. MacQueen for the Kingsboro orphan boy's fee.

Red Cross knitting was presented and various ways to raise money were discussed.

Each member is to bring a book or magazine to be donated to the library at the Riverside Hospital.

A paper on education and citizenship was read by Mrs. Kenneth MacGregor and Mrs. Elizabeth Robertson, followed by a playette put on by some of the members. The program was conducted by Mrs. L. G. Robertson.

Lunch was served by the hostess and the committee in charge.

ST. JAMES LCV

The budget for 1964 was accepted by the St. James United Church Women. Sisters at the March meeting held at the home of Mrs. A.H. Smallwood.

Mrs. J.B. MacQueen presided, read the scripture and prayer was offered by Mrs. R. J. MacKenzie.

Executive and committee reports were read, and it was decided to hold a rummage sale at the Church Hall, Saturday evening March 21.

Mrs. C. Leard gave a report on the Feb. presidential election.

Next month's catering committee is Mrs. E. Glenn, Mrs. R. White, Mrs. A.H. Smallwood and Mrs. G. Leard.

ST. TERESA'S CWL

The March meeting of St. Teresa's Catholic Women's League began with members repeating the league prayer.

Following the reading of a letter from Canada Packers, it was decided to obtain premium offer lists for each member.

It was also agreed to ask the Sacred Heart program director for dime — week boxes.

MYRTLE ROAD WMS

"He is not here for he is risen" was the theme which opened the March meeting of the Myrtle Road Presbyterian Women's Missionary Society, held at the home of Mrs. Scott Clark, King, Saturday evening March 7.

Mrs. Horace Poyner presided and opened with the theme and prayer. Exposition was read by Mrs. Ira Huestis, and each member offered prayer.

Prizes at a card party at St. James' L.C.V., Kensington, on Friday night were won by Mrs. Russell Mackay and H. B. C. Murphy. Consolation prizes were received by Mrs. William G. I. and Ivan Gillan. The event was sponsored by the Lion's Guild and Band Auxiliary.

Mrs. and Mrs. Alfred MacLaren, Lexington, Mass., and Mrs. Maurice Poyer, Arlington, Mass., have returned to their homes after attending the funeral of their brother Frank W. MacLaren in Montreal.

Mrs. and Mrs. Wayne Adams, one Dianne Denham, were honored on the occasion of their recent marriage, when friends and relatives met at New London Hall to tender them a sentimental shower and present gifts. The bride was Mrs. Jan MacCoubrey, Miss Nan Crabbe, Isabel Campbell, June Cole and Phyllis Staines.

followed by the Lord's Prayer in mission.

Mrs. Lorne Crozier read the minutes of the previous meeting, and roll call was answered with a prayer.

Mrs. Earle Seaman is in charge of the study period.

Mrs. Tallman invited the members to her home for the April meeting. Meeting closed with a hymn and benediction.

CARDIGAN

Miss Linda MacIntyre of Cardigan is progressing satisfactorily following surgery on Tues day at the Charlottetown Hospital.

Miss Nora Macdonald, student at St. Dunns University, spent the weekend with her parents, Mrs. and Mrs. Earl C. Macdonald, Cardigan.

The young people of the Cardigan Catholic Youth Club are busy practising for a play which they hope to be ready to present at St. Patrick's Day. The play is a three act comedy named "Have A Heart" and has a cast of six actors.

Bennet MacLellan, St. Georges and Herbert Macdonald of Cardigan left by car this week for St. Catharines and Hamilton, Ontario.

Mrs. Margaret Macdonald, her son Jack and daughter Heather of Charlottetown were weekend visitors to Cardigan.

Miss Mary Quinn, teacher at St. Charles, School spent a weekend at her home on St. Peters Road.

YORK

Robert MacLaren and sister Barbara of Glen Valley are visiting at the home of their sister Mrs. Lakon Lewis, York.

Mrs. Dewar Swan was hostess to York Institute on Tuesday evening. Lunch committee were Mrs. Irving Macdonald, Mrs. Jack Simpson, Mrs. Clifford Campbell. There were 35 in attendance.

Mrs. Frank MacLaren a visitor to or to Charlottetown on Tuesday.

Mrs. Ivan Askole, York spent Wednesday in Charlottetown.

Mrs. Harold Taylor, York was a visitor to Charlottetown on Monday, March 2nd.

Mrs. and Mrs. Fred Poyner were visitors to Coxehead on Sunday. They were the guests of Mrs. Poyner's brothers, Millar and Roland Beaton, and their families.

Mrs. Raymond Watts and son Harold, York, spent Wednesday in Charlottetown.

Mrs. and Mrs. John Watts are the guests of their son and daughter-in-law, Mrs. and Mrs. Reuben Watts. They have just returned home from B.C.

What do you think of married men reading "girlie" magazines in secret?

I am your mother with four young children. My husband is in business for himself and we are both very busy but also happily married.

We have a good sex relationship, often neglected, however, because of such factors as the children's illnesses (which are frequent), my husband's extreme fatigue on my part, many late night visitors, etc.

Quite by accident I discovered that my husband is studying close magazines secretly, while supposedly working on his business reading. He doesn't know, because I haven't known what I might or should say.

The vision in my mind of his looking at pornographic pictures and literature belted closed doors is very distasteful to me, somehow degrading to his image as I see him.

He is a man's man, very masculine and vigorously attractive. He is not a flirt with a young wife. I know he hasn't been unfaithful to me, yet I feel someone to blame for this adolescent sort of behavior.

If he opened the door to it, wouldn't bother me so much, after all, how many women have I really but these magazines and have them around the house at a time.

Perhaps you will say I should find more time for love-making. I know, I know, many women have been unfaithful to me. I am a woman who is fully ready and willing for the conjugal embrace! Please comment.

DEAR S.S. With intuitive intelligence you've grasped the import of your husband's hidden study of smut, in identifying it as adolescent behavior.

In a new book titled "The Love of Life: Sexuality and the Growth of Personality" (P. J. E. Reinsel, Frederick Trevelin writes of "the prevalence of chronic adolescence in our time.")

Where such trials exist, and they are commonplace in our society-aggravated by white collar standards of homemaker excellence (materially)—in such cases, the solution isn't for the husband to withdraw behind closed doors, to indulge repressively in smutted fantasy.

What he should do, obviously if sensibly intent on making the

DEAR S.S. With intuitive intelligence you've grasped the import of your husband's hidden study of smut, in identifying it as adolescent behavior.

In a new book titled "The Love of Life: Sexuality and the Growth of Personality" (P. J. E. Reinsel, Frederick Trevelin writes of "the prevalence of chronic adolescence in our time.")

Where such trials exist, and they are commonplace in our society-aggravated by white collar standards of homemaker excellence (materially)—in such cases, the solution isn't for the husband to withdraw behind closed doors, to indulge repressively in smutted fantasy.

What he should do, obviously if sensibly intent on making the

DEAR S.S. With intuitive intelligence you've grasped the import of your husband's hidden study of smut, in identifying it as adolescent behavior.

In a new book titled "The Love of Life: Sexuality and the Growth of Personality" (P. J. E. Reinsel, Frederick Trevelin writes of "the prevalence of chronic adolescence in our time.")

Where such trials exist, and they are commonplace in our society-aggravated by white collar standards of homemaker excellence (materially)—in such cases, the solution isn't for the husband to withdraw behind closed doors, to indulge repressively in smutted fantasy.

What he should do, obviously if sensibly intent on making the

MIMMY'S "EASTER SEAL" HOCKEY and BROOM BALL NIGHT

SPONSORED BY THE ROTARY CLUB FORUM, WED., MARCH 18th

Never before in the history of Confederation has there been a hockey game on a Wednesday night.

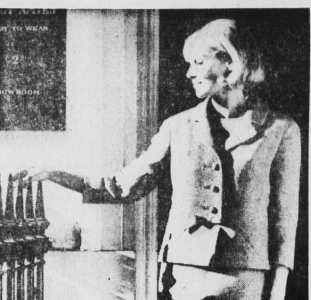

7:30 P.M. BROOM BALL 8:30 P.M. HOCKEY GAME

8:00 P.M. HOCKEY THE BEATLE BEATS vs. CONFEDERATES

8:30 P.M. OFFICIAL ALL STARS

Band of the P. E. I. Regiment in attendance by joint permission of Lt.-Col. D. J. McCormick.

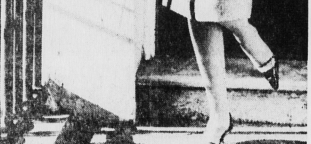

"A NIGHT OF FUN FOR THE WHOLE FAMILY"

BALTIMORE

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Casper, Kensington, were motorists to Charlottetown on Wednesday. Mrs. Dolly Tuplin of Indian River left recently to visit her daughter in Montreal.

Miss Cella Hunter, Spring Valley, is spending some time in Kensington.

PETERS ROAD

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce McLaren, Charlottetown, were visitors to Peters Road on Saturday.

Butch Stewart, Charlottetown, spent Saturday at Peters Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Beck and Mrs. M. J. Kennedy and David Altham visited in Charlottetown on Friday.

LONG LINE SUIT

The collar is also characteristic, with touches of red, and the fake flap pockets are trimmed in red and chartreuse.

It is a well-remembered overblouse with a bateau neckline and a slender skirt complete the picture.

MARY HAWORTH

Worried Wife Discovers Husband's "Girlie" Mags

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: What do you think of married men reading "girlie" magazines in secret?

I am your mother with four young children. My husband is in business for himself and we are both very busy but also happily married.

We have a good sex relationship, often neglected, however, because of such factors as the children's illnesses (which are frequent), my husband's extreme fatigue on my part, many late night visitors, etc.

Quite by accident I discovered that my husband is studying close magazines secretly, while supposedly working on his business reading. He doesn't know, because I haven't known what I might or should say.

The vision in my mind of his looking at pornographic pictures and literature belted closed doors is very distasteful to me, somehow degrading to his image as I see him.

He is a man's man, very masculine and vigorously attractive. He is not a flirt with a young wife. I know he hasn't been unfaithful to me, yet I feel someone to blame for this adolescent sort of behavior.

If he opened the door to it, wouldn't bother me so much, after all, how many women have I really but these magazines and have them around the house at a time.

Perhaps you will say I should find more time for love-making. I know, I know, many women have been unfaithful to me. I am a woman who is fully ready and willing for the conjugal embrace! Please comment.

DEAR S.S. With intuitive intelligence you've grasped the import of your husband's hidden study of smut, in identifying it as adolescent behavior.

In a new book titled "The Love of Life: Sexuality and the Growth of Personality" (P. J. E. Reinsel, Frederick Trevelin writes of "the prevalence of chronic adolescence in our time.")

Where such trials exist, and they are commonplace in our society-aggravated by white collar standards of homemaker excellence (materially)—in such cases, the solution isn't for the husband to withdraw behind closed doors, to indulge repressively in smutted fantasy.

What he should do, obviously if sensibly intent on making the

DEAR S.S. With intuitive intelligence you've grasped the import of your husband's hidden study of smut, in identifying it as adolescent behavior.

In a new book titled "The Love of Life: Sexuality and the Growth of Personality" (P. J. E. Reinsel, Frederick Trevelin writes of "the prevalence of chronic adolescence in our time.")

Where such trials exist, and they are commonplace in our society-aggravated by white collar standards of homemaker excellence (materially)—in such cases, the solution isn't for the husband to withdraw behind closed doors, to indulge repressively in smutted fantasy.

What he should do, obviously if sensibly intent on making the

DEAR S.S. With intuitive intelligence you've grasped the import of your husband's hidden study of smut, in identifying it as adolescent behavior.

In a new book titled "The Love of Life: Sexuality and the Growth of Personality" (P. J. E. Reinsel, Frederick Trevelin writes of "the prevalence of chronic adolescence in our time.")

Where such trials exist, and they are commonplace in our society-aggravated by white collar standards of homemaker excellence (materially)—in such cases, the solution isn't for the husband to withdraw behind closed doors, to indulge repressively in smutted fantasy.

What he should do, obviously if sensibly intent on making the

CUTS BURNS

Be prepared in an instant with this magic first aid... keep your medicine cabinet stocked with...

DR. CHASE'S ANTI-PAIN OINTMENT

had of his marital situation—and I don't mean a resigned "best" but rather a piece of creative, teamwork "best" to use brains and brawn to do the ways-and-means of lightening the wife's load, widening horizons and reassuring her day after day in the here-and-now.

Approach, in setting the pace of coping constructively with her problems, and essentially blameless burden of cumulative fatigue.

Obviously, also, it is the way to reclaim her as a refreshed, responsive sweetheart and to deepen his joy in being a truly competent protective family head. Perhaps both of you would profit by reading the book mentioned above.

Mr. Mary Haworth counsels the rough her column, not by mail or personal interview. Write her in care of the Guardian.

BALTIMORE

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Casper, Kensington, were motorists to Charlottetown on Wednesday. Mrs. Dolly Tuplin of Indian River left recently to visit her daughter in Montreal.

Miss Cella Hunter, Spring Valley, is spending some time in Kensington.

PETERS ROAD

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce McLaren, Charlottetown, were visitors to Peters Road on Saturday.

Butch Stewart, Charlottetown, spent Saturday at Peters Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Beck and Mrs. M. J. Kennedy and David Altham visited in Charlottetown on Friday.

LONG LINE SUIT

The collar is also characteristic, with touches of red, and the fake flap pockets are trimmed in red and chartreuse.

It is a well-remembered overblouse with a bateau neckline and a slender skirt complete the picture.

MARY HAWORTH

Worried Wife Discovers Husband's "Girlie" Mags

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: What do you think of married men reading "girlie" magazines in secret?

I am your mother with four young children. My husband is in business for himself and we are both very busy but also happily married.

We have a good sex relationship, often neglected, however, because of such factors as the children's illnesses (which are frequent), my husband's extreme fatigue on my part, many late night visitors, etc.

Quite by accident I discovered that my husband is studying close magazines secretly, while supposedly working on his business reading. He doesn't know, because I haven't known what I might or should say.

The vision in my mind of his looking at pornographic pictures and literature belted closed doors is very distasteful to me, somehow degrading to his image as I see him.

He is a man's man, very masculine and vigorously attractive. He is not a flirt with a young wife. I know he hasn't been unfaithful to me, yet I feel someone to blame for this adolescent sort of behavior.

If he opened the door to it, wouldn't bother me so much, after all, how many women have I really but these magazines and have them around the house at a time.

Perhaps you will say I should find more time for love-making. I know, I know, many women have been unfaithful to me. I am a woman who is fully ready and willing for the conjugal embrace! Please comment.

DEAR S.S. With intuitive intelligence you've grasped the import of your husband's hidden study of smut, in identifying it as adolescent behavior.

In a new book titled "The Love of Life: Sexuality and the Growth of Personality" (P. J. E. Reinsel, Frederick Trevelin writes of "the prevalence of chronic adolescence in our time.")

Where such trials exist, and they are commonplace in our society-aggravated by white collar standards of homemaker excellence (materially)—in such cases, the solution isn't for the husband to withdraw behind closed doors, to indulge repressively in smutted fantasy.

What he should do, obviously if sensibly intent on making the

BEAUTY SALON

Open Every Day

- Cold Waxing • Bleaching
- Tinting • Perm. Special
- Phone 4-19752
- 277 Grafton St.

H. BENNETT CARR

- Insurance Consulting
- District Supervisor
- Montreal • Canada
- Phone 4-8817 - 4-613
- Charlottetown, P.E.I.

FASHION SHOW LUNCHEON

P.E.I. Hospital. Held annually at the Charlottetown Hotel, this year's effort is a particularly ambitious one with the addition of 15 Centennial model wearing costumes dating back as far as 100 years ago. Performances continue today.

ELLEN'S DIARY

Invalid Friend Describes Winter Spent In Oregon

Ellen, but judging by the way that mercury is falling, we're going to have a below zero reading by midnight. James says, come in now from visiting the thermometer at the house.

And our mind wanders away from these rather wintery March days with last autumn, when she was about ready to leave by car to spend the winter with her in Oregon. She is an invalid. Faded to give up her once active life to spend years in a wheelchair. But these two have been full years, and cheerful, because through the sea has managed to keep a hectic heart.

She wrote: "We left, as it happened, in pouring rain, at 11 in the morning of that October day. Yes, he had the village 'good-bye' while I still slept, and caught the first crossing at the Ferry. Then, for the day had cleared nicely before we came to Cape Town, in perfect weather, and in five days and a half we reached the west coast. I was not at all tired, and much enjoyed every mile of the way.

"The country was as it predicted at that time of year, the autumn colors so altogether beautiful. The drive along the coast was lovely. And the animals of the Rockies, which I had seen in the northern part, turning north at Bangor, Maine, thence across a corner of New Hampshire and upper New York State into Quebec, on into Ontario, then, passing Ottawa, New's Bay, Sudbury, Sault Ste Marie, into Michigan. Then by way of Wisconsin, Minnesota, North Dakota, Montana, Idaho, and Washington, states into Oregon. Stayed in Vancouver, yet with fine farmlands. There is extensive beef, dairy, and fruit farming, and also fishing and lumbering. The extent of forest land in this state is almost unbelievable. It is fir, cedar, and pine, in grow-

WOMEN HAPPENINGS

At the March session of Ellerslie Women's Institute, members agreed to give $200 toward the adoption of the Justina Korean orphan. A pot luck supper was discussed with plans to be finalized at next meeting. It was also agreed that remains and widows be sent for to, and down from, Portland, 95 miles away. Two there are members of pleasure craft on the water. I can see now as I write in the morning of that October day. Yes, he had the village 'good-bye' while I still slept, and caught the first crossing at the Ferry. Then, for the day had cleared nicely before we came to Cape Town, in perfect weather, and in five days and a half we reached the west coast. I was not at all tired, and much enjoyed every mile of the way.

"The country was as it predicted at that time of year, the autumn colors so altogether beautiful. The drive along the coast was lovely. And the animals of the Rockies, which I had seen in the northern part, turning north at Bangor, Maine, thence across a corner of New Hampshire and upper New York State into Quebec, on into Ontario, then, passing Ottawa, New's Bay, Sudbury, Sault Ste Marie, into Michigan. Then by way of Wisconsin, Minnesota, North Dakota, Montana, Idaho, and Washington, states into Oregon. Stayed in Vancouver, yet with fine farmlands. There is extensive beef, dairy, and fruit farming, and also fishing and lumbering. The extent of forest land in this state is almost unbelievable. It is fir, cedar, and pine, in grow-

SOCIAL PAGE ITEMS WELCOME

Show the happy times of parties, showers, guests and vacations with the readers of The Guardian. Editor: There are no charge. Phone: Women's Page Editor: 4-8306. News items are always welcome.

IDA BAILEY ALLEN

Shrimp Sauce Accents Baked Halibut Steaks

—In Oregon, Madam, on our last visit we enjoyed a small one baked salmon for Sunday dinner when we were guests in a private home, I remember the chef, "And in Maine, just a short time ago, the Sunday pride resistance in the home of an old sea captain was a baked small white halibut.

"As even small sizes of these fish weigh from 7 to 10 lbs., they furnish servings for up to 16 persons, so enough is left over in a family of six, for a salad or a la king the next day.

"A better plan for the smaller family is to feature a halibut steak. Especially when accompanied with a fine shrimp sauce for flavor-contrast and colorful appetizing.

Measurements level:
recipes for 6

BAKED HALIBUT SLICES
1 1/2 lbs. halibut steaks, fresh or frozen
1 tsp. chopped parsley
1/2 tsp. pepper
2 tsp. melted butter or margarine
1 lb. fresh or 1 lb. (10 oz.) pkg. frozen shrimp
2 tbsp. butter or margarine, extra
2 tsp. flour
1 egg yolk
1 egg white
1 tsp. Worcestershire
1/2 tsp. onion powder
1 tsp. dry sherry or 1 tsp. sherry
Flavoring (optional)

If halibut is frozen, let stand at room temperature 30 min. Place in mild shallow baking dish. Dust with salt and pepper; brush with melted butter or margarine. Bake 30 min. in moderate oven (350 degrees F.), or until fish flakes easily with fork.

Meanwhile, shell and devein shrimp, if necessary. Cut in half, if large.

with an extra luncheon (a limited number of tickets) at the home of Mrs. A.H. Smallwood.

Mrs. J.B. MacQueen presided, read the scripture and prayer was offered by Mrs. R. J. MacKenzie.

Executive and committee reports were read, and it was decided to hold a rummage sale at the Church Hall, Saturday evening March 21.

Mrs. C. Leard gave a report on the Feb. presidential election.

Next month's catering committee is Mrs. E. Glenn, Mrs. R. White, Mrs. A.H. Smallwood and Mrs. G. Leard.

Prizes at a card party at St. James' L.C.V., Kensington, on Friday night were won by Mrs. Russell Mackay and H. B. C. Murphy. Consolation prizes were received by Mrs. William G. I. and Ivan Gillan. The event was sponsored by the Lion's Guild and Band Auxiliary.

Mrs. and Mrs. Alfred MacLaren, Lexington, Mass., and Mrs. Maurice Poyer, Arlington, Mass., have returned to their homes after attending the funeral of their brother Frank W. MacLaren in Montreal.

Mrs. and Mrs. Wayne Adams, one Dianne Denham, were honored on the occasion of their recent marriage, when friends and relatives met at New London Hall to tender them a sentimental shower and present gifts. The bride was Mrs. Jan MacCoubrey, Miss Nan Crabbe, Isabel Campbell, June Cole and Phyllis Staines.

WOMEN HAPPENINGS

At the March session of Ellerslie Women's Institute, members agreed to give $200 toward the adoption of the Justina Korean orphan. A pot luck supper was discussed with plans to be finalized at next meeting. It was also agreed that remains and widows be sent for to, and down from, Portland, 95 miles away. Two there are members of pleasure craft on the water. I can see now as I write in the morning of that October day. Yes, he had the village 'good-bye' while I still slept, and caught the first crossing at the Ferry. Then, for the day had cleared nicely before we came to Cape Town, in perfect weather, and in five days and a half we reached the west coast. I was not at all tired, and much enjoyed every mile of the way.

"The country was as it predicted at that time of year, the autumn colors so altogether beautiful. The drive along the coast was lovely. And the animals of the Rockies, which I had seen in the northern part, turning north at Bangor, Maine, thence across a corner of New Hampshire and upper New York State into Quebec, on into Ontario, then, passing Ottawa, New's Bay, Sudbury, Sault Ste Marie, into Michigan. Then by way of Wisconsin, Minnesota, North Dakota, Montana, Idaho, and Washington, states into Oregon. Stayed in Vancouver, yet with fine farmlands. There is extensive beef, dairy, and fruit farming, and also fishing and lumbering. The extent of forest land in this state is almost unbelievable. It is fir, cedar, and pine, in grow-

WOMEN HAPPENINGS

Show the happy times of parties, showers, guests and vacations with the readers of The Guardian. Editor: There are no charge. Phone: Women's Page Editor: 4-8306. News items are always welcome.

IDA BAILEY ALLEN

Shrimp Sauce Accents Baked Halibut Steaks

—In Oregon, Madam, on our last visit we enjoyed a small one baked salmon for Sunday dinner when we were guests in a private home, I remember the chef, "And in Maine, just a short time ago, the Sunday pride resistance in the home of an old sea captain was a baked small white halibut.

"As even small sizes of these fish weigh from 7 to 10 lbs., they furnish servings for up to 16 persons, so enough is left over in a family of six, for a salad or a la king the next day.

"A better plan for the smaller family is to feature a halibut steak. Especially when accompanied with a fine shrimp sauce for flavor-contrast and colorful appetizing.

Measurements level:
recipes for 6

BAKED HALIBUT SLICES
1 1/2 lbs. halibut steaks, fresh or frozen
1 tsp. chopped parsley
1/2 tsp. pepper
2 tsp. melted butter or margarine
1 lb. fresh or 1 lb. (10 oz.) pkg. frozen shrimp
2 tbsp. butter or margarine, extra
2 tsp. flour
1 egg yolk
1 egg white
1 tsp. Worcestershire
1/2 tsp. onion powder
1 tsp. dry sherry or 1 tsp. sherry
Flavoring (optional)

If halibut is frozen, let stand at room temperature 30 min. Place in mild shallow baking dish. Dust with salt and pepper; brush with melted butter or margarine. Bake 30 min. in moderate oven (350 degrees F.), or until fish flakes easily with fork.

Meanwhile, shell and devein shrimp, if necessary. Cut in half, if large.

4639
SIZES 8-15
by Anne Adams
SEW IT IN A DAY

4639
SIZES 8-15
by Alice Brooks
COOL AND CUTE

Bunny and posies are appropriate trim for this set. Make up this summery for daughter, ruffie - eesied pants, too.

LESS PONS: call to easy to return 7055; child's size 2, 4, 6 included. Pattern; transfer 100 from 100.

THIRTY-CENTS (cents) for this pattern (no stamps, please) for this pattern. Pattern; transfer 100 from 100.

42 cents sales, tax. Print plainly. SIZE, ADDRESS, STYLE NUMBER. Send order to ANNE ADAMS, care of Guardian Patriot, Pattern Dept., 90 Front St., Toronto 1, Ont.

Gracielite - collar and soft side for the smart, relaxed. Transfer about 1 1/2 to 2; spoon over the sauce; Garnish: chopped parsley.

SUNDAY DINNER
Avocado-Lettuce and RICES
Olive Salad
BAKED HALIBUT SLICES
Shrimp Sauce
Or
Glazed Chicken. Thin Gravy
Buttered Noodles
Broccoli Bae
Branched Potatoes
(Homemade or Frozen)
Or
Chilled Canned Peas
Coffee Tea Milk

TOMORROW'S DINNER
8-oz. can tomatoes
Flaky Potato-Vegetable Platter
With Asparagus, Sliced Zucchini
Carrots and Cooked Scallops
Choice of Chicken gravy or Baked Potato Custards
Or
Hot Apple Sauce and Ginger snaps

THE CHEF'S FLAKY POTATO-VEGETABLE PLATTER
12 flaky potatoes
4 c. sauteed sliced zucchini
2 c. cooked sliced carrots, 1/2 cup green asparagus
1 small bunch mushrooms, drained
Garlic; radishes;
Choice of chicken gravy or cheddar sauce-homemade, or from gravy or sauce mix
Prepare vegetables ready to assemble on heated large platter or tray.
Pile potatoes in center; surround with heaping tablespoons

MR. AND MRS. JOHN C. WILLIAMS

VOVS PLEDGED

Judy Evelyn, Gehlert RN, became a bride of John Clifford Williams at a ceremony held at Tyne Valley United Church. Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. Claude Gehlert, Northam, and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Williams, Bideford.

Les Grands Ballets Canadiens

March 20th
8:30 P.M.
Queen Charlotte High School

Tickets at Toombs and Miller Bros.

CUTS BURNS

Be prepared in an instant with this magic first aid... keep your medicine cabinet stocked with...

DR. CHASE'S ANTI-PAIN OINTMENT

... ellp out this ad on a sheet. He... save it to remember yourself to see the exact showing of Kay Sill... newest spring floral... shades of course. At... Furriers now.