ATTENTION FARMERS!!

We have purchased the property at Central Bedeque formerly used by Dunk River Dairying Co., and it is our intention to establish a cannery for the purpose of processing fruits and vegetables.

We are interested in contacting farmers in this area to arrange for the growing of new crops for processing in this plant; such as green beans, wax beans, shell beans, peas, onions, tomatoes, asparagus, etc., etc.

Farmers interested in growing any of these new crops should contact us immediately for full information, seeds, etc.

Dominion Government officials are available to advise and assist in any problems that may arise in connection with growing of these crops.

Missing Diplomats Working in Moscow

LONDON. (Reuters)—The three-year mystery of Britain's missing diplomats, Donald Maclean and Guy Burgess, appeared nearer solution today as it was authoritatively reported the two men are in Moscow and working for the Kremlin.

The information came from Vladimir Petrov, who this month threw over his job as third secretary and secret police chief for the Russian embassy in Australia.

ACCIDENTAL SLIP

DILWYN, England. (CP)—Mrs. Iris Waterman, Britain's only "steeplejill," broke her ankle when she slipped on a mudpatch in this Herefordshire town. The 29-year-old woman was helping her husband repair a 120-foot steeple.
