SUPER-LASTIC Twin-Ply "Toughie"
10% SAFETY NYLON
It's well over a year ago that Canadian Tire introduced the Twin-Ply Nylon Tire to the Canadian car owner; we knew that they had no many superior features that it was just a matter of time until the same manufacturer limited on 3-ply tires as standard original equipment. Today, we understand, and we're glad to share with you, that the new era of high speed off the assembly line and on the road - now, you can't get NYLON except at a premium. At Canadian Tire, you don't pay a premium - you get down-to-earth quality tires that you pay 10% off a brand new Super-Lastic Twin-Ply Nylon "Toughie" Tire as your car of just about half of what you might expect to pay. Extra savings for the unused miles on your old tire.
HOW SAFE ARE TWIN-PLY TIRES?
One of our customers put an old tire in a new Super-Lastic Twin-Ply Type Nylon Tire - the hole blew to shreds, the high speed off the assembly line and on the road - now, you can't get NYLON except at a premium.
