Ex-Queen Natalie is to be allowed to see her son only outside of Servia.

We are pleased to learn that the missing man—Francis McAleer—has been found.

It is pleasing to learn that Mr. Frank Glydon, of Margate, is recovering from the effects of his recent accident.

Collingwood Schreicer, Chief Engineer and General Manager Canadian Government Railways, left here this morning for Halifax.

Surveyor McKenna, of the Customs Department, left by the Western Express this morning for the purpose of enjoying a well-earned holiday in the rural districts.

Froude, the historian, has written a letter, denying the truth of reports that he had become a home ruler. He adds: Gladstone's policy is only a spamodic gush of sentiment, suggested, as always, by some condition of English party politics. It is the worst and most scandalous in English history.

Princess Louise has been married scarcely a week, and now the news comes that Princess Victoria of Wales, the bride's sister, is betrothed to Viscount Chelsea, son of Earl Cadogan. Princess Victoria is twenty-one years of age. She is the handsomest of the Prince of Wales' daughters, and is highly accomplished.

Mr. Fredk. Curtis, son of J. F. Curtis, Esq., of H. M. Customs, arrived home on Monday evening last after an absence of four years. Mr. Curtis looks remarkably well, and is a splendid specimen of the hardy mariner. After remaining in the city a few days he intends leaving for Halifax, where he will attend the marine examination in order to qualify himself for the position of Chief Mate. We wish him every success.

Pictou Standard: L. H. Davies, M. P., the champion "blue ruinist," came over from the Island yesterday en route to the carnival. We have no doubt the ulterior object is to note how Halifax has deteriorated during the last few years under the N. P. The presumption is that Mr. D. will return home with his eyes open in regard to Halifax, as to the fallacy of the buncombe he has been getting off in the Canadian House of Commons.

SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.

Halifax Carnival.

HALIFAX, Aug. 6.

The second day of the carnival was favored with delightful weather, and as a result all events on the programme, morning, afternoon and evening, were patronized by thousands of people. The number of Americans in the city is very large, and the provincial towns are all represented by large numbers of people. The estimated number of visitors now in the city is 13,000, and, while this is several thousands less than in St. John during carnival week, visitors are arriving by every train and boat. As to-morrow is a big day with a general illumination of the warships, etc., at night, crowds are expected in the morning.

Postal Changes.

OTTAWA, Aug. 6.

The Post Office Department is negotiating with the Imperial authorities with a view to reducing the rates for transmission of parcels by mail between Canada and Great Britain. England has been asked to make the London office an exchange bureau for Canadian parcels to countries within the postal union. If a favorable answer is received, the Canadian parcel post system will be extended to all parts of the world by the addition to the Canadian rate to the usual rate charged between Great Britain and the country of destination.

The "Times'" Opinion.

LONDON, Aug. 6.

The Times holds that there is not a particle of justification for the "high-handed seizure" of the Canadian sealer Black Diamond. It says "no statute of Congress can bind English citizens beyond territorial waters of America without consent of England. The seizure is contrary to international law, and comity." In conclusion, it says "that the nation's good sense and love of justice of the American people can be relied on to assist settlement of a question that ought never to have been raised.

Imperial Gratification.

LONDON, Aug. 6.

The Emperor William telegraphed to the Duke of Saxe-Cobourg that he is gratified by his reception here. He also refers to the naval review, and expresses his admiration of the British fleet.

BERLIN, Aug. 5.

In return for the honor of being made an English admiral, the Emperor has made the Queen of England Chief of the First Dragoon Guards, which are quartered at Berlin.

Carrying the Fun Too Far.

PESTH, Aug. 6.

During the military review yesterday, the Colonel of a Hussar regiment ordered the men to charge, after they had already gone through a long series of arduous manœuvres. The heat was excessive, and the men were utterly worn out. As a result of the Colonel's order twenty-seven men fell exhausted from their saddles, and were carried from the field. One of them died since.

The Black Diamond Case.

VICTORIA, B. C., Aug. 6.

The excitement regarding the Black Diamond has simmered down. The Governments of Canada and the United States have been officially informed of the matter. The general impression prevails that nothing will be said by the American Government, and that the Captain of the Rush was aware that the schooner would never enter Sitka.

MARRIED.

This morning, at St. Paul's Church, by the Ven. Archdeacon Jones, Edgar Hubert Beer, to Miss Fanny Alice Leigh, eldest daughter of Charles Leigh, Esq., R. N., both of this city.

Matrimonial.

OLD ST. PAUL'S was, this morning, the scene of an interesting and auspicious event—the marriage of Mr. E. H. Beer, fourth son of the late George Beer, Esq., and Miss Fanny A. Leigh, eldest daughter of Charles Leigh, Esq., R. N. The ceremony was performed by the Venerable Archdeacon of Prince Edward Island. Misses Lily and Bessie Leigh were the bridesmaids, while Messrs. Arthur and Louis Beer supported the groom. Altogether, the wedding party was a very pretty one. The bride was tastefully attired in a fawn-colored travelling dress, with gloves to match; and the bridesmaids wore dresses of pink nun's veiling, cream colored hats, pink trimming and cream colored gloves. We trust that the saying "Happy is the bride whom the sun shines on," will be bourne out in this case. Mr. and Mrs. Beer took passage in the Pictou steamer for Halifax, New York and other interesting points on the continent. THE EXAMINER unites with many friends in wishing the happy couple a pleasant wedding trip and a prosperous journey through life.
