ESTEEMED EXCHANGES

St. John Sun: Sir Louis Davies is sufficiently humble in his concessions to the United States in the matter of the Yukon boundary. He makes amonement by playing the tyrant and bully when he meets the people of Belfast and Murray Harbor. Foreign governments are allowed to dictate terms in the matter of boundaries, but if an every-day, Prince Edward Islander ventures to say his vote is his own Sir Louis threatens him with the refusal of public works for which parliament has already voted the money.

Changed Her Mind Too.

A young couple in a Lancashire village had been courting for several years. The young man one day said to the woman:

"Sall, I canna marry thee."

"How's that?" asked she.

"I've changed my mind," said he.

"Well, I'll tell you what we'll do," said she. "If folk know that it's thee as has given me up, I shanna be able to get another chap, but if they think that I've given you up then I can get another chap. So we'll have banns published, and when the wedding day comes the parson will say to thee,

"Wilt thou have this woman to be thy wedded wife?" and thou must say, "I will."

And when he says to me, "Wilt thou have this man to be thy wedded husband?" I shall say, "I willna."

The day came, and when the minister said, "Wilt thou have this woman to be thy wedded wife?" the man answered:

"I will."

Then the parson said to the woman:

"Wilt thou have this man to be thy wedded husband?" And she said:

"I will."

"Why," said the young man furiously, "you said you would say, 'I willna.'"

"I know that," said the young woman, "but I've changed my mind since."

—London Answers.

He Didn't Bite.

"I never can tell a story and have it come out all right," said a little woman plaintively the other day. "I thought I had such a good one not long ago. I was walking along and heard one street boy say to another, 'Oh, you go buy 10 cents' worth of potash.' 'What for?' says No. 2. 'For 10 cents,' yelled the other, and ran off giggling.

"I thought it was pretty good, and I'd try it on Charlie at supper. But when I told him to go buy 10 cents' worth of potash he never said a word, and I knew another joke had fallen flat and kept still. But the worst was later. He put on his hat and vanished after supper, coming back in a minute with a little parcel that he handed to me.

"'What's that?' asked I.

"'Why, the potash you said you wanted,' answered he, and I nearly had hysterics on the spot. Did you ever hear anything so perfectly awful? I won't ever try to get off anything funny again."

And the little woman sighed as she walked away.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Tells Its Own Story.

In a pretty Wisconsin town not far from Milwaukee there is a "spite fence" which tells its own story to all the world. It is a high and tight board affair and cuts off a view across a number of beautiful lawns. The man who lives on one side of it evidently feared that the fence would bring down on his head the condemnation of his neighbors. Not wishing to be unjustly blamed, he has therefore painted on his side of the fence in letters that can be read a block away these words:

"He built this fence. I didn't do it."

The man on the other side also had no idea of letting a false impression get out. Accordingly he has painted on the other side of the high barrier:

"I had to do it."

Sharpness of Lunatics.

Having an appointment to preach at an insane asylum for the first time, the editor of The Christian Register asked the medical director for some points. He said the most important thing was to avoid any attempt on the part of the preacher to accommodate himself to his audience as if they were different from other people. He said:

"If you attempt to adapt yourself to their condition, they will instantly discover it, and they will hate you."

PERSONAL.

Ex-Governor Howlan is at Kingston, Ont.

Rev. J. M. McLeod, of British Columbia, is a guest at the Queen Hotel.

Mrs David Sutherland left yesterday morning on a brief visit to Halifax.

Mr. Richard Hunt, United States Consul at Summerside, registered at the Hotel Davies last evening.

Dr. Beer and Mr. L. Beer left this morning for Moncton to attend the funeral of the late Oliver Jones.

Rev. E. J. Grant, of Summerside, will occupy the pulpit of the Baptist church at both services tomorrow.

Rev. W. D. Moss, of Pictou, is expected in Charlottetown tomorrow. He will preach at both services in St. James' Church tomorrow.

Mr. S. H. Jones left yesterday morning for home at Sabrevois, P. Q. This season he has shipped from Summerside upwards of eight thousand lambs and five thousand geese.—Agriculturist.

Rumor has it that Rev. J. S. D. Turbide, assistant pastor of Tignish, has been appointed to the important charge of St. Madalene parish, House Harbor, Magdalen Islands. He will be much missed west of the goes.

Governor-elect Crane, of Massachusetts, is to have a newspaper man—John B. Smith, of the Boston Herald staff—for his private secretary. The new governor is not without plenty of what Sam Slick would call "horse sense." When he wants a good man he knows where to look for him.

It is reported on reliable authority that Rev. T. Casey, P. P., of Fredericton, has been named Coadjutor to His Lordship Bishop Sweeney, of St. John, and that R. V. Thomas Barry, of Bathurst, is to be raised to the episcopacy as Coadjutor bishop to the Lord Bishop of Chatham, N. B. Father Casey is about 39 years of age and was educated at Laval, Quebec, and Father Barry is 42 years of age.

CHEESE SHIPPED.—The Princess this morning had 2,000 boxes cheese shipped by Dillon & Spillet to London, Eng. The same firm will send about 1500 boxes to the same market by Monday's steamer. They are also sending 1,500 from Summerside to-day.

SCALDING ACCIDENT.—William Lynch, employed in the Truro hat factory fell into a pot of boiling dye. He saved the upper part of his body by catching a hot pipe with his hands, and the lower part is most terribly scalded, the skin coming off with the clothing. The boy is in a critical condition.

THE LUCY LAUISE.—The schooner Lucy Louise, owned by Mr. James Roach, Malpeque, went ashore at New London during Sunday night's storm, but was got off by means of boats, with very little injury.—Summerside Agriculturist.

LAMBS.—Eight carloads of lambs from P. E. I. lately passed through Sussex, N. B., for the Boston market.

A Jury of Women

Who have tested the merits of Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills return the verdict that for backache and kidney disorders there is no preparation in any way equal to this great discovery of Dr. A. W. Chase, America's greatest physician. This great kidney cure is sold by all dealers at 25 cents a box, and has proved most effectual as a remedy for the many ills to which woman is subject.

A Big Shipment—Geo. Carter & Co have just received a carload of fancy goods, toys, dolls, games, chinaware, toy picture books, etc, and have lots more to follow. The little folks wants are going to be looked after by this firm for Xmas gifts. 269 3ins.

THE BUTTER MARKET.—According to the Gazette the receipts of butter in Montreal on Wednesday were 1,856 packages. The market continues heavy and price are still declining, the extreme price being 19½c, and prices range down from that figure to 18½ cents. Mail advices from Britain indicate that the competition of New Zealand butter will be keener this year than last. The cows in that portion of the Empire are in much better condition than usual, and the supply of milk is enabling factories to begin operations earlier than usual. The New Zealand Government is putting forth every effort to ensure an improvement in this season's dairy produce. They are employing three traveling instructors in addition to Mr. Ruddick, the dairy commissioner, and they have raised the standards of quality for creamery butter. Many factories have made extensive improvements in their buildings and equipments, and there is every prospect of a record year for quality and quantity.
