

Feminine Chit-Chat.

At this important season provident women begin to lay the keels of Christmas slippers.

A handsome woman pleases the eye, but a good woman pleases the heart. The one is a jewel, the other a treasure.

A Hindoo woman who isn't married before she reaches the age of fourteen is called an old maid, and must do the family drudgery.

The soul's armor is never well set to the heart unless a woman's hand has braced it; and it is only when she braces it loosely that the honor of manhood fails.—Ruskin.

A Chicago girl who promised to elope with her lover backed out at the critical moment when she discovered that his handsome black moustache was partially the result of hair dye.

Wit and Humor.

To say the good die young is a standing invitation for a small boy to be bad.

Never ask a woman her age—that is, not that woman. Ask some other woman.

An untruth a day old is called a lie; a year old, a falsehood; a century old, a legend.

A dog frequently worries a cat, but man, who is nobler than the dog, worries himself.

When a policeman finds a man full he takes him to the station house and his friends bail him out.

The height of industry—a girl so industrious that when she has nothing else to do she knits her brows.

A woman who had four sons, all sailors, compares herself with a year, because she has four sea-sons.

He who courts and goes away may live to court another day; but he who weds and courts girls still, may get in court against his will.

In the reign of Charles I. a Mayor of Norwich actually sent a fellow to prison for saying that the Prince of Wales was born without a shirt.

A cable despatch that a mine was discovered in a street in Moscow, Russia, was headed by an innocent journalist head-writer as "A bonanza in Moscow."

Here lies a man whose earthly race is run; He raised the hammer of a fowling gun, And blew into the muzzle just because He wished to know if it was loaded—and it was.

Confused Amenities—He: "My darling, I really believe my rheumatism has wholly disappeared." She: "Oh, I am so sorry! Now we shall never know when the weather is going to change."

Horseford's Acid Phosphate is beneficial in inebriety and in many diseases where the nervous system is unstrung.

HEBRON, Yarmouth, Oct. 15th, 1882.

To DRs. BENNET & LEWIS, 119 Hollis St., Halifax.

DEAR SIR,—I desire to express my feelings of profound gratitude to you who have helped me so much by the use and application of your wonderful medicine known as your Absorbent Pads and Flats, &c. I was sick about two years and spent a large sum of money with physicians but received very little benefit until I tried your absorbent treatment. When I commenced using it this summer I could scarcely walk across the floor, I had such a weakness across me, and now I can walk a mile at a time and attend to household duties much better than I could before, and feel only too glad to recommend this truly great treatment to any person or persons who may be afflicted as I was. You are at liberty to make any disposition of this note you may deem proper.
