Minister And Family Honoree

On Friday night June 28th, the Kings County Ministerial Association held a social evening at the home of Rev. and Mrs. J.M. Fraser, Montague in honor of Rev. and Mrs. A.M. Rogerson prior to their departure for Weymouth, N.S., where Mr. Rogerson is to be pastor of Weymouth United Baptist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Rogerson were presented with a gift by the Ministerial Association. The President Rev. L.S. Woolfrey in speaking on behalf of the Association paid strong tribute to the keen mind and friendly spirit of Mr. Rogerson, referring also to the kindness of Mrs. Rogerson as experienced in the hospitality of their home, wishing them Gods blessing and assuring them of "our prayers and best wishes in the days to come." Rev. F. MacKinnon presented the gift on behalf of the association. Mr. and Mrs. Rogerson expressed very fittingly their appreciation of the fine fellowship enjoyed in the association.

The hostess, Mrs. J.M. Fraser, was assisted in the serving of a delicious lunch by Mrs. D.A. Campbell and Mrs. L.S. Woolfrey. Those present also included, Rev. D.A. Campbell and Master John Campbell, Rev. and Mrs. W.A. Patterson, Rev. and Mrs. D.A. Sharpe and son Jimmie, and Mr. S.A. Custance.

The evening closed with the singing of favorite hymns and prayer by Mr. Patterson.

Raymond Solomon Is Elected New Mayor Of Georgetown

July 5th, was nomination day at Georgetown to fill the office of Mayor which became vacant by the sudden death several weeks ago of former Mayor P.L. Boudreault. Mr. Raymond Solomon was the only nominee for the office of Mayor and received the unanimous nomination.

A vacancy on the Town Council caused when the resignation of Councillor C.A. Scully, who is now employed in Charlottetown, was filled, when Mr. Marcellus Gotel received the unanimous nomination Mayor Solomon has been acting Mayor since the death of former Mayor Boudreault.

The new Mayor brings to his office many years of experience as a Town Councillor also as a former member and chairman of the School Board. His nomination to fill the mayoralty seat for the next year and a half will be highly approved by the citizens of Georgetown.

Councillor Gotel has previous experience as a Town Councillor and is a past president of the Georgetown Branch Canadian Legion, as well as a past Zone Commander of the Legion. He is a Board member of the Prince Edward Island Fishermen's Association.

Will Join RCA Cadets In Tour Of U. K. And Europe

Warrent Officer Keir Costain, of No. 60 Charlottetown Squadron, who has been selected to join the thirty-three member Royal Canadian Air Cadets who will begin a three week tour of the United Kingdom and Continental Europe on July 16th. Leaving from Montreal, the group will fly to London, where it will be split into two sections which will fly to London, where it will be split into two sections which will travel through most of Europe and visit historic sites in England. On August 15th, the Canadian cadets will arrive in Montreal.

On July 20th, air cadets of Britain, Norway, Holland, Denmark, and Sweden will arrive in Canada on an exchange visit.

The cadet tours, inaugurated by the League in 1947, are part of an designed to promote international goodwill.

The Canadian party will visit the historic city of London on the day after arrival, and on the second day, will split up into several groups. Eight cadets will be flown by the Royal Danish Air Force to host countries on the Continent, two each going to Norway, Sweden, Holland and Denmark where extensive tours have been arranged for them.

The remaining 25 cadets will travel throughout United Kingdom as guests of the Royal Air Force and the Air Training Corps of Great Britain. Leaving London, they will head for Bristol, home of the Bristol aircraft plant where the giant Britannia is being built—then on the cities of Bath and Wells and, of course, the seashore.

The young Canadian ambassadors will then visit Exeter and have a trip over the Dartmoor Moors. At Plymouth they will be guests of honour at a civic reception and a dance.

IN SCOTLAND

Edinburg in Scotland are next: then a trip to Stratford-on-Avon; a two-day visit to the ancient University of Oxford (where the cadets will stay overnight); and a tour of Blenheim Palace, Churchill's birthplace.

After some free shopping time in London, the cadets will attend a big International Cadet Rally at RAF White Waltham, where

LITTLE SANDS

Mr. and Mrs. William D. Fraser, Whim Road, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Hicken, Lower Montague, were recent visitors at Mr. Alex Blue's in Little Sands.

Mr. Hugh MacNeill, Little Sands, visited his sister Mrs. R.C. MacLeod, Kinross on Sunday, June 16th.

Residents here regret to hear of the death of Mr. James Gorrivett of Nine Mile Creek. His sister, Mrs. James Dixon resides in Little Sands. Mrs. Dixon attended the funeral of her brother.

So far as the writer knows no teacher has been hired in the Little Sands School. The school interior has been repainted and other equipment added during the present school year and is considered in real good condition. It is not a heavy school. Somewhere about 20 pupils or less in the district.

On Monday evening June 24th, the public examinations were held in the Little Sands School with a good number of visitors from Little Sands and some from High Bank on good attendance. The pupils showed by their demonstration of work that they had been well taught by their teacher, Mrs. Lillian Livingstone of Hopefield. Many of the pupils received 100 per cent in their different tests. Much credit is due to the teacher. Grade VIII Certificates were won by Dorothy Blue and John Meney. First Aid Certificates were also won by 10 pupils. Refreshments were served by the ladies to all. The children were
