THE WATER QUESTION.—The adjourned discussion at the Caledonian Club Literary Society—"World Waterworks prove beneficial to the interests of Charlottetown?" came off last night; J. W. Morrison in the Chair. At the close of a lively debate the question was put from the Chair and carried in the affirmative.

ONE of the menacemen on P. E. Island resides at New Perth. He recently sent to THE EXAMINER a bogus account of the sudden death of a respected resident of that place. None but the stupidest of ninnies would be guilty of such a contemptible trick as this. We have a copy of his handwriting, which will prove a good clue to his detection.

DEATH SENTENCES.—Applications are made to the Governor General for the commutation of sentences of death passed on an Indian for the murder of a trader named Yeomans at Skema River, British Columbia, in June last, and to be hanged the 24th of next month. [SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.]

LONDON EXPLOSIONS.

EXCITEMENT AND ANGER ENKINDLED.

Danger of Lynching Cunningham the Prisoner.

ANOTHER ARREST!

PRECAUTIONS AGAINST DYNAMITERS.

LONDON, Jan. 26.

The excitement and anger enkindled by the explosion on Saturday afternoon, still continues. Rumor was current last evening and this morning, that Cunningham, who was arrested at the Tower would have had a hearing to-day at the Thames police court, in Arbour St. The reports caused the court and streets in the vicinity to be crowded with excited citizens, and extra police had to be placed on duty to keep order. The feeling against Cunningham is very bitter, and if the crowd once got their hands on him there is no doubt he would be lynched.

ANOTHER ARREST.

Shortly after noon it was learned that the detectives had arrested another man connected with the explosions, and that he and Cunningham would be arraigned together at the Bow Street police court. The people in the vicinity of the Thames police court then left in the direction of the Bow Street court.

VALUABLE INFORMATION RECEIVED.

The letter received by the police officials yesterday, is now believed to be a very important document, in addition to other valuable information. It states that St. Paul's Cathedral and the office of the Daily Telegraph are among the buildings which the dynamiters threaten to blow up. Westminster Hall and the Tower are closed to every one, except Government officials engaged in inspecting the structure.

TAKING PRECAUTIONS.

Many persons carrying parcels in the streets to-day have been stopped by the police and the parcels examined before they were permitted to pass on. The approaches to all public buildings are being rigidly guarded. Nobody is allowed to enter without submitting to the closest scrutiny.

SURROUNDED BY SENTINELS.

The Tower and Parliament houses are surrounded with sentinels and extra policemen. Colonel Mejdene, chief of government department of explosives, is minutely examining the scenes of the explosions. Immense crowds of people continue to be attracted to the vicinity of the Tower and Westminster Hall.

VERY LATEST PARTICULARS.

LONDON Jan. 26.

THE PRISONER CUNNINGHAM.

The excitement and anger enkindled by the explosions continue. The man Cunningham arrested is said to be connected with the explosions without doubt.

A DUBLIN COUNCILMAN REBUKED.

At a meeting in Dublin, Councilman Phelan spoke in justification of the outrages, but was promptly rebuked by a Priest present who denounced the dynamite work as "outrages against Ireland and against God."

COST OF THE EXPLOSION $70,000.

It is estimated that the damage to property by the late explosion exceeds $70,000.

The Franco-Chinese War.

PARIS, Jan. 24.

Admiral Courbet telegraphs as follows regarding the engagement with the Chinese at Keelung—A detachment of the African infantry inopportunely attempted to carry the strong Chinese earthworks outside of Keelung, and was repulsed. Nineteen men were killed, and twelve were seriously and fourteen slightly wounded. Reinforcements have since arrived and landed at Keelung in excellent health.

Irish Home Rule.

Mr. Parnell, on his arrival at Cork, on the 22nd inst., was greeted with great enthusiasm by thousands of people. The streets were gaily decorated. Addressing the multitude he said it was not possible for English parties much longer to resist the determined band of Irishmen, if backed by the Irish people, who in the near future will prove invincible and unconquerable. Home rule, he said, was stolen from Ireland and must be restored, and that must include the restitution of Grattan's parliament. He was repeatedly cheered. Although ill, he attended a banquet in his honor on the 23rd, by the corporation and electors of Cork. None of the Roman Catholic clergy attended, the bishop having forbidden them to be present. The nationalists take encouragement from the remarks of Sir Thomas Brassey, M. P., in a speech at Hastings on the 21st inst. He said he believed a movement in the direction of local self-government for Ireland was imminent, and that important concessions would be made to the Irish.

A Tragedy.

TERRIBLE RESULTS OF THE USE OF WHISKEY—A WIFE AND DAUGHTER'S DEATH.

A drunken wretch, named Hantin, who lives near Lime Lake, township of Hungerford, Ontario, two of whose daughters were ill with scarlet fever, sold his last cow a few days ago to procure food, but spent the money in a tavern and went home drunk. About midnight on the 21st inst. he quarrelled with his wife, and took up a heavy chair for the purpose of killing her. The oldest of the sick girls sprang out of bed and threw open the door, thus allowing her mother and sister to escape. The brute then struck the girl with the chair. The blow proved fatal a few hours later. The mother, who reached a neighbor's house in her nightclothes, also died from the effects of the exposure, and both were buried on the same day.

Thomas Perry, who murdered his sweet-heart, Miss Alicia Burns, step-daughter of Galway hotel-keeper, in November last, was hanged at Galway, Ireland, on the 20th inst. Perry was engaged to be married to Miss Burns, but she broke off the engagement. He travelled over one hundred miles for the purpose of committing the deed. He reached Galway in the night and stayed at another hotel until the morning, when he went to seek Miss Burns, and found her with her sister. He asked her if she was still determined to give him up as she had written. She replied "yes." Perry then shot her through the heart, and then shot himself, but without wounding himself seriously.

A SERIES of large forgeries committed a month or so ago have just been brought to light in Montreal. In September last the proprietor of the Standard Clothing Store on Notre Dame street, engaged a dashing looking American, who gave the name of Jerrule, as a salesman in his store. Jerrule was afterwards promoted to the position of confidential clerk, and made use of the opportunities which he thus obtained to intercept drafts, forge the name of his employer, and cash them. He then resigned his position and is now supposed to be in Chicago. The amount which he obtained by these means is thought to be $1,500.
