SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT

Summary of Proceedings.

OTTAWA, April 1.

In the House of Commons to-day brief reference was made by Sir John Macdonald and Mr. Laurier to the late Mr. Perley, senior member for Ottawa, who died early this morning.

It was agreed that when the House adjourned on Thursday evening it should stand adjourned till the following Tuesday.

Mr. Rykert himself was under examination before the Privilege Committee this morning, in the endeavor to explain away the statement in the letters implicating the Ministers, and he completely exonerated all members of the cabinet as having a share in his transaction, and admitted that the references were made for the purpose of influencing his clients. After Easter, Hon. Mr. McDougall will address the Committee on Mr. Rykert's behalf.

THE AWFUL FLOOD.

Great Suffering and Destitution.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 1.

Information from the Lacoma circle between Helena and Arkansas City, which is partially surrounded by the Mississippi and White Rivers, says that the people there are in a deplorable condition and suffering. The water poured over the levees on all sides, and in three hours the circle was filled even with the surface of the rivers, the water averaging eight feet deep. It occurred so suddenly that the people had no time to do anything. Many of the houses were swept away. The people are living in the lofts of their houses. Some remained in the trees all night. The people are now transferred to gin houses.

The Irish Land Bill.

LONDON, April 1.

The bill dealing with the purchase of land and congested districts in Ireland was printed this morning. It bears the name of Balfour, Goschen and Madden. The bill covers fifty-two pages, contains seventy-five clauses, and is divided into four parts. The first part deals with the sale and purchase of land; the second with congestion, the third with the constitution and jurisdiction of the land department; and the fourth with the enactments repealed.

The Times considers Balfour's bill an honest endeavor to deal with the problem. It objects to the land department consolidation clauses because, though possibly unavoiding, they unavoidably tend to stereotype some of the worst features of Gladstone's agrarian legislation.

The News says: "The more Balfour's measure is examined, the larger grow the points of objections.

A Great Strike.

VIENNA, April 1.

Ten thousand builders, eight hundred bakers and apprentices are now on strike in this city.

Death of an M. P.

OTTAWA, April 1.

Mr. Perley, M. P. for Ottawa, died rather suddenly this morning, of diabetes and gangrene.

A Big Show Day.

PERHAPS never before in the history of Charlottetown was so much interest shown in connection with a display of new goods as was noticeable in Beer Bros. store to-day. Their large establishment was visited at an early hour by eager sightseers, not one of whom, we venture to say, was disappointed. Among the visitors was a representative of THE EXAMINER, who was courteously shown through the establishment.

The first department the reporter visited was that devoted to dress goods. The very large space given to this branch indicates its growth and importance since this enterprising firm made it a specialty. Nothing could excel the variety of new materials, new colors and new designs visible. Occupying a prominent position were a number of London-made robes, exhibiting the latest style of drapery and trimming; and these, as well as the unmade robes, were remarkable for their rich, new colorings and fine material.

In the mantle department the scribe saw dolmans and lace, silk and cloth, and shoulder wraps in lace and silk, jet and velvet, and jet and silk in so many varieties and qualities as to show clearly that the ladies of our city are now able to obtain some of the handsomest goods imported into Canada.

Perhaps the most interesting and attractive show of all was that of the millinery. London, Paris and New York, have each contributed to the immense variety. The supply of laces, flowers and ribbons shown was most bewildering—the flowers being perfect marvels of workmanship.

The impression made by the whole display of goods was that there was something to suit everyone. The glove and handkerchief display was very attractive and we saw some really astonishing bargains amongst them. The sunshades, too, were of great interest to the ladies, especially the "Utopias." We regret that our space will not admit of a more extended notice.

Very Cheap Crockery. We have purchased all the crockery in the bankrupt stock of the late firm of Ritchie Bros. This will be offered cheaper than ever before, at the cheapest Crockery Store.—W. P. Colwill

EASTER STOCK.—Among the Easter cattle shown on Market Square yesterday were five steers and one heifer owned and fed by Blake Bros. The aggregate weight of this batch was 9,654 lbs., and the Messrs. Blake Bros., consider them the best lot they have fed for some time. The cattle shown by the Stock Farm were also excellent, the cow purchased by Messrs. Blake Bros., for $104, being a particularly good specimen. To Blake stock, as given in the list in another portion of THE EXAMINER, most be added a cow, fed by Mr. Lowther, of Rice Point, which weighed 1,270 lbs., and which did not reach the city until this morning.
