C. G. I. T. Rally Held At Kensington

—More than 90 teen age girls and their leaders attended a C. G. I. T. Rally in the United Church Assembly Hall, Kensington on November 14, representing groups from O'Leary, Summerside, Borden, Preetown, Kensington, Bedeque, North Bedeque and Hunter River. The Rally was directed by Mrs. L. M. Murray, assisted by C.G.I.T. leaders—Mrs. Barrass, Mrs. Brandon, Miss Windsor Smith, Mrs. Matthews, Mrs. Coggins, Mrs. R. L. Cairns, Miss Dorothy MacKenzie, Miss Beryl Woodside, and Mrs. Robert Carruthers. Registration was capably handled by members of the Kensington group. After a number of get acquainted games, Jean Murray gave the address of welcome. Divided into a number of smaller groups, an hour's discussion on "The Girl and the Church" dealt with many aspects of this subject of interest to each one. In the absence of one of the leaders, the Reverend L. M. Murray conducted one of the groups. Two hymn tunes, "All for Jesus" and "Crinoids" were practiced previous to the worship service which was conducted in the sanctuary by Mrs. Murray on the theme, "Discipleship." Following the noon hour when delegates were entertained at different homes in the town, a sing-song was conducted by Elizabeth Brookins. The organist and pianist for the rally was Myrna Cousins. Interesting reports were given by the representatives of each group telling of the work accomplished so far this Fall. An hour soon passed as the girls worked in Handcraft group.

Miss Arlene Larter, a P.W.C. student, who represented the C.G.I. T. group at the Coronation gave a description of her trip. Helen MacMillan, Kensington, reported on Camp Council which she attended at Elmtree, N.B., and Catherine Calbeck, Bedeque, reported on the camp held at Augustine Cove. Elizabeth Strong of the Summerside Baptist group demonstrated the correct way to wear the C.G.I.T. uniform. The afternoon worship service was led by members of the Preetown group. Mrs. Alexander MacKay, Mrs. Donald MacKenzie, Mrs. Robert Hogg, and Miss Edna MacMurdo assisted in serving the box lunch, after which Bonnie Beatty, Borden, expressed the thanks of the Rally which closed by singing "Taps."

Covehead Charge Honors Rev. T. A. Wilson

Rev. T. A. Wilson who has been pastor of Covehead charge for 36 years, recently retired from the ministry, and is residing in his new home at Central Royal. On June 28 Rev. Mr. Wilson preached his farewell sermon in St. James United Church, West Covehead, to a large congregation. Mr. Orr McCann on behalf of the charge read an address of appreciation of Mr. Wilson's many years of faithful service. A well filled purse was presented. Rev. Wilson fittingly responded. At the regular weekly choir practice in West Covehead Church, Mrs. Chesley Hughes read an address to Rev. Mr. Wilson and Miss Helen Wilson, appreciative of their splendid leadership, and the presentation of a leather-bound revised edition of the Bible was made by Mr. Walter McLure, and a gift of china to Miss Wilson by Mr. Orr McCann. At the July meeting of the W. M. S., an address was read by Mrs. Ramsay Auld and a beautiful table lamp was presented to Miss Wilson and a suitable gift to Miss Doris Brown. Covehead Y. P. U. entertained Miss Wilson and Miss Brown at a wicker party at Stanhope Beach on August 24th, and suitable gifts were presented.

Rev. E. H. Bean Inducted At Kensington Ceremony

—In traditional ceremony Thursday evening at the Presbyterian Church in Kensington the Presbytery of Prince Edward Island solemnly inducted the Rev. E. H. Bean, B.A., Th.B., B.D., into the historic pastoral charge of Kensington, Malpeque and Preetown. The service was in charge of the Moderator, the Rev. J. D. Mackay of Summerside who conducted Divine Worship assisted by the Clerk of the Court, the Rev. T. H. B. Somers of Charlottetown. The sermon for the occasion was delivered by the Rev. J. E. Heathwood of Belfast; the charge to the Minister was given by the Rev. L. E. Blakie of Brookfield and the charge to the Congregation by the Rev. D. A. Campbell of New London. The Rev. Donald Nicholson, the Rev. L. M. MacNaughton and the following Elders, Mr. W. C. Lawson, Mr. J. A. MacKinnon and Mr. A. A. MacDonald were also present together with the Rev. Wm. M. Hyndman, a visitor. A large congregation filled the church to capacity and included ministers of other congregations in and around Kensington. During the narration of the steps taken to fill the vacancy the Clerk, Rev. T. H. B. Somers, read a tribute to the life and work of Mr. Bean from the Presbytery of Miramichi where Mr. Bean had ministered for 12 years with outstanding success. A message was also read from the Rev. E. C. Evans who had given pulpit supply to the congregation during the long period of vacancy. Following the service of worship a reception was held in the hall in honour of the Rev. and Mrs. Bean and the members of Presbytery and their wives during which Mr. H. B. MacLeod warmly welcomed the new minister and his wife and paid heartfelt tribute to the services of the Rev. D. A. Campbell who had served as interim-moderator since the charge became vacant in April, 1951, and presented Mr. Campbell with a cheque as a token of the appreciation of the Session and Congregations within the Charge.

Fortune Road W. I. Hold Annual Meeting

—The annual meeting of Fortune Road Women's Institute was held in the schoolroom Nov. 10 with 12 members present. Roll call was responded to by the paying of membership fees. Two new members were welcomed. The president gave an address, thanking the members for the loyal support given her during the year and expressing the hope that all work undertaken during the coming year would prove as successful as the efforts of the year then closing. Officers were elected as follows: President, Mrs. R. L. Burge; vice-president, Mrs. Allan Burge; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Leonard Russell; directors, Mrs. James McInnis, Mrs. Wm. McMillan; auditors, Mrs. John Larkin, Mrs. Fred Curran. It was decided to send a letter to the Dept. of Health and Welfare, protesting against holding Central Inoculation Clinics. The members felt that these clinics should be held in the district schools. A hot chicken supper was served by and for the members and was greatly enjoyed, thus providing a happy climax to a busy, successful year.

IN MEMORIAM

MR. PATRICK J. MACINNIS
This life on July 28 of Patrick J. MacInnis, Postmaster, Borden, was learned with deep regret. The deceased was born at Mount Tryon 59 years ago and was the youngest son of the late Phalen MacInnis and Ambersine MacDonald. The late Mr. MacInnis was Postmaster at Borden since 1923. He also served as Mayor and at the time of his death was vice-president of the Canadian Postmasters Association, Maritime Branch, Secretary of School Trustees and a valued Councillor. He will be greatly missed by all who knew him. He was always foremost in religious, business and social life of the Community, being a faithful member of the Sacred Heart Church. He leaves to mourn his sorrowing widow, the former Charlotte King, Charlottetown, a daughter, Inez, Toronto, Ont., a son, Hilar, at home and three brothers, Martin, Alexander and Neil of Albany, P. E. I. The funeral, largely attended, was held from his late residence to the Sacred Heart Church, where Solemn High Mass was celebrated by Rev. Reginald MacDonald, with Rev. W. V. MacDonagh as Sub-Deacon, also present in the Sanctuary were Rev. Preston Hamill, Rev. Claude Sines and Rev. Sylvie Gallant. Rev. Reginald MacDonald performed the burial service. Interment is in Seven Mile Bay Cemetery. Pall bearers were Mayor Willard Leard, Captain Wylie Irving, Messrs Gilbert Bell, Frank Dorsey, Russell Deighan and William McIvor. The many floral tributes, mass cards and messages of sympathy indicates how the deceased is thought of and remembered. Dedicated to the late Patrick J. MacInnis, from his family. One evening as the sun went down, It stole a man of some renown, A man who we, his family, knew. Had lived and loved his days so few; And as he left his family three, The Good Lord said, "what do you see?" We hope and pray his words to be: "I have lived to see Eternity." Inez MacInnis
