PLAYED A WAR GAME.

HOW THE BIG MAN FLEECED THE SUBSTITUTE BROKERS.

The Tricky Six Footer Worked His Physical Defect to the Limit and Reaped a Rich Harvest While the Opportunity Lasted.

During the civil war in what is now a pretty village of Michigan and has since become a city without losing any of its beauty lived a strapping six footer who looked as hard as nails, dressed well, talked smoothly and was set up like a soldier. He had no means of support visible to the naked eye in the village which he called home, but he would make occasional trips from which he returned with plenty of money and a fund of interesting talk about some section of the north. The people thought him a mystery, but he was a pleasant one, and curiosity never went further than to ask ingenious questions that were just as ingeniously parried. After his harvest was at an end the mystery explained himself without reserve, and no one expressed serious disapproval of the way in which his wits had won him his money.

"It was a simple case of diamond cut diamond," he laughed. "I've been taking fleeces from the fellow that went out to shear. I'm not an Apollo Belvedere, Diomedes or Samson in appearance, but I pass in a crowd as a fine specimen of physical development. The truth is that I'm a whited sepulcher. I was born with a defective heart and would not take three minutes of real violent exercise for all the money you could load on a freight train. I take things easy all along the line, and the engine keeps pumping up to requirements.

"When I could see the end of what property was left me, and it was not far away, I cast about for some light work to do and concluded to deal with the substitute brokers. There was no chance of meeting the required medical examinations, so I took another tack. Whenever I visited a place in my business, I'd manage incidentally to fall in with the broker. I'm better than a raw hand as a jollier, and I'd soon have some mutual friends as innocent parties in the play.

"When it came in naturally, I'd chaff the broker about his business and ask what kind of a soldier I'd make. He would either jump open mouthed at the proposition or chaff back under an impression that I would never think of going to war. In either case it would usually come to some kind of a proposition from the broker. Then the other fellows would guy me, intimate that I was a bluffer and wonder how I was to get out of the thing without a clear funk.

"Here's where my fine work came in. I'd demand a retainer, and I'd put it high enough just to make the broker think that I was trying to escape him. If he would pay me a specified sum down, I would agree to appear at the recruiting office the next day and offer my services, but I gave notice that I assumed no chances. If they would not have me, the broker must stand the loss. The idea of my being rejected always raised a laugh and only tended to confirm the broker in the belief that I was trying to escape him. When the doctor turned me down, I went into the camps, became nervously timid, aroused the sympathy of those with whom I had become acquainted and snapped an order to the disgruntled broker to keep clear away from me.

"The best haul I made was in Pittsburg. A coal baron there who could not well enlist and who had not been drafted wanted a representative in the army who would make a name honorable to that of the principal. He was after a big, handsome, intelligent fellow of whom he could be proud and put the whole matter into the hands of a shrewd little broker. I managed to meet him at the Monongahela House, and I worked around to the main subject in the manner I have described, but I could see that he was sharp and did not like to run any chances.

"While he went to dinner, after which we were to resume our talk, I went out and had a short conference with a huge truckman. When I again met the broker, that truckman insisted on bothering us and, after showing a proper amount of patience, I threw him half way across the office, and he went limping out, while all observers grew wide eyed in their wonder. I did not exert enough strength to throw a half grown boy five feet, but the truckman knew his business, and was paid $20 for attending to it.

"That apparently cool courage and gigantic strength removed all doubt from the mind of the broker. I was the man he wanted, and he wanted me badly. I stuck out till I got $2,000 as a 'retainer,' and then was rejected. I felt like giving the money back when the millionaire came around to condole with me and tell how disappointed he was in not having me for a substitute, but I didn't. It would have been an admission that I was not in a legitimate line of business."—Detroit Free Press

SKIN LIKE BABY'S

Skin diseases from the merest pimples to the most obstinate eczema, salt rheum, running sores, are quickly, pleasantly and permanently cured by Dr. Agnew's Ointment—35 cents.

Who does not envy a baby its soft velvety skin? How many suffer from distressing skin diseases—Do you suffer? Have you tetter—salt rheum—scald head—ring worm—eczema—ulcers—blotches on the skin—chronic erysipelas—liver spots and what not else of these distasteful and aggravating disorders which disfigure and discourage? Dr. Agnew's Ointment allays the distressing itching, burning, stinging sensations which are part and parcel of such troubles, and in a thousand cases where internal treatments have failed to heal and eradicate them it has worked wonderful and permanent cures—and no skin disease, no matter of how long standing, has baffled its curative qualities. In cases of chronic eczema it has proved its great worth, and cases are on record where this dread affection has been the birthright of its patient and constant companion until past middle life, and Dr. Agnew's Ointment has cured speedily and permanently. It is a boon to mothers because it is a boon to babyland—scald head and its irritations, which are accompaniments to the teething period, are quickly driven off and restlessness passes away—and where torture reigned with baby this balm brought rest and a cure—it affords instant relief from the itching distress. . . .

Do you suffer from piles—itching, blind, bleeding or ulcerated?—No remedy has brought so quick relief, spared painful surgical operations as Dr. Agnew's Ointment—it has proved itself an absolute cure for piles in all forms and at all stages—one application will relieve the itching, irritating sensations in an instant—and long standing cases disappear after from three to five nights' treatment,—the pain and soreness quit you and the tumors vanish.

A lady living in a northern County town writes that for seventeen years she was troubled with salt rheum. She took doctors' treatments and used many lotions without any permanent relief. Reading of the cures made by Dr. Agnew's Ointment, she decided to try it. The first application allayed the irritation and she continued using it—the disease rapidly disappeared and now for two years there has been no sign of a return of it.

The baby of another lady living on Pacific Ave. in Toronto, was terribly afflicted with scald-head and eczema—she tried washes prescribed by her physician, and soaps advertised for such purposes, but the disease remained—Dr. Agnew's Ointment was her good friend; half a box cured the baby and cured herself of troublesome piles which had been the bane of her life since baby's birth.
