U. S. Horses of The Year Named

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 4 (AP)—A half-dozen trotters and pacers from three states — New York, Michigan and Kentucky — today were named "horses of the year" in harness racing's various age and gait divisions.

The selections by a panel of 100 turf writers, were announced by the United States Trotting Association.

Honored were:
Two-year-old trotter: Lively Lady, owned by Walnut Hill Stud of Donerail, Ky., but racing on lease to the Gay Acres Stable of Wooster, O.
Two-year-old pacer: Hollisota, owned by Dr. F. R. McNabb, Ithaca, Mich.
Three-year-old trotter: Sharp Note, winner of the $87,500 Hambletonian this year, owned by C. W. Clark of Dearborn, Mich.
Three-year-old pacer: Meadow Rice, winner of the $60,000 "Little Brown Jug", owned by W. G. Reynolds, Louisville, Ky.
Aged trotter: Star's Pride, owned by E. Roland Harriman and L. B. Sheppard of Goshen, N. Y.
Aged pacer: Good Time, owned by Bill Cane of Goshen.
