

SAVAGE HARBOR

The many friends of Mrs. Barbara Doyle, Savage Harbour, will be happy to learn that she has fully recovered from her recent illness and is now able to be about her duties as usual.

Friends throughout this district were saddened when they learned of the death of Mr. John Ladner which occurred recently at his home in Charlottetown. Mr. Ladner was well and favorably known in this area. Honest and fair in all his dealings he built up a veritable host of friends. To the members of the bereaved family sincerest sympathy is extended. Among those from this section attending the funeral services at Charlottetown and Bangor were Mr. and Mrs. John Pigot and Mr. Elsie Pigot.

The many friends of Mr. Freddie Mosher, Savage Harbour, will be pleased to learn that his condition has so far improved as to permit his leaving hospital and returning to his home. Suddenly stricken while in the city, Mr. Mosher was removed to the Charlottetown Hospital where he was under treatment for two weeks.

Undoubtedly the greatest cribbage combination to ever strut their stuff in this vicinity is the unbeatable duo of MacCormack and McConnell. Never once bested in their last hundred series, they now have set their sights on the 400 mark a number made famous in sports by the great Maurice Richard of hockey fame. Playing with a coolness that belies their intent this famous brace of card-board twirlers are establishing new records at every setting.

Mrs. Dan O'Connell accompanied by her children Francis and Gerard of Ten Mile House were visitors during the week to St. Andrews where they were the guests of Mrs. O'Connell's mother, Mrs. Frank MacIntyre.

The men of Savage Harbour gathered during the week for the purpose of checking and making any necessary repairs to the telephone line running from Griffin's Corner on the St. Peter's Road through to the wharf at Savage Harbour. This is a very necessary service and the co-operation which the venture received shows how thoroughly that fact is appreciated in the district. The work was completed in one day.

Every period of the year brings its own particular chore to those who seek their livelihood on the farms of the province. Right now the gathering of firewood for the coming year holds priority. Conditions to date have been ideal

EAST BALTIC

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Robertson who on December 27th, quietly celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary at their home in Kingsboro.

The Candlelight Night Watch Service was well attended in the East Point Baptist Church, Kingsboro, on New Year's Eve. Rev. D. J. McClure, Mrs. Floyd McLean, Miss Clarabell Ching and Mr. Brent Robertson took an active part to make the service a success. Refreshments were served in the adjoining for such work and already many farmyards boast huge piles of the fallen timbers. The musical notes of the circular saw lends a pleasing cheerfulness to many a winter's morning and we might add happy smiles to many a housewife as she looks out upon a growing mountain of fuel.

Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Jay and son Wayne of St. Peter's, were recent visitors to Savage Harbour where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mosher.

The card parties and crokinole parties held each Friday night in the Mt. Stewart Community Hall and sponsored by the Ladies Auxiliary are becoming increasing popular, starting a few weeks ago with but a few tables in operation, it has steadily grown until last Friday there were nineteen tables in the play.

vestry by several young ladies. Mrs. Clinton Stewart was organist for the night.

His many friends are pleased to see Mr. R. J. Kidson back to his home in Red Point after being a patient in the Souris Hospital with pneumonia.

Old Jack Frost did favour the young fry on January 1st, when they had their first night of skating in the Red Point Community Rink and a large crowd were there and all hope for more such good ice.

NORTHERN RIVER

The Coppermine river flows 525 miles to the west end of Coronation gulf in the Arctic ocean.

NORTH WILTSHIRE W. M. S.

The January meeting of the North Wiltshire Auxiliary of the W. M. S. was held at the home of Mrs. Bruce Noy. The worship service with the Theme Evangelism, The Church's Business, was led by Mrs. Ralph Noy and opened with the hymn "God of mercy, God of Grace." This was followed by Scripture readings and discussion, and prayer by the leader closed this period.

Mrs. MacRae had charge of the Study Period, the topic being "The Main Business of the Church", this was based on Chapter five of "The Church in India" and told that after much Evangelism in India much more remains to be accomplished.

The president, presided over the business period. Ten members and two visitors were present. The secretaries of departments gave reports: Supply Sec'y reported one large carton of quilts and clothing sent to Toronto for overseas relief; boxes of used cards were sent to Trinidad. The Community Friendship Sec'y reported 166 home and 43 hospital calls made during the year and 173 letters and cards sent to sick etc., also 28 gifts of flowers and fruit; the associate members sec'y reported givings of $16.85 by members of her department; the treasurer reported $191 raised and sent to Presbyterian treasurer.

The members had canvassed the district for the United Church training school, and also gave a donation to the Maritime Home for girls. The meeting closed with the hymn "We Give Thee But Thine Own", and the benediction.

The linen industry was introduced in Belfast, one of the world's largest linen centres, in 1633.

WEST ROYALTY V. I.

On the evening of January 6, nine members of the West Royalty W. I. met at the home of Mrs. Harold MacRae with the president, Mrs. Fred Gates, presiding.

Mrs. Russel Bell reported sending Christmas treats to older people of the community and a number of thank-you notes were read. Mrs. James MacInnis displayed the beautiful blanket which is to be drawn for on Feb. 7. Mrs. MacInnis also distributed patches to some members and those without patches to bring same articles to be auctioned off when the sewing material was completed.

The lunch committee for the February meeting will be Mrs. Eric Hurry, Mrs. Robert Hurry, Mrs. Willard Lank and Mrs. Lorne MacDonald with Mrs. Willard Lank as

Jackie Parker To Receive Trophy

CALGARY, (CP)—Jackie Parker, Mississippi State halfback who scored Edmonton Eskimos' winning game against Montreal Alouettes, has been named the most valuable player of the year in the Western Interprovincial Football Union.

Parker will receive the Jeff Nicklin Trophy if WIFU officials can find it. A Winnipeg spokesman said the trophy has disappeared but probably will be found shortly.

hostess for next meeting on February 3.

Lunch was then served by Mrs. MacRae and committee in charge and a social hour spent.
