ORIGINAL SOUNDTRACK—Fast Times at Ridgemount High Taken from the book of the same title, written by Cameron Crowe, formerly of Rolling Stones, Ridgemount High became a movie through the same people who did it for Urban Cowboy and Heavy Metal. There are 19 tracks, all flat out rock and roll. There's been one single released, Somebody's Baby by Jackson Browne, but look out for several others, all of them brand new. These include Billy Squire's "Fast Times" (The Best Years of Our Lives), "Don't Be Lonely" by Quarterflash "Speeding" by the Go-Go's, Sammy Hagar with the title track, "Sleeping Angel" by Stevie Nicks, Donna Summer's Highway Runner and more.

The Palmer on the Palmer/ Jost tarck of "She's my Bay" is David Palmer, the vocalist on Steely Dan's first album.

A FLOCK OF SEAGULLS GOES GOLD IN CANADA-- Quality records has announced that the self titled album, by A Flock of Seagull s has attained the gold status (50,000 sales). Canada is the first country in the world to achieve the gold level for this album.

BACHMAN--Back to Canada--Randy Bachman has his mansion studio up for sale. It's located just across the border from Canada and he has apparently bought a place up near UBC. Randy has remarried and he and his wife, Denise McCann, will shortly be releasing an album, which will be an electronic recording featuring Randy and Denise as a duet. A couple of songs are written by Randy's son, now a teenager.

RUSH --Signals
Produced at Le Studio (Morin Heights, Quebec) by Rush and Terry Brown and mastered digitally by JVC, Rush enters the world of the computer with this super charged package. Lyricist Neil Peart has never been better. Probably best punched home by "New World Man," taken as a single; "He's a rebel and a runner—he's a signal turning green—he's a restless romantic --WANTS TO RUN THE BIG MACHINE --learning to match the beat of the old world man." The countdown track which Rush dedicated, for obvious reasons to astronauts Young and Crippen, is another classic example of Peart's way with words and Geddy Lee's impeccable classic interpretation. One track that certainly stands out as being more progressive than what Rush has done in the past is "Losing It at 4:53" AND FEATURING Ben Mink on electrical violins. Clever use of hydrant for front cover, also effectively on the disc label. Rush is one of the few recording groups to include lyrics with their package, a very important item for today's record buyers...
